

STRESEMANN PLANS RETURN OF FREDERICK WILHELM HOHENZOLLERN HAND AGAIN MAY GRASP SCEPTRE

Whitehall Street Buildings Guttured by Flames

POLICE ROUSE HOTEL GUESTS TO FOIL FLAMES

Roomers Over Walton's Cafe Flee in Night Attack as Blaze Sweeps Building.

FLOOD OF SHOES REWARDS CURIOUS

Damage in Early Morning Fire Estimated at $50,000 or $75,000 by Other Owners.

Fire starting in a rooming house operated by William Carroll, at 153-155 Whitehall street, early this morning threatened the lives of scores of roomers living on the second floor of the building which covers numbers
153-155-157 Whitehall street.

The upper floor of the entire building was gutted, as was the rear end of the ground floor of No. 157 Whitehall street which is occupied by Walton's cafe and Saul's shoe store. Part of the building is occupied by the Cu-han cigar factory. The lower floors of all three numbers were damaged by smoke and water.

The first alarm was turned in at 2:30 o'clock this morning, and was followed a few minutes later by a general alarm turned in by Chief Cody who supervised the battle against the flames. Twenty streams of water were played on the blaze from the rear of the burning building and ten from the front. The blaze was pronounced under control at 3:20 o'clock this morning. Chief Cody refused to estimate the amount of damage but property owners of the neighborhood set the figure at between $50,000 and $75,000.

CHAINED SELF TO CAR AND DROVE IN RIVER

Providence, R. I., November 1.—
Gerald M. Richmond, 47, an investment securities broker of this city, was found drowned, imprisoned in his overturned sedan in a river in Re-hoboth near here today. The machine had left the road, crossed a meadow and plunged into the water.

MR. BUSINESS MAN—

Let us work with you for better business. Let us help you plan and conduct your advertising campaign. This newspaper has a corps of men and women trained to make classified advertisements that will pull. Call upon them, or have them call upon you and give you a few pointers on the sort of things people want and expect of you. Your want-ad in this newspaper will be your best business builder.

WANT AD DEPT.
The Atlanta Constitution
Phone Main 5000
"Atlanta's Best Want Ad Service"

Story of Death Penned As Cold Creeps to Hands

War Veteran Writes to Wife
As He Dies a Suicide.

East St. Louis, Ill., November 1.
Howard Flagg, wounded world war veteran, wrote a progressive account of his death to his wife as he ended his life by asphyxiation in a carefully sealed room at the Flagg home here.

His farewell note was made public Thursday by the police.
Flagg, who was 27 years old, had been in poor health since he was gassed in France. He grew despondent after being out of work for several days, and decided to end his struggle for existence.

"It has taken me hours to write this thing up," he wrote his wife. "I am tired, and I want to go."
"In a few minutes I will be gone.
The gas is already taking effect."
"I laid on the floor so the neighbors would not hear me fall—I am writing you, dear wife, as the last minutes go by. Say good-by to all the folks, and please, Ethel, forgive me."
"I hope no one will find me until it is too late."
"God bless you, Ethel."
Then as he died, Flagg penciled with trembling hand:
"It is getting cold—I am dying—
so try to forget me. Ethel forget me.
My hand is trembling—I am going—"

POINCARÉ CHILLS WASHINGTON HOPE OF FINAL ACCORD

Restrictions Outlined in Premier's Speech Jeopardize Negotiations Under Hughes' Plan.

Washington, November 1.—Statements attributed to premier Poincaré in press advices from Paris, indicating the desire of the French government to restrict sharply the scope of the proposed expert inquiry into the reparations situation have occasioned considerable concern in official quarters in Washington.

It was said authoritatively that the restrictions outlined were not in accord with the suggestion for an expert commission put forward by Secretary Hughes.

There was every indication that if France insisted upon a formula that would prevent a full and complete inquiry into Germany's capacity to make reparations payments, the success of the present negotiations would be seriously jeopardized in the eyes of Washington.

More Notes Exchanged.

It was learned that additional communications with respect to the expert committee plan had been in progress between the Washington government and representatives of the allied governments. The nature of these exchanges was not disclosed.

At no time has any word reached Washington through official channels which indicated that Premier Poincaré intended to impose restrictions upon the committee's work which would prevent full and complete inquiry of the nature suggested by Secretary Hughes nearly a year ago. For that reason officials were much surprised by some of the remarks attributed in press dispatches to the French premier.

The American viewpoint is that the imposing of such restrictions as those outlined in the Paris advices, which would limit the committee to inquiry as to four specific points, would render the committee inquiry plan "abortive." No attempt was made, however, to indicate what the course of the United States would be in the event that official advices confirmed the press understanding of the limitations which Premier Poincaré insisted must be placed upon the expert committee's activities.

POINCARÉ DEFINES
FRENCH POSITION.
Paris, November 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—Premier Poincaré made a speech at Nevers today in which, as interpreted by the French foreign office, he recognized four points as within the jurisdiction of the committee of experts which is to make a reparations inquiry as a result of the recent negotiations of the European chancelleries and the Washington government. The premier by his

MRS. STOKES BARES HISTORY OF LIFE IN DIVORCE TRIAL

Denies in Detail Every Act of Misconduct Charged Against Her by Her Husband.

CLAIMS PAJAMA PHOTO WAS BEFORE WEDDING

Met Wallace in San Francisco But Never Visited Him in Buncheon, She Says.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.
New York, November 1.—Supreme Court Justice Mahoney, presiding at the retrial of the divorce suit instituted by W. E. D. Stokes, wealthy realty owner, today granted motions for a joint commission to take further testimony at Buncheon, Mo., and Bethel, Conn.

Justice Mahoney granted the motions after Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes had completed her direct examination in which she denied categorically all charges made against her by her husband, and court had been adjourned until tomorrow morning. Then the justice retired to his chambers with Max D. Streuer, counsel for the plaintiff, and Samuel Untermyer, attorney for Mrs. Stokes, to decide how the additional testimony should be taken and when the trial should be again interrupted for this purpose.

Justice Mahoney indicated that in chambers he also would take up the action of Mr. Untermyer in interrupting after objections of opposing counsel had been sustained—an action which caused the court to three times to declare a mistrial. The court previously had admonished opposing counsel when they clashed.

Denies Visit to Buncheon.

Mrs. Helen Elwood Stokes on the witness stand in her own defense reviewed at considerable length her acquaintance with Edgar T. Wallace, named as the chief correspondent, and made a denial of her husband's allegations. She denied she had ever visited Wallace at Buncheon, Mo., as had been alleged by Mr. Stokes.

In her testimony, Mrs. Stokes said she had attended a Catholic day school there, and she said, and for several years and while she was ill had a private tutor. Later, she went to the Sycamore school, at Sycamore, Ill. This was the first time she had gone away from home, she declared.
Supreme Court Justice Mahoney, who has frequently reprimanded op-

Continued on Page 10, Column 6.

First Case Tried In Police Night Court Dismissed

Popularity of Judge Johnson's Session Is Threatened by New Venture.

"Justice tempered with mercy"—
just as Recorder Pro Tem A. W.
Calloway said—marked the opening session Thursday night of the first nocturnal police court ever conducted in Atlanta. According to all indications the solution of the over-crowded, over-run docket situation has been reached. Sixty cases were disposed of in less than an hour and fifteen minutes.

The first case was dismissed. It had to do with a Senegambian trombonist, charged with violating the "dive" section. To the delight of the criminal element the musician was dismissed, after he had explained to Recorder Calloway that he had merely been employed to furnish a part of the musical entertainment for a fox troop convention at 409 West Mitchell street. According to testimony of Officer Acker, in charge of the "purity" squad, raided the dance, locking up all occupants of the building. The dancers, 20 in number, were assessed fines of $10 and the traditional "costs."

Inasmuch as the very first case was dismissed, a charm has been
Continued on Page 5, Column 4.

CROWN OF KAISER MAY DECK BROW OF SON AND HEIR

FREDERICK WILHELM.

SENATE TO HEAR WALTON DENIAL OF 14 ARTICLES

Motion To Quash Impeachment Is Lost; the Hearing on Demurrer
Set for 10 O'Clock Today

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
Oklahoma City, Okla., November 1.
Hearing on a demurrer of Governor
J. C. Walton to 14 of the 22 articles of impeachment preferred against him by the Oklahoma house of representatives was set by the senate court of impeachment late today for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, and the court adjourned until that time.

The governor demurred on the ground that the charges either were based on insufficient evidence or did not constitute an impeachable offense.

Charges demurred to were:
The appointment of Representative Charles Baskin as district judge; the placing of the governor's chauffeur on the health department payroll;
use of official power to acquire private property and credit; suspension of the writ of habeas corpus; attempted prevention of an election; refusing to permit capital punishment; unlawful issuance of health department deficiency certificates; abridgment of the freedom of the press; appointment of special state officers without authority of law; misrepresentation of campaign expenses; use of pardon and parole power; collection of funds for his personal use;
unlawful issuance of a deficiency certificate for a negro orphan home and general incompetency.

A motion to quash the articles of impeachment against Walton, offered by Walton's attorneys, was overruled by the senate court with only two dissenting votes.

Walton Says He Refused LIFE KLAN MEMBERSHIP

Oklahoma City, Okla., November 1.
(By the Associated Press.)—William
Joseph Simmons, emperor of the Ku Klux Klan, conferred a life membership in the Klan upon Governor J. C.
Walton "in just recognition of your constant loyalty," according to a letter to Walton dated September 10, 1923. Governor Walton declared in a statement issued today. The governor said he requested the certificate of membership he not mailed him as
Continued on Page 10, Column 6.

COOLIDGE REFUSED TO ACT AS ARBITER IN HOSPITAL FUSS

Architect Got $33,000
Additional for Plans
When President Declined To Interfere.

LAPORTE RUSHED LEASE PAPERS FOR HOSPITAL

Witness Denies He Changed Final Purchase
Figure From $77,000 to $90,000.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.
Washington, November 1.—The trail of the senate investigation of the veterans' bureau led again today into the treasury, the general accounting office and the public health service. Also it doubled back over part of the route of the trip of Charles R. Forbes, former director of the bureau, to the Pacific coast in the summer of 1922, on which he was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs.
Elias H. Mortimer.

Witnesses included W. E. Gordon, an attorney in the office of Comptroller General McCall who settled the claim of Mathew O'Brien, a San Francisco architect, for $33,000 after its disapproval by Director Hines, of the bureau; Ewing Laporte, of Pittsburg, former assistant secretary of the treasury, who approved the lease agreement for E. L. Morse's homestead at Excelsior Springs, Mo.; Surgeon General Cummings, of the public health service, who took issue with part of Laporte's testimony, and John M. Milliken, a former employee of the veterans' bureau, who accompanied Forbes to the Pacific coast.

Gordon Furnished Thrills.

The tensest moments of the five hours' hearing came during the examination of Gordon. He frankly told the committee he had settled O'Brien's claim for the redrafting of plans for a hospital at Livermore, Cal., on the basis of a brief filed by the architect's attorneys, Lyon & Lyon, of this city;
a letter from Director Hines disapproving the payment, and the contract between the bureau and O'Brien.

Cross-questioned by members of the committee, Gordon said he had not referred the matter to either his superior or to the veterans' bureau and it was developed that approval of the claim was made within a few days after the filing of the brief for the claimant. The witness told the committee, however, that, under the terms of the contract, which he characterized as "improvident," there was left no course for the government except to make the payment.

Coolidge Declined Job.

Pointing to a provision in the contract that in case of a dispute the president would be authorized to arbitrate, Gordon said President Coolidge should have acted. He testified that he called this clause to the attention of O'Brien's counsel and that a few days later they handed him what purported to be a copy of a letter from Secretary Sloop saying the chief executive declined to arbitrate as he had been informed by Mr. Hines that the matter had been referred to the general accounting office for adjustment. Gordon said he did not see the letter which O'Brien's attorneys wrote to the president.

Senator Walsh, democrat, Massachusetts, questioned Gordon about some memoranda which the senator produced from the file of the case in the general accounting office. He
Continued on Page 3, Column 2.

Wadsworth Not Fully in Favor Of World Court

Reservations Are Necessary
To Protect American Rights, He Says.

New York, November 1.—United States Senator Wadsworth told a delegation from the League of Women Voters of New York that he was
"in favor of the world court, with reservations—if they safeguard us."

To the women who visited the senator's hotel to ask him to become their leader in a fight for senate action on the court, he said:

"I am ready to support America's entrance into the world court on condition our entrance does not entangle us politically. I think it can be arranged and I believe in it. This court is the creature of the league of nations."

"Some reservations have been suggested by Secretary of State Hughes and the late President Harding. I want to see some of those reservations thrust out around the table. The league is morally responsible to enforce decisions of the world court."
Senator Wadsworth declared he thought Mussolini had forced settlement of the Italo-Greek affair, and not the league of nations. He did not believe, he said, that there would have been a war about it anyway.

COMMUNITY CHEST LEADERS PREDICT VICTORY IN DRIVE

Call to Atlanta Spirit Is Sounded in Addresses by Prominent Atlantans at Meeting on Thursday.

Echoes of earlier years when the bugles sounded the call to Atlanta's spirit and then men who knew how to do big things rallied around the city's banners were heard Thursday among the forces of the Community Chest campaign.

Rabbi David Marx, speaking at a noon meeting of Chairman W. W.
O'Brien's division, and again before Chairman R. L. Foreman's division Thursday night, referred to it, saying Atlanta's spirit has been faltering since the war but that the Community Chest is restoring the old fervor.

General Chairman E. R. Black and J. M. B. Hoxsey, vice general chairman of the campaign, referred to it Thursday in two addresses at the Chamber of Commerce, one before Chairman R. L. Foreman's forces and the other to the workers of Chairman
Harold Hines's committee.

"Less Is Evidence."

"For the past five years, since the war ended, that spirit has been less in evidence, until now, than at any other time in the past 20 years that I have been living in Atlanta," said
Continued on Page 5, Column 1.

$75,000 Is Asked To Make Fulton County Survey

Step Is Declared Necessary for Extension of the Sewer System.

Expenditure of $75,000 for a topographical survey of Fulton county and that part of DeKalb county which may in the distant future become a part of the city of Atlanta was proposed by the sewer committee of city council in session Thursday afternoon.
Such a survey must be made before any great amount of money can be spent safely in extending the sewer system and providing for sewage disposal, the committee was told.

The bond commission of Atlanta will be asked to appropriate $37,500 out of the $150,000 allocated to expanding the Peachtree disposal plant and the Fulton county commissioners will be asked to appropriate $37,500.
Claude E. Buchanan, chairman of the committee stated, DeKalb county is not to be asked to share in the expense.

Alderman Buchanan and W. A.
Hansell, Jr., chief of construction, proposed the survey to the committee, asserting that the interests of economy and satisfactory public service demand that the sewer system be built from year to year on a definite general plan looking toward future as well as present needs.

The sewer system as it stands at present is a patchwork of lines and mains each built to serve a specific
Continued on Page 5, Column 4.

BUSINESS LEADERS TO RAISE $100,000 FOR BIG MEMORIAL

Plans To Complete Atlanta's Quota for Stone Mountain Project Outlined at Meeting.

SCOTTISH RITE MASONS MAKE $2,500 DONATION

Two Founders' Roll Subscriptions Announced.
Only Problem Is That of Finances, Says Borglum.

Thirty Atlanta business leaders, meeting last night at the Capital City club, pledged their services as a committee to raise $100,000 needed to complete Atlanta's quota of $250,000 for Stone Mountain Confederate memorial.

This action was taken after Gut-zon Borglum, the sculptor of the memorial, had presented in detail his plans from the engineering, mechanical, sculptural and financial standpoints, and after he had replied to questions covering minutely all phases of the work.

Albert S. Adams, chairman of the citizens' committee in charge of raising Atlanta's quota, called the meeting and presided. Those present were Hollins N. Randolph, president of the Stone Mountain Confederate Memorial association; John S. Cohen, Harry Stillwell Edwards, L. W. Roberts, Jr., James D. Robinson, John W. Grant, H. M. Atkinson, Lee Ashcraft, Alfred C. Newell, James B.
Nevin, Charles A. Sisson, Dr. Dunbar Roy, Charles J. Metz, E. Rivers, Bolling H. Jones, G. F. Willis, Thomas H. Daniel, William L. Peel, Robert F. Maddox, W. W. Banks, Clark
Howell, H. Y. McCord, Thomas W.
Connally, Walter T. Candler, Joseph A. McCord, Dr. E. L. Connally, Captain W. G. Roper, Captain James W.
English, W. C. Roper, Robert E.
Harvey and Dave W. Webb.

Borglum's Outline.

The main points brought out in
Mr. Borglum's presentation of the plans and in the questions propounded to and answered by him, were as follows:

Triangle Yields To Quadrangle; Battle Follows

Police Are Making Probe of Altercation in Healey
Building.

Police Thursday were making a thorough probe of circumstances surrounding an altercation at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon on the fourteenth floor of the Healey building, between J. D. Booth, assistant manager of the Life Insurance Company of Virginia, and Charles H.
Golden, traveling salesman.

The incident, which is expected to end in a police court airing, occurred, it is said, when Golden, accompanied by Mrs. Booth, confronted Booth in the corridor outside his office with the accusation that Booth had been attentive to Mrs. Golden.

In a heated argument which followed the charge, it is stated, Golden struck Booth on the head with some object he secured from his pocket, whereupon, according to witnesses,
Booth drew a revolver on Golden.

"Use Woman as Shield." Inquiry by the police brought the information from witnesses that Golden held Mrs. Booth to shield himself from the anticipated discharge from Booth's revolver. Spectators later ceded, it is claimed, and Booth visited a surgeon who took two stitches in his scalp.

Golden left the city Wednesday night and probably will be on the road selling merchandise for some time, according to his father, Dr. J. B.
Golden, Lucile avenue physician. He stated that a copy of police charges, alleging disorderly conduct, had been left at his residence for his son during the day.

Booth, at his residence at 52 East
Georgia avenue, Thursday night de-
Continued on Page 6, Column 3.

PREMIER PREPARES TO RESTORE PRINCE TO GERMAN HOME

Chancellor Believes Mere Presence of Her Apparent Will Quell Ambitions of Bavaria.

ROUTE TO THRONE IS CAMOUFLAGED

Any Effort To Restore Empire Will Be Clouded in Maze of Propaganda Heralding "Necessity."

UNITED NEWS.

Brussels, November 1.—Chancellor Stresemann is planning to permit the return of Crown Prince Wilhelm Hohenzollern to Germany in order to offset efforts of Bavarian Dictator Kahr to make Bavaria the principal German state and re-install the Wittelsbach dynasty.

Allied authorities have learned definitely that this is the situation behind recent reports that the ex-Crown Prince would leave his Doorn exile and return to Germany.
Stresemann must solve the problem of the Bavarian revolt. Herr Von Kahr is known to desire that German federal authority be transferred from Berlin to Munich. He is also known to favor the return of the Wittelsbachs, former rulers of Bavaria when it was a kingdom within the German monarchy. Ex-Crown Prince Rupprecht is now head of the family.

Information Authoritative.
The United News learns from a source of unquestionable authority that Stresemann has been planning to bring Wilhelm back to counteract the southern move.

Stresemann has stated that he does not intend to bring Wilhelm back "immediately," but he has not defined his meaning of "immediately."
According to allied information it will not be surprising if the ex-
Crown Prince returned any time.
Whether Stresemann would actually attempt to place the ex-Crown Prince on a throne or whether he believes his mere presence would discourage Bavarian monarchist ambitions, has not been revealed.

Allied authorities state that, on the surface, such a move seems foolish, as there is no indication that Wilhelm is any more popular in Germany than he was a year ago.

Von Kahr Loses Ground.

Their information leads to the conviction that Von Kahr has lost ground in the past few days, as many persons, even in Bavaria, believe he has taken an unwise stand against Berlin. If this is true it might result in actual efforts to put the former crown prince on the throne, but it is not likely to prevent his return.
Stresemann, it is believed, would like to have him present in case of mon-archist emergencies.

If the effort was made to place him at the head of a monarchy, it would be accompanied by propaganda that
Continued on Page 10, Column 3.

The Weather CLOUDY AND WARMER

WASHINGTON—Forecast:
"GEORGIA—Partly cloudy and somewhat warmer Friday; Saturday unsettled with showers, probably showers in interior; moderate southeast and east winds."

Local Weather Report.
Highest temperature 58
Lowest temperature 37
Mean temperature 47
Normal temperature 57
Rainfall in past 24 hours, ins. . . 0
Deficiency since 1st of month, ins. . 37
Deficiency since January 1, ins. . 115
Dry temperature .39 56 54
Wet bulb54 44 44
Relative humidity .57 33 41

Relative humidity .57		33	41
Reports of Weather Bureau Stations.
STATIONS	TEMPERATURE.	RAIN.
AND STATE OF	TEMPERATURE.	TEMPERATURE.
	7 a. m. High.	24 hours.
ALBANY, cloudy	54	58	.00
ALBANY, cloudy	50	64	.00
ALBANY, cloudy	40	45	.00
ALBANY, clear	38	40	.00
ALBANY, clear	32	38	.00
ALBANY, clear	44	50	.00
ALBANY, pt. cloudy	40	50	.00
ALBANY, pt. cloudy	32	38	.01
ALBANY, cloudy	32	38	.01
ALBANY, cloudy	40	52	.00
ALBANY, cloudy	48	56	.00
ALBANY, pt. cloudy	62	68	.00
ALBANY, pt. cloudy	48	54	.00
ALBANY, cloudy	50	52	.00
ALBANY, cloudy	42	48	.00
ALBANY, cloudy	60	68	.00
ALBANY, cloudy	58	64	.00
ALBANY, cloudy	58	64	.00
ALBANY, cloudy	42	48	.00
ALBANY, cloudy	44	50	.00
ALBANY, cloudy	44	50	.00
ALBANY, rain	42	48	.00
ALBANY, rain	42	48	.00
ALBANY, clear	42	48	.00
ALBANY, clear	42	48	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00
ALBANY, clear	48	50	.00

Just Arrived New Shipment of Gabardine coats
$20

Copyright 1923 Hag, Schaffner & Marx

Going fine--Daniel's great sale
Hart Schaffner & Marx suits and overcoats that are worth much more

$39

THE quality of these fine clothes makes them greater values than ever before--come in today

Another special group of finer suits and overcoats, $48.00

Nettleton--the world's finest shoes priced $12½

Daniel Bros. Co.

Home of Hart Schaffner & Marx fine clothes
45-47-49 Peachtree

FURNITURE BARGAINS
WE MUST SELL
REGARDLESS OF COST

We must move and cannot move our mammoth stock. Every rug and piece of furniture in our entire stock will be sold regardless of cost. Prices have been slashed right and left. Come in today and see these wonderful bargains before it is too late.

Everything
Sold for CASH
Nothing
Charged

— WHERE PRICES ARE LOWER —

JOHNSON'S FINE
FURNITURE

28-30 SO. FORSYTH ST. Between Hunter and Alabama

Every Article
a REAL
BARGAIN

ARCADE MERCHANTS IN BIG CAMPAIGN

The inauguration of a cooperative advertising campaign by the Arcade Cooperative association, made up of tenants of Peachtree Arcade, is for the purpose of familiarizing the Atlanta buying public with the advantages offered by the Arcade as a shopping center, according to announcement Thursday. The advertising will appear regularly each week.

In connection with the cooperative advertising campaign, the Arcade association is sponsoring the "Trade On the Arcade Guarantee Plan," a policy which insures satisfaction to every customer dealing with a member of the association. Through the medium of the proper machinery, a patron, dissatisfied for any reason with a purchase made from a member of the association, can take the matter up and have it adjusted to his complete satisfaction. In this way, the Arcade Cooperative association is putting into practical operation the plan pursued by all large representative retail stores, and through cooperative effort has simplified the matter of adjusting complaints filed by anyone trading with a member of the Arcade Cooperative association.

The association was organized in July, 1922, and has tripled its membership since that time. It is affiliated with the Atlanta Retail Merchants' association, which itself made up of more than 200 of the largest and most representative retail merchants, chiefly in the central business district.

The Arcade association was organized to secure unity of action and protection for tenants of the Arcade and to handle all matters of interest to merchants of the building. All tenants of the building are eligible for membership. Officers of the association are: G. C. Green, president; J. J. Bookout, first vice president; Miss Daisy Richards, second vice president; Louis Bennett, recording secretary; T. H. Fulton, treasurer; C. V. Hohenstein, executive secretary.

$100,000 IS ASKED AGAINST RAILROAD BY DRIVER OF CAR

T. J. Roddenberry filed suit Thursday in the city court of Atlanta, against the Southern Railway company, E. E. Campbell, engineer, and J. J. Goodwin, a conductor, for $100,000.

Roddenberry alleges that on August 10, 1923, while he was driving an automobile across Sawtell crossing, which is located near Lakewood Heights, his car was struck by a cut of box cars being shoved by a switch engine.

He alleges it was a Southern Railway train, that Campbell was the engineer operating the train, and Goodwin was the conductor. He claims that no warning was given by bell, whistle, or otherwise as the train approached the crossing. Roddenberry says that his skull was fractured and that his earning capacity has been destroyed.

Harwell, Fairman & Barrett filed the suit.

EDITORIAL STAFF TECH TEHISEAN IS ANNOUNCED

Editors for The Tribune, the Tech High school annual, have been selected following a spirited election, it was announced by school officials Thursday. Members selected are said to be leaders of the class in studies as well as in campus activities, and are regarded as being well equipped to handle the publication.

Members of the business staff will be selected on a basis of competition. Advertising contracts will be the principal feature of the selection, those securing the largest amount of advertising contracts will be given the biggest places on the business staff.

Faculty advisers of The Tribune are T. R. Waggoner and W. E. Dendt. Members of the editorial staff elected are Wilmer T. Slater, editor-in-chief; Tom Wilson, class editor; J. J. Randy Edmundson, athletic editor; R. S. Chryst, literary editor; Wade O'Neal, military editor; Douglas Kendrick, social editor; Paul Butler, joke editor; and Randolph O. Nalley and J. P. Bergstrom, art editors.

GOVERNOR TO ACT ON PROSECUTING FITZGERALD CASE

Governor Clifford Walker, after spending Wednesday in Savannah and Thursday at Brunswick, is expected back at his desk in the capitol this morning. One of the first things calling for his attention will be the question of naming a prosecutor against the owner of rooms in Fitzgerald, rented by the Elks' club of that city.

The grand jury of Ben Hill county has recommended that action be taken to close this place on the ground of violations of the dry laws.

The solicitor for the circuit is disqualified to act in seeking the requested indictment and the judge has written Governor Walker asking that he assign the state attorney general to go there and direct the case. Under the law, however, the judge has the right to appoint either another local attorney, the solicitor of an adjoining circuit, or to ask for the attorney general. It is believed at the capitol that Governor Walker will instruct the judge to name another solicitor to conduct the prosecution, rather than send a member of the attorney general's staff to the case.

FREEDOM APPEAL OF WESTERFIELD DENIED BY JUDGE

George P. Westerfield will continue to remain a guest at the federal penitentiary despite the loss of the warrant and other original records in his case when it first went into the courts at Chicago 10 years ago in connection with Mann act violations. Westerfield himself filed a habeas corpus petition with Judge Samuel H. Sibley and appeared in court to plead his own case.

Acting Warden Fletcher submitted records from the United States Pardon board ordering his rearrest for violating a parole granted after he first began serving sentence. The order for rearrest was adjudged sufficient authority for holding Westerfield in prison.

Excursion To Columbus

Atlanta & West Point R. R.
$4.19 ROUND TRIP
Georgia-Auburn Football Game
Nov. 3, 1923.

Special train leaves Atlanta 8:00 a. m., arrives Columbus 11:50 a. m.; returning leaves Columbus 7:30 p. m., arrives Atlanta 11:15 p. m. Parlor cars and coaches. Make reservations now. Tickets good until Sunday night, November 4th.

Joint City Ticket Office,
46 North Broad St. Walnut 2726.

PLEAS ARE MADE TO DELAY HANGING OF SATTERFIELD

Several telegrams were received at the office of Governor Clifford Walker on Thursday, mostly from California, asking that a respite be granted to J. B. Satterfield, sentenced in the Fulton courts to hang on November 2. The date of execution, however, has been automatically postponed by reason of an appeal for a new trial, now pending in the Fulton superior court.

Among those wiring an appeal for clemency was George E. Cryer, mayor of Los Angeles. The governor's secretary answered all wires stating that the execution was postponed by the court status of the case and that the same circumstances had prevented its coming before the governor for executive action.

Mayor Cryer's telegram read as follows:

In behalf of Los Angeles relatives of J. B. Satterfield, under sentence of death, allow me to urge that you grant a respite in this case until after the holidays, to give time for friends to present certain extenuating circumstances that might call for executive clemency to prevent the court from granting a new trial. From representations made to me here, I believe you would be fully justified in such action.

Another telegram, signed by Mrs. Laura Seagraves and Miss Margaret Uhde, of 3408 West Slauson street, Los Angeles, pleads for clemency upon the ground that Satterfield's young daughter depends for her entire future upon her father. This girl, it will be remembered, Elizabeth Satterfield, recently tried, without success, to take her own life by poison, an effort induced, it is said, by brooding over her father's sentence. The girl also wired Thursday to the governor pleading for clemency.

Murphy M. Holloway, attorney for Satterfield, stated Thursday that he will not be ready to argue the motion for a new trial this week, but that it would probably be heard next week.

CITY MUST PAY $25 TAX ON OWN ASPHALT PLANT

Council's street committee will "dig up" $25 at its next session to pay city taxes on the city's own asphalt plant to keep it from being sold for taxes at public outcry, it was announced at the construction department offices in city hall Thursday. Notice was received from the city marshal's office that the city itself is among the delinquent taxpayers caught by the close of the tax books October 15. The taxes are due for the year 1922.

Kamper Brings The Finest Foods to Atlanta And Brings Them First

OUR STORES ARE VERITABLE SHOW ROOMS OF THE FINEST FOOD PRODUCTS OF THE FARMS AND FACTORIES OF THE WORLD, ASSEMBLED AS OUR OFFERINGS TO THOSE WHO KNOW AND CAN APPRECIATE THE VALUE AND SATISFACTION IN QUALITY FOODS.

We Have Just Bought

A Solid Carload Extra Fancy Stark's Delicious Apples

By a mistake in routing, the growers shipped a carload of these apples to Atlanta, which were intended for the eastern markets. The Stark's Delicious are the very finest apples grown and this car is of the finest grade—most of the Delicious Apples coming here are "C" grade, these are "Fancy." We could not pass up the opportunity and bought them at 50c under the present New York market price. Even a carload will not last long.

BOXES—Either 64, 80 or 100 to the box, $4.00. DOZENS—60c, 75c, $1

Other New Arrivals

QUAKER MILK MACARONI, pkg.10c
QUAKER QUICK ROLLED OATS, pkg.15c
2 for25c
BILTMORE WHEAT HEARTS, pkg.25c
GOLDEN BANTAM CORN ON COB—large tins$1.25
FAULTLESS MARROW SQUASH, tins25c

ROYAL STILTON CHEESE, jars$3.25
DULCE BONELESS AND SKINLESS PORTUGUESE SARDINES—large tins40c
Case, 100 tins$33.00
GERMAN FRANKFURTERS—4 to a tin50c
6 to a tin70c
GOLDEN SHRED ORANGE PEEL
GLACE, pkg.15c

Danish Pastries

Made in Our Own Bakery

Each 10c, 3 for 25c; 15c, 2 for 25c

Very large, each, 25c

ACCORDING TO SIZE

This is a delightful new pastry. Excellent for breakfast, or with afternoon tea or coffee. A satisfying bite for the children at school or between meals.

CAMP MEETING FRYING CHICKENS

Pound 37c

FOREQUARTER BEEF ROAST

Pound 25c

Eight Rules For Making Coffee

1. Have Coffee Ground Fresh.
2. Keep It Air Tight.
3. Measure Carefully
4. Use Grounds Only Once.
5. Scour the Coffee Pot.
6. Use Only Boiling Water.
7. Serve at Once.
8. Use Kamper's Blend.

KAMPER'S BLEND—
lb. 45c
3 lbs. for$1.25

More New Arrivals

PLAIN BUCKWHEAT FLOUR, 3 lbs.25c
FLEISCHMAN'S YEAST CAKES, each.3c
DRAKE ALMONDS—in shells, lb.30c
PAPER SHELL ALMONDS, lb.50c
FERNDELL CARROT CUBES, can.25c
FERNDELL PINEAPPLE TIDBITS—Just the thing for salads, cans.35c
CUBAN GUAVA JELLY—1-lb. boxes.35c
CUBAN GUAVA PASTE—1-lb. pkgs.35c
GENUINE HUNGARIAN PAPRIKA—tins, 25c, 35c, 50c and$1.00
SAUERKRAUT, cans20c
BACHMAN'S PRETZELS, pkg.35c

"KAMPER'S BEST" Pastry Flour

The finest on this market for every home baking.
12-lb. Sacks 65c
24-lb. Sacks$1.25
Barrels$9.50

A TWO-FOR-ONE SALE FOR THIS WEEK ONLY
LaFrance Laundry Tablets—pkg., 10c Satina Starch Tablets—pkg., 8c

Hallow'en Time Is Sweet Cider Time

The small, intimate gatherings this week, as well as those of a more pretentious nature, demand a tasty cup—Serve—HAY'S FIVE FRUITS Bottles, $1.00 Good with bottled cider or any sparkling water.

MAIN STORE
492-498 Peachtree
HEMlock 5000

Kamper's
TWO STORES

10th ST. STORE
820 Peachtree
HEMlock 5700

DATE OF MEETING CHANGED BY SYNOD

Savannah, Ga., November 1.—(Special.)—Action to change the date of its annual convention to January was taken today at the meeting of the synod of Georgia, including Alabama and Florida. The next meeting, instead of being in the fall of next year, will be held in January, 1925. The fiscal year of the organization, by action, is made to conform to the calendar year and reports will be for the period from January 1 to January 1. Reports and addresses featured the meeting today of the synod and the meeting held simultaneously by the missionary society of the synod. The chief addresses of the several sessions were made by Rev. W. P. Cline, of Birmingham, statistician for the synod; Dr. J. F. Selbert, of Chicago, executive secretary for the board of home missions, United Church; Rev. D. A. R. Hancher, southern home mission secretary; Dr. W. W. Leakey, of Salem, Va., president of the synod; and Rev. C. L. B. Wolf, of Baltimore, and Mrs. K. R. McGraw, of Atlanta, president of the synodical missionary society.

During the session the society appropriated funds to be used by the church of the Redeemer in obtaining land adjoining the church in Macon. Other appropriations were made for the benefit of newly organized churches in Florida. The funds for these appropriations will come from prayer services held during the Lenten season this year.

Of much interest to the delegates was the announcement that the girls school in Japan, erected at a cost of $175,000, will be completed during the first part of next year.

This afternoon the reports of Rev. Paul Counts, of Haralson, Ga., were read. The reports announced the activities of the Lutheran church in South Africa.

Tonight the feature of the meeting was the impressive ordination of Rev. E. B. Keiser, pastor of the old Ebenezer parish, Rinehart, Effingham county, Ga. Dr. Cline of Birmingham, preaching the ordination sermon. In January, this year, he was called to his present position. He had been president of the Luther League of South Carolina, and it is of interest that his parish contains one of the old first Lutheran congregations, the Jerusalem congregation, organized by the church built by the Colonial Salzburger, who formed a unique element in the composition of the colony of Georgia. That old church is said to be the only public colonial edifice now standing in the state.

Officers Named.

Mrs. H. C. Bell, St. Petersburg, Fla., was elected president of the Women's Missionary society of the synod at a meeting held this afternoon at the Church of the Ascension. Mrs. Lottie Long, of Savannah, was named first vice president; Mrs. L. W. Strihler, Macon, recording secretary; Mrs. Addie Jeichen, Savannah, statistical secretary; Mrs. W. E. Pugh, St. Petersburg, Fla., treasurer. Mrs. W. E. Pugh, of St. Petersburg, Fla., and Mrs. Calper Kreps, of Augusta, were elected as synodical delegates to the biennial convention of Women's Missionary society of Lutheran church, to be held in Salisbury, N. C., in October, 1924.

LOUISVILLE HOTEL CONTRACT IS LET

Louisville, Ga., November 1.—(Special.)—Contract for the building of the new hotel for Louisville has been let, and the successful bidder is T. B. Kelley, a prominent local lumberman. The contract calls for nearly $32,000 expenditure and stipulates that the structure is to be finished by May, 1924. The hotel is to be modern, made of brick, and will contain 20 rooms. Willis Irwin, of Augusta, is the architect.

COOLIDGE REFUSED TO ACT AS ARBITER

Continued from First Page.

noted that on one of the sheets were the figures 3,300 multiplied by 40. The witness said some figuring probably had been done on the sheet before the memorandum had been written on it.

Senator Reed, republican, Pennsylvania, chairman of the committee, returned later to this subject, observing that 3,300 was 10 per cent of the amount of O'Brien's claim and that "somebody has figured on 40 per cent of that."

No Reference to Settlement.

"That had no reference to this matter," Gordon replied. "It never was mentioned to me, nor was that memorandum shown to me. I don't think it means anything."

"I hope it doesn't," remarked Senator Reed.

Gordon, who testified that his salary was $3,000 a year, said the memoranda, which it appeared were written by a Mr. Naylor, of the general accounting office, probably had been prepared after the settlement was made. He called attention that they contained some of the details of the matter.

Rushed Lease Agreement.

Laporte, who appeared before the committee at his own request and who testified he was 25 years old and an assistant secretary of the treasury, explained that he had rushed through the lease agreement with Morse on the last day of the Wilson administration because veterans were suffering and were out on the streets. "I had to provide beds for them," he declared, adding that there was no appropriation from congress to build hospitals and that the public health service, of which he had charge, was obliged to lease them.

Reminded that congress had passed an appropriation of $15,000,000 for construction before adjourning on March 4, 1921, Laporte said when he signed the lease agreement that before there was an assurance that the appropriation would go through. "It's a lie," said Laporte in referring to previous testimony that he had increased the ultimate purchase price of the Excelsior Springs site from the $77,000 recommended by the public health service, to $80,000 because Morse objected to the lower figure.

Denies Substitution of Page.

With almost equal emphasis he denied other testimony of Charles H. Stratton, formerly of the public health service, that he had destroyed one sheet of the original draft of the Morse agreement and had directed Stratton to make a new one containing the $80,000 figure. Laporte told the committee that what he had done was to reduce the amount of the yearly rent recommended to him.

Surgeon General Cumming took issue later with Laporte's statement that the public health service had recommended the Excelsior Springs site and that naturally Dr. Cumming would not send to him any recommendations of service officers against the place.

"To be frank, we were rather stalling," Dr. Cumming testified, "as we had not had a chance to look into the matter and we expected a change of administration soon."

Some Drinking Done.

The surgeon general declared there was an impression of "some haste" on Laporte's part in getting the lease agreement through.

In recounting his impressions of the Pacific coast trip, Milliken told the committee he understood there was some drinking, but that he did not get the impression "that anybody became intoxicated or that any wild antics were performed under alcoholic influence. There was some 'mystery' as to Mortimer on the trip, he added, as no one seemed to know his connection other than that he represented some firm in Washington. It was not until he read Mortimer's testimony, he continued, that he knew he was seeking hospital contracts.

The witness had no knowledge of Mortimer paying any of the bills of the party, as the latter claimed while testifying before the committee. Milliken declared he had settled for all of his bills.

FRENCH DEMANDS MAY BLOCK SURVEY PLAN

Continued from First Page.

recognition, it is held, excluded consideration of any other point. The four points indicated are:

First—Germany's present capacity for payment.

Second—New methods of payment.

Third—The renovation of German finances.

Fourth—A new monetary system.

This program, the foreign office points out, is in line with that indicated in the American note to London. Premier Poincare, it is declared, considered that Germany's debt to the allies was fixed once for all and cannot be changed, any more than the total amounts advanced by the United States to the allies during the war can be changed.

No Moment for Change.

"This is not the moment to change it," the premier declared. "We have a keen desire to solve as rapidly as possible and in full agreement with our allies, the grave question of reparations in which we are more interested than any, but we will neither reconsider fixing our credits, abandon our rights, renounce our pledges nor destroy the treaty signed by so many nations."

Let an examination be made to discover what Germany can pay this moment or during a short space of time," continued M. Poincare. "That is well. That is the very role of the reparations commission, enlightened by experts it can appoint; that the reparations commission determine new arrangements of payment is the mission I tried from the treaty; that it search for means of raising German finances in a purely monetary fashion is its right but let it not attempt either to change decisions it has already taken regarding the total amount of our credits nor engage in future attempts indefinitely."

"What injustice, what risk, if in a short time Germany should be freed from part of its debt, and if in some years she should present herself before us resurrected, enriched, to humiliate us by a renewal of her power and crush us by her supremacy? We will not be taken in such a snare."

No Hidden Motive.

In his peroration Premier Poincare declared that France's conduct was of the simplest and frankest nature possible without any hidden motive. France would not be ruined, he said, in order to increase the shameful wealth of certain German magnates whose oligarchy still remained true to the sovereign German republic.

"We do not intend," continued the premier, "that the reich shall harbor ideas of revenge and go even as far as America to conspire against French unity and protest against the restitution of Alsace and Lorraine to the mother country; nor that it reconstruct its military formations and armaments. That is all."

Dealing with the peace treaty the premier said the victors had in the course of some months remade the map of the world, resuscitated some nations and created others and had altered frontiers.

"France," he added, "neither received nor asked any territorial advantage in Europe. She simply recovered what belonged to her—what had been stolen from her. And she was told: 'Keep quiet; if you agree not to remain too long on the Rhine we will guarantee you against further aggression.' It was added: 'Have no fear; you shall be indemnified for all the damage you have suffered.' She then signed with confidence a treaty with which she was not very well satisfied but on which at least she counted as a minimum."

"Not many months passed before the first stones of the edifice crumbled to dust. Our allies who were the most keen in demanding the prosecution of the Kaiser and his accomplices forgot their intentions and were astonished when we reminded them. Those who had insisted on a reduction of the duration of our occupation and time, Poincare said, "forgot their intentions and were astonished when we reminded them. Those who had insisted on a reduction of the duration of our occupation and time, Poincare said, "forgot their intentions and were astonished when we reminded them. Those who had insisted on a reduction of the duration of our occupation and time, Poincare said, "forgot their intentions and were astonished when we reminded them."

Organized Bankruptcy.

"The more the war recedes into the past the more the national interests resumed their intransigence everywhere, each nation having a tendency to see nothing but its own will. We do not deny that to others but without claiming any favor or privilege we believe we have a right to security because that affects the peace of the world, and a right to reparations because they had been expressly promised in the treaty itself in the name of justice."

The premier then dealt with Germany's refusal to pay her obligations, counting on the idea that time would free her from them, would weaken the solidarity of the allies, put their vigilance to sleep and sap their spirit of resolution. "Long before we decided to enter the Ruhr and seize guarantees," he said, "the reich had systematically organized its bankruptcy."

If part of the population of Germany today was reduced to beggary and another part was opulent, it was because Germany would have it so, he declared. Germany as a whole was not impoverished, he insisted, only the state and the middle classes. Germany herself remaining wealthy.

"Her immense resources," the premier continued, "have been scandalously cornered by the great industrialists and the big bankers, who refuse to give anything to the state, while the state makes no serious effort to compel them to fulfill their duties as citizens. Out of this arises the apparent distress of the reich."

He added that the peasantry and the large landed proprietors also were flourishing.

He repeated his declaration that France would hold her guarantee until wholly paid, and added: "We are witnessing the final spasms of resistance."

The premier described the resumption of work in the Ruhr as satisfactory, the tonnage of coal received increasing daily.

"We are beginning to receive recompense for our efforts," he remarked.

SEPARATIST MOVE LOSING GROUND.

Cologne, November 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—Unless there is some indication soon that efforts to establish an independent Rhineland state have the support of the general population, the present separatist movement may dissolve of itself within a few weeks, it was said today in official circles which are closely in touch with all developments.

Several proposals for compromise already have been advanced, it is understood. One of these provides for an autonomous state but Joseph Matthes, premier of the provisional government of the Rhineland republic, asserts he will not consider any such proposition.

"It will be a free, independent Rhineland or nothing," Matthes said. There are many representative citizens who favor autonomy, but they will have nothing to do with the present movement.

It was at first believed that the separatist movement was spontaneous, it was explained by French officials, but later developments caused many to change their opinions. The officials admitted that as yet peasants, merchants and townspeople had not come forward to offer their approval of the republic.

In view of these circumstances, it is explained, the present movement may fade from public notice. If the separatists should fail to gain favor, it is said, the French themselves may take a hand and clean out the element now in stalled in the town halls in various parts of the Rhineland.

The British attitude here and at Cologne toward the separatists is that the movement is being carried on merely by mobs who are endeavoring to gain control and that London would never countenance recognition under these circumstances.

MASS MEETING
IN BERLIN.

Berlin, November 1.—A largely attended mass meeting was held in the town hall today to call attention to the social distress among all classes in greater Berlin, where more than 300,000 of the unemployed now are without adequate food and shelter.

The city's hospitals also are no longer able to afford the necessary comforts for their patients, while the health of the school children is steadily becoming worse as the result of undernourishment, it was declared by speakers at the meeting.

Frau Ebert, wife of the president of the republic; Frau Stresemann, wife of the chancellor, and other well-known Berlin women interested in relief work, have addressed an appeal to the German people requesting support for a nation-wide drive for food, clothing and other forms of relief for the suffering.

the movement is being carried on merely by mobs who are endeavoring to gain control and that London would never countenance recognition under these circumstances.

MASS MEETING
IN BERLIN.

Berlin, November 1.—A largely attended mass meeting was held in the town hall today to call attention to the social distress among all classes in greater Berlin, where more than 300,000 of the unemployed now are without adequate food and shelter.

The city's hospitals also are no longer able to afford the necessary comforts for their patients, while the health of the school children is steadily becoming worse as the result of undernourishment, it was declared by speakers at the meeting.

Frau Ebert, wife of the president of the republic; Frau Stresemann, wife of the chancellor, and other well-known Berlin women interested in relief work, have addressed an appeal to the German people requesting support for a nation-wide drive for food, clothing and other forms of relief for the suffering.

The British attitude here and at Cologne toward the separatists is that

the movement is being carried on merely by mobs who are endeavoring to gain control and that London would never countenance recognition under these circumstances.

MASS MEETING
IN BERLIN.

Berlin, November 1.—A largely attended mass meeting was held in the town hall today to call attention to the social distress among all classes in greater Berlin, where more than 300,000 of the unemployed now are without adequate food and shelter.

The city's hospitals also are no longer able to afford the necessary comforts for their patients, while the health of the school children is steadily becoming worse as the result of undernourishment, it was declared by speakers at the meeting.

Frau Ebert, wife of the president of the republic; Frau Stresemann, wife of the chancellor, and other well-known Berlin women interested in relief work, have addressed an appeal to the German people requesting support for a nation-wide drive for food, clothing and other forms of relief for the suffering.

The British attitude here and at Cologne toward the separatists is that

the movement is being carried on merely by mobs who are endeavoring to gain control and that London would never countenance recognition under these circumstances.

MASS MEETING
IN BERLIN.

Berlin, November 1.—A largely attended mass meeting was held in the town hall today to call attention to the social distress among all classes in greater Berlin, where more than 300,000 of the unemployed now are without adequate food and shelter.

The city's hospitals also are no longer able to afford the necessary comforts for their patients, while the health of the school children is steadily becoming worse as the result of undernourishment, it was declared by speakers at the meeting.

Frau Ebert, wife of the president of the republic; Frau Stresemann, wife of the chancellor, and other well-known Berlin women interested in relief work, have addressed an appeal to the German people requesting support for a nation-wide drive for food, clothing and other forms of relief for the suffering.

The British attitude here and at Cologne toward the separatists is that

the movement is being carried on merely by mobs who are endeavoring to gain control and that London would never countenance recognition under these circumstances.

MASS MEETING
IN BERLIN.

Berlin, November 1.—A largely attended mass meeting was held in the town hall today to call attention to the social distress among all classes in greater Berlin, where more than 300,000 of the unemployed now are without adequate food and shelter.

The city's hospitals also are no longer able to afford the necessary comforts for their patients, while the health of the school children is steadily becoming worse as the result of undernourishment, it was declared by speakers at the meeting.

Frau Ebert, wife of the president of the republic; Frau Stresemann, wife of the chancellor, and other well-known Berlin women interested in relief work, have addressed an appeal to the German people requesting support for a nation-wide drive for food, clothing and other forms of relief for the suffering.

The British attitude here and at Cologne toward the separatists is that

the movement is being carried on merely by mobs who are endeavoring to gain control and that London would never countenance recognition under these circumstances.

MASS MEETING
IN BERLIN.

Berlin, November 1.—A largely attended mass meeting was held in the town hall today to call attention to the social distress among all classes in greater Berlin, where more than 300,000 of the unemployed now are without adequate food and shelter.

The city's hospitals also are no longer able to afford the necessary comforts for their patients, while the health of the school children is steadily becoming worse as the result of undernourishment, it was declared by speakers at the meeting.

Frau Ebert, wife of the president of the republic; Frau Stresemann, wife of the chancellor, and other well-known Berlin women interested in relief work, have addressed an appeal to the German people requesting support for a nation-wide drive for food, clothing and other forms of relief for the suffering.

The British attitude here and at Cologne toward the separatists is that

the movement is being carried on merely by mobs who are endeavoring to gain control and that London would never countenance recognition under these circumstances.

MASS MEETING
IN BERLIN.

Berlin, November 1.—A largely attended mass meeting was held in the town hall today to call attention to the social distress among all classes in greater Berlin, where more than 300,000 of the unemployed now are without adequate food and shelter.

the movement is being carried on merely by mobs who are endeavoring to gain control and that London would never countenance recognition under these circumstances.

MASS MEETING
IN BERLIN.

Berlin, November 1.—A largely attended mass meeting was held in the town hall today to call attention to the social distress among all classes in greater Berlin, where more than 300,000 of the unemployed now are without adequate food and shelter.

The city's hospitals also are no longer able to afford the necessary comforts for their patients, while the health of the school children is steadily becoming worse as the result of undernourishment, it was declared by speakers at the meeting.

Frau Ebert, wife of the president of the republic; Frau Stresemann, wife of the chancellor, and other well-known Berlin women interested in relief work, have addressed an appeal to the German people requesting support for a nation-wide drive for food, clothing and other forms of relief for the suffering.

The British attitude here and at Cologne toward the separatists is that

the movement is being carried on merely by mobs who are endeavoring to gain control and that London would never countenance recognition under these circumstances.

MASS MEETING
IN BERLIN.

Berlin, November 1.—A largely attended mass meeting was held in the town hall today to call attention to the social distress among all classes in greater Berlin, where more than 300,000 of the unemployed now are without adequate food and shelter.

The city's hospitals also are no longer able to afford the necessary comforts for their patients, while the health of the school children is steadily becoming worse as the result of undernourishment, it was declared by speakers at the meeting.

Frau Ebert, wife of the president of the republic; Frau Stresemann, wife of the chancellor, and other well-known Berlin women interested in relief work, have addressed an appeal to the German people requesting support for a nation-wide drive for food, clothing and other forms of relief for the suffering.

The British attitude here and at Cologne toward the separatists is that

the movement is being carried on merely by mobs who are endeavoring to gain control and that London would never countenance recognition under these circumstances.

MASS MEETING
IN BERLIN.

Berlin, November 1.—A largely attended mass meeting was held in the town hall today to call attention to the social distress among all classes in greater Berlin, where more than 300,000 of the unemployed now are without adequate food and shelter.

The city's hospitals also are no longer able to afford the necessary comforts for their patients, while the health of the school children is steadily becoming worse as the result of undernourishment, it was declared by speakers at the meeting.

Frau Ebert, wife of the president of the republic; Frau Stresemann, wife of the chancellor, and other well-known Berlin women interested in relief work, have addressed an appeal to the German people requesting support for a nation-wide drive for food, clothing and other forms of relief for the suffering.

The British attitude here and at Cologne toward the separatists is that

the movement is being carried on merely by mobs who are endeavoring to gain control and that London would never countenance recognition under these circumstances.

MASS MEETING
IN BERLIN.

Berlin, November 1.—A largely attended mass meeting was held in the town hall today to call attention to the social distress among all classes in greater Berlin, where more than 300,000 of the unemployed now are without adequate food and shelter.

The city's hospitals also are no longer able to afford the necessary comforts for their patients, while the health of the school children is steadily becoming worse as the result of undernourishment, it was declared by speakers at the meeting.

Frau Ebert, wife of the president of the republic; Frau Stresemann, wife of the chancellor, and other well-known Berlin women interested in relief work, have addressed an appeal to the German people requesting support for a nation-wide drive for food, clothing and other forms of relief for the suffering.

The British attitude here and at Cologne toward the separatists is that

the movement is being carried on merely by mobs who are endeavoring to gain control and that London would never countenance recognition under these circumstances.

MASS MEETING
IN BERLIN.

Berlin, November 1.—A largely attended mass meeting was held in the town hall today to call attention to the social distress among all classes in greater Berlin, where more than 300,000 of the unemployed now are without adequate food and shelter.

The city's hospitals also are no longer able to afford the necessary comforts for their patients, while the health of the school children is steadily becoming worse as the result of undernourishment, it was declared by speakers at the meeting.

Frau Ebert, wife of the president of the republic; Frau Stresemann, wife of the chancellor, and other well-known Berlin women interested in relief work, have addressed an appeal to the German people requesting support for a nation-wide drive for food, clothing and other forms of relief for the suffering.

The British attitude here and at Cologne toward the separatists is that

the movement is being carried on merely by mobs who are endeavoring to gain control and that London would never countenance recognition under these circumstances.

MASS MEETING
IN BERLIN.

Berlin, November 1.—A largely attended mass meeting was held in the town hall today to call attention to the social distress among all classes in greater Berlin, where more than 300,000 of the unemployed now are without adequate food and shelter.

New Arrivals STUNNING STYLES at BLACK'S

$4.90
Values to $7.50

$5.90
Values to $9.00

$5.40
Values to $8.50

Black Suedes
Leather Cabin
Satin, Patents
Every wanted style

Fashionably dressed women appreciate smart, sensible shoes. No other kind can keep their feet young. Our selection of new fall models embraces richness of style, quality of excellence in all the wanted leathers. Our very low prices are an added attraction.

$3.95
Values to $5.00

You Get More and Pay Less at Black's

7 and 9 Decatur
Just Off Five Points

BLACK'S

HUBIG'S FAMOUS
HONEY-FRUIT PIES

MADE WITH LOVING CARE
10¢ 20¢ 30¢
AT YOUR GROCERS

IMPERIAL HOTEL
—FIREPROOF—
339 Peachtree Street, Atlanta

An attractive commercial and residential hotel. Moderate rates, daily, weekly and monthly.

TWENTY-ONE different models at from $25 up are offered in the Victrola instrument line—a range of sizes, designs and prices to suit every requirement. See and hear them at your dealer's or write us for catalog.

Weekly issues of new Victor Records bring you the newest and best selections of every kind by the artists you want to hear.

Out today New Victor Records November 2, 1923

Red Seal Concert and Operatic

Sonata in B Minor—Finale (Chopin)	Piano Solo Olga Samaroff	6419	$2.00
Nocturne (Chopin) <th>Piano Solo Olga Samaroff</th> <td></td> <td></td>	Piano Solo Olga Samaroff
Melodies of indescribable beauty pervade Chopin's B Minor Sonata throughout. Grieg's Nocturne is one of the most poetic and imaginative fantasies of the lonely Northern composer.
Faust—Waltz from Kermesse Scene	Stokowski and Philadelphia Orch.	944	1.50
Lignon—Gavotte (Thomas)	Stokowski and Philadelphia Orch.
Stokowski calls the Faust waltz the "lightest and gayest waltz in the world," and the gavotte "probably the daintiest that ever was written."
The World is Waiting for the Sunrise	Reinold Werrenrath	951	1.50
Rose in the Bud (Barrow-Ford)	Reinold Werrenrath
To hear a frankly popular song interpreted by a great artist is an experience to both the musician and the layman. Here are two sung in rich baritone with both strength and tenderness.

Light Vocal Selections

When Clouds Have Vanished and Skies are Blue	Elliott Shaw	19152	.75
Why Don't My Dreams Come True? <th>Henry Burr</th> <td></td> <td></td>	Henry Burr
Simple yet emotional songs of common life—of common aspirations and understandings. Both are in waltz time. "When Clouds Have Vanished" introduces "Love's Old Sweet Song."
Complainin' (It's Human Nature to Complain) <th>Eddie Hunter</th> <td>19154</td> <td>.75</td>	Eddie Hunter	19154	.75
I Got <th>Eddie Hunter</th> <td></td> <td></td>	Eddie Hunter
The first Victor record by this singer of negro comedy songs. Both songs are characteristic and sung in half-spoken style.

Humorous Monologue

In a Shoe Store	Marie Cahill	45370	1.00
The Symphony Concert <th>Marie Cahill</th> <td></td> <td></td>	Marie Cahill
This clever and dainty comedienne has found two new sources for her delicate and at times satiric humor. You will recognize in her impersonations a type of the Eternal Feminine.

Dance Records

I Love You—Fox Trot	Paul Whiteman and His
---------------------	-----------------------

HIGHER SALARIES FOR POLICE ASKED

City employees living outside the corporate limits of Atlanta will begin an immediate migration toward Five Points and policemen will grow fat on increased salaries if resolutions passed at a meeting of the Fifth Ward Civic league Thursday night are made by council.

The first of the resolutions provides that every employee of the city must live in Atlanta and pay taxes, stating that it is unfair and unjust that certain employees live outside the city taxation zone and yet draw salaries from the city treasury.

Police salaries will be increased to $150 a month for the first three years' service, and will be raised to $160 after that lapse of time in the event that the resolutions adopted by the club are passed by council.

A copy of the resolutions will be presented at the next council meeting and efforts to obtain their passage by that body will be made.

BUSINESS LEADERS TO RAISE $100,000

Continued From First Page.

constitute the greatest single work of sculpture in the world.

2. The association's contract with Mr. Borglum requires him to carve the central group for $250,000, in a period of three years, and does not commit the association to undertake any further carving, although the contract does commit Mr. Borglum to carve the other groups of the proposed panorama, aggregating a stretch of 1,350 feet across the mountain, for $1,250,000 in addition to the central group, making the total cost of the panorama, if and when carved, $1,500,000.

3. The contract with Mr. Borglum to construct the Memorial Hall, which is to be a mammoth vault excavated in the mountain, for $450,000, this hall to contain the bronze tablets bearing the names of Confederate soldiers in whose memory "Founders' Roll" subscriptions of $1,000 were made.

4. The money raised by the association is not being spread over the entire panorama, but is being confined to the central group and will be so confined until that group is finished.

5. The pledges of southern governors to raise the quotas of their respective states were all made conditional upon the raising of Atlanta's quota of $250,000, and unless Atlanta's quota is raised, and until it is raised, the association cannot undertake the carving of the entire panorama, although several thousand dollars of contributions have come voluntarily from outside of Atlanta, and are not included in the $1,500,000 already subscribed in Atlanta.

Hollins N. Randolph expressed the grateful thanks of the association for the attendance of everyone present, and especially paid a high tribute to Captain English.

Masses Give $2,500.

While the meeting was in progress a telephone message came to Chairman Adams from Henry C. Heinz, that the Scottish Rite Masons of Atlanta, then in session, had voted a contribution of $2,500 to the memorial.

F. Willis announced that he had been authorized to present "Founders' Roll" subscriptions by A. J. Orme and by Eugene K. and Charles H. Black. Presenting the memorial plan, Mr. Borglum said there is no difficulty at all from an engineering or mechanical standpoint in carving the stupendous figures on the mountain. The work involves far less difficulty from these standpoints, he said, than the Panama canal or a hundred other great engineering achievements.

"There is one problem and only one in this whole plan. It is not a mechanical or engineering problem, but a financial problem. That is, raising the money for this group. When that is done, the rest of the money will come. For when one figure of the central group is finished we will hear no further questions as to practicability and feasibility."

Mr. Randolph stated that the association had reached the point where it was obliged to know whether Atlanta would support it in going forward. If not, he declared, there was no alternative but to stop. The southern governors, he said, already were pressing him to know whether Atlanta would subscribe her quota, and if so when.

Following these speeches there was a general discussion in which the universal sentiment was that all questions concerning the proposed carving of the contract with the sculptor and the practical details of the plan had been satisfactorily answered, and that Atlanta's quota must be raised without further delay.

TRIANGLE YIELDS TO QUADRANGLE

Continued From Page One.

clared that the entire matter had been settled, insofar as he was concerned. He denied to "The Constitution" that he had been in possession of a revolver, although officers assigned to the case claimed that he had volunteered that information to them, and that his version regarding the revolver was confirmed by Mrs. Booth and other witnesses, whose names had been secured.

Mrs. Ailene Golden, the storm center, a very attractive brunette of 21 years of age, is living at the residence of her mother, Mrs. Ida Wrinkle, at 47 Lake avenue.

"Attack Unjustified."

Mrs. Golden declared to a Constitution reporter Thursday night that her husband's attack on Booth had been entirely unjustified.

"My husband and I were married on October 9, 1920, but for the past few months we have been separated off and on," she said. "I know Mr. Booth real well, but my acquaintance with him has been in no way improper."

Asked if she has filed suit for divorce against Golden, Mrs. Golden replied in the negative, and explained that she was of the opinion that in view of the fact that since their marriage he has never provided for her and their baby, she did not feel under obligations to him.

"I have never been with Mr. Booth except when other persons were along," she said. "Our introduction was through my husband."

"My husband has been staying at Macon for the past few weeks, and Tuesday morning about 3 o'clock he reached Atlanta and came out to my mother's, where I am staying, and spent the remainder of the night. Tuesday night I told him that I was through with him."

Insisted on Meeting.

"I didn't see him again until Wednesday at lunch time. He seemed to be in unusually good humor. I had just bought a $75 suit and paid $40 on it, and he insisted on meeting me at 5 o'clock at the hotel. He said I work to give me $35 to finish paying for my coat, and with that agreement we parted. I didn't hear anything else from him until Wednesday night, when a Mr. Cannon, a friend of his, called me and explained my husband's failure to keep the appointment by saying that he had stuck Booth over the head."

Altercation Follows.

Police learned, it was stated, that Mrs. Booth had become aware of her husband's alleged attentions to Mrs. Golden and had met Golden downtown shortly before they appeared at the insurance official's office. Mrs. Booth is said to have entered her husband's office and announced that someone in the hall wished to see him, and, it is alleged, the altercation followed.

Disorderly conduct charges will be made against Booth until Golden is available for trial, it is said. Booth has volunteered to appear in answer to charges whenever summoned, according to the detective office.

PROBE IS ASKED OF NON-RESIDENTS IN CITY OFFICES

Demands that a sweeping investigation be made of all pay rolls of the city of Atlanta in an endeavor to discover if any of the men employed by the city are non-residents of Atlanta and therefore non-taxpayers, were embodied in a resolution passed Thursday night by the Atlanta Civic league.

The motion was introduced by President J. E. Bowden, who stated that many complaints had been received from citizens who objected to non-residents being in the employ of the city while many Atlantans had been refused employment on the ground that all positions were filled.

A delegation from the Civic league will present this resolution to general council on Monday afternoon and a demand will be made to make the investigation without delay.

Turk Ambassador.

London, November 1.—Dr. Adnan Bey, national envoy, is expected to be the first ambassador from the Turkish republic to Washington, according to a dispatch to "The Morning Post" from Constantinople.

"Bobby," Cats' Enemy, Never Learns Fame, As Car Takes Life

Rome, Ga., November 1.—"Bobby," Rome's best-known dog, died in the very hour that he became famous.

Owned by M. S. Cone, "Bobby," a full-blooded Collie, attracted widespread attention by adopting a stray kitten after having proved an implacable foe to cats all of his life. He maintained his animosity to all other felines except his little friend.

The story attracted the attention of a newspaper correspondent and "Bobby's" story was sent to newspapers in almost every section of the state. Most of the papers printed the story, but reached Rome just after "Bobby," a pet of one whole section of the city, had been instantly killed by being hit by an automobile.

18 Sentenced to Death.

Moscow, November 1.—Eighteen persons were sentenced to death today and 23 given prison sentences as a result of the trial of 48 individuals charged with bribery and corruption. The prisoners were employees of the naval technical department and connected with the navy.

PINCHED BABY'S LEGS TO AID PICKPOCKETS

Chicago, November 1.—An elderly woman who pinched the legs of a long-tongued baby to make it cry as a stratagem to aid a gang of pickpockets, is being sought by the police, in connection with the robberies of several street car passengers.

One of the victims told the police he gave his seat to the woman who was pinching the child and during its was jostled by several men who had boarded the car at the same corner, as the woman. Later he discovered

THIEVES USING GAS IN STEALING CHICKS

Fresno, Cal., November 1.—The use of gas by chicken thieves in silencing the squawks of stolen fowls in Fresno county has come to light here at the annual meeting of the Fresno county farm bureau.

Over 985,000.00 gallons of benzene were exported by this country last year, nearly half of it going to the Orient or Australia.

here at the annual meeting of the Fresno county farm bureau. Members who have lost much poultry reported finding gas masks left by interrupted prowlers. The farm bureau appealed to the sheriff to furnish a special officer to cope with the thieves. One rancher said he had lost 2,000 hens in the past year.

Over 985,000.00 gallons of benzene were exported by this country last year, nearly half of it going to the Orient or Australia.

GOING ON A TRIP?

Then the first thing to consider is your baggage. Much of the discomfort of a long or short trip can be avoided if you have one of our traveling bags equipped with the necessary toilet articles. If you prefer them unfilled we have some splendid unfilled bags and suit cases we would like to show you.

ROUNTREE'S

—2 Stores—

186 Peachtree St. W. Z. TURNER, Mgr. 77 Whitehall WE DO REPAIRING

Sore Throat

NEARLY all forms of sore throat are due to germ infection. Prompt relief therefore cannot be obtained without the use of a powerful germicide. Although most powerful in the presence of saliva than pure Carbolic Acid, Zonite can be freely used as a gargle or throat spray at sufficient strength to destroy all disease germs with which it comes in contact.

The promptness with which Zonite relieves most throat affections has been a revelation to tens of thousands of users of this new form of antiseptic.

Zonite
NON-POISONOUS

In bottles 50c and $1.00

When your office map fails you

ASK the Union Pacific. Most of the great West beyond the Missouri River is Union Pacific country. The Union Pacific men in this city know the West—they've been there, and most likely have intimate knowledge about the very place you're interested in.

Let them help you—give you maps, booklets, tell you the "where," "what," "when," "how much," and whatever else you want to know. The service is free.

Call, write or telephone
W. C. ELGIN, General Agent

1232
Healey Building
49 North
Forsyth Street
Phone
Walnut 5163

Union Pacific

Coal---Right Now!

At this time of year when you want coal you want it quickly.

Campbell Service includes an earnest desire to serve you, 21 Trunk Line Telephones to take your order and a huge fleet of trucks and wagons to deliver it without delay.

CAMPBELL COAL

means the best of coal, too, as thousands of customers have known for nearly 40 years. You can't beat Campbell Jellico or Furnace Lump for satisfaction and economy.

THE R.O. CAMPBELL COAL CO. 5000

SEVEN YARDS ONE NEAR YOU

THE CONSTITUTION'S Bible Distribution COUPON

Two distinct styles of this wonderful Book of Books have been adopted for this great newspaper Bible distribution. One is the far-famed Red Letter Bible (Christ's sayings printed in red for immediate identification), and the Plain Print Bible for those who can spare but a nominal sum.

Only Three Coupons

Clip this coupon and two others and present or mail them to this paper with the sum set opposite either style, and come into possession of your Book of Books at once.

Style A—Red Letter Bible, overlapping limp black leather covers, limp black seal grain textile leather covers, red edges, medium large letters, large, clear print, three coupons and only $1.98

Style B—Plain Print Bible, flush limp black seal grain textile leather covers, red edges, medium large letters, strong and durable, three coupons and only 98c

Mail Orders: Send amount for Style A or Style B, with three of these coupons, and include 17 cents each additional for postage, packing and insurance.

NOTE: The Catholic Bible (Douay Version) can be supplied to readers desiring same. It is practically the same size and bound similar to Style A described above and is offered on the same terms, 3 coupons and $1.98, or by mail, $2.15.

A Chance for Every Reader to Get a New Bible

SAVE--- At JACOBS' Today

- Golliwogg Compacts (single) 87c
- Dier-Kiss Double Compacts.....$1.39
- Amber Royale Powder$1.72
- Mad Nail Polish26c
- Neet Depilatory (small)39c
- De Miracle Depilatory46c
- Angelus Cleansing Cream42c
- Edna Hopper's Clay84c
- Luxor Face Powder39c
- Kolorbak$1.29
- Mahdeen Hair Tonic74c
- Van Ess Hair Tonic$1.19
- Squibb's Tooth Paste39c
- Lyons' Tooth Powder19c
- Sodaxyl45c
- Wampole's Formolid (large)51c
- Bengue's Baume56c
- Glover's Mange Remedy51c
- Tanlac, the Master Tonic.....87c
- Vick's Salve24c
- Laxative Bromo Quinine19c
- Horlick's Malted Milk (large).....73c
- Squibb's Milk Sugar59c
- Johnson's Prepared Wax, lb.....58c
- Hygeia Nursing Bottles, 2 for.....25c
- Kleiner's Jiffy Pants39c

1,876 Boxes of the Best

Stationery 46c

Worth 75c, 85c, $1.00—To Sell Saturday for.....

—Marcus Ward —Whiting & Cook

—Eaton, Crane & Pike —Montag Brothers

These are the makers who are represented in this lot of beautiful stationery. All of the most fashionable shades and plain white are included. Twenty-four attractive shape envelopes and a full quire of paper in each box. Buy in large quantities and use for Xmas gifts.

On Sale at the Main Store Only

Dental Work

OF QUALITY Here at Prices You Can Afford to Pay

$8

Set of Teeth

We save you just one visit on root canal fillings. Our convenient terms will appeal to you. Every piece of work is done by our 20 years' experience.

Porcelain Crowns$4 and $5

Gold Crowns$4 and $5

Bridge Work$2 and $3

Gold Fillings$2 and $3

PAINLESS EXTRACTIONS

Dr. C. A. Constantine, Prop. PERSONALLY IN CHARGE Atlanta Dental Parlors Corner Peachtree and Decatur Streets

To Be in the Social Swim, Play

MAH-JONGG

Everybody who is anybody is playing Mah-Jongg or is keenly interested. This fascinating game, originated in China centuries ago, has held society spellbound the world over. It is not difficult to learn, and takes one through the artistic and romantic phase of the Orient.

Free Lessons in Mah-Jongg Daily

At 111 Peachtree, Opposite Piedmont 9:30 to 11 A. M.—3 to 5 P. M.

Sets for Playing Mah-Jongg Are Priced

$1.95, $3.95, $10.00, $19.75 to $50.00

Books—Racks—Score Cards and Pads

YAARAB CIRCUS IS GALA EVENT

Circus people may not be superstitious, but there are certain signs and omens of a first-night run that to them portend success or disaster, despite the size of the crowd or the applause with which the performance is received by the audience, and last night when the last of the Yaarab circus that attended the premier production of Yaarab temple's indoor Shrine circus had left the Auditorium, a careful check-up failed to uncover a single jinx. Noble John W. Moore, of Chicago, whose big company of artists will appear nightly for the enjoyment of the public of Atlanta, wore a spread-eagle smile of satisfaction and Potentate W. Bayne Gibson declared that Allah was certainly good to the faithful.

DRINK OR DRUG

POISONING requires ELIMINATION. The Neal Treatment acts as an ANTIDOTE for these poisons, creates a longing for drink or drugs and overcomes the diseased condition. (No Hypnotic used.) Dr. J. H. Conway, 10 years with the "Keeley" in charge Neal Institute, 229 Woodward Ave., Atlanta, Ga. (adv.)

Black & White Cabs
PHONE IVY 0166

HOOD Brick ARE GOOD Brick
Roofing Tile
Building Material
B. MIFFLIN HOOD BRICK CO. ATLANTA

PeeGee PAINTS
Architects, painters, contractors, consumers all have banked on PeeGee for over a half century. Phone MAIN 1521-1522.
PEASLEE-GAULBERT CO., Inc.
62 W. Fair St. ATLANTA

Linoleum Floors Save Money In Floor Upkeep

BUSINESS floors are the world's champion absorbers of street dust. Street feet knock and scuffle, thud and shuffle over them. Seams open; tiny, invisible dirt pockets form. Charwomen scrub. Overhead mounts. Your dirt-containing floors cost you money. Have you ever counted the cost of your floors? A large telephone company in Chicago has kept a careful record of the cost of maintaining floors. In their big building, linoleum floors show definite economies. The entire cleaning and waxing cost is less than a cent and a quarter per square foot per month.

Do you think your customers are not, at least subconsciously, aware of the state of your floors?

A springy, easy-tread floor

Certainly they like the springy, resilient quality of linoleum. Armstrong's Linoleum is as resilient as cork. It is powdered cork, mixed with linseed oil. And it is burlap-backed to make it tougher yet.

In the switchboard room of the Kansas City Bell Telephone Co., a floor of 3,700 square yards of Armstrong's Plain Brown Linoleum is installed.

Business men like Armstrong's Linoleum for its cleanliness. When properly laid, it has no unsightly, open seams. It is smooth and even-surfaced; and, if waxed and polished, a daily brushing with a slightly waxed dust-mop serves to keep it spick-and-span.

There is no floor more dignified than waxed linoleum. Its looks actually improve with age. Years mellow it.

For business floors the use of an electric waxing machine is recommended. In some cities there are firms that offer a linoleum waxing and maintenance service.

ARMSTRONG CORK COMPANY, Linoleum Division, LANCASTER, PENNSYLVANIA
Atlanta Office—1228 Candler Building. Telephone—IVY 4666

Armstrong's Linoleum
for Every Floor in the House

"Forget-Me-Not Day" Workers Hold Meeting This Morning

With the approach of "Forget-Me-Not Day," to be observed here Saturday, preparations are being made by the "Forget-Me-Not" workers. The group, which is composed of the city's poor, is holding a meeting this morning at the residence of Mrs. George L. Warren, Jr., at 1000 Peachtree street, to discuss the plans for the day. The group, which is composed of the city's poor, is holding a meeting this morning at the residence of Mrs. George L. Warren, Jr., at 1000 Peachtree street, to discuss the plans for the day.

Mrs. F. B. Williams, president of the Fulton chapter, U. D. C., has been appointed chairman of the day. The group, which is composed of the city's poor, is holding a meeting this morning at the residence of Mrs. George L. Warren, Jr., at 1000 Peachtree street, to discuss the plans for the day.

Other committee chairmen and their territory assignments include: Mrs. J. F. Golden, Piedmont hotel; Mrs. J. W. Kendall, corner Whitehall and Peachtree streets; Mrs. W. E. Beckham, from Tenth to Eleventh streets; Mrs. O. A. Wilbanks, Empire building; Mrs. Joseph H. Kirkwood, Mrs. William Akers, B. King Cafes; Mrs. Julian Cope, Mrs. Luther Calkins, and Miss Mary Spring, from Kramper's store to Pine street; Mrs. George Newton, Citizens and Southern Bank; Mrs. Sowers, Cecil hotel; Miss Annie Terrell, Decatur; Mrs. T. C. Carnell, Ford plant; Mrs. T. R. Baker and Mrs. T. E. Emory, Emory university.

Mrs. J. H. Holge, Hapeville; Mrs. D. C. Lyle, College Park; Mrs. T. R. McElroy, East Point; Mrs. Marcus Beck and Mrs. John L. Fye, all factories; Mrs. Edgar Alexander, Arcade; Mrs. Canada, the Rialto, Fourth and Lytle theaters; Mrs. Warren Candler and Mrs. Melton, Emory university; Mrs. W. H. Rose, Broad and Alabama streets; Mrs. Robert White, Tech; Mrs. N. O. Symmes, Candler building, Wincoff and Ansley hotels; Mrs. W. D. Hoffman, Georgian Terrace; Mrs. Molly Moran, Kimball house; Mrs. Bun. Wyle, Hunter to Mitchell street; Mrs. Newton Wing, Five Points; Mrs. Johnson, all five and ten-cent stores; Mrs. Murray Hubbard, West End; Mrs. Gordon Burnett, Buckhead; Mrs. Edward Barnes and Mrs. Wilmer Moore, Rich's to Keely's; Mrs. Montague Boyd, Allen's; Mrs. L. P. Stallings, the Howard and Grand theaters and the Aragon hotel; Mrs. C. W. LeCraw, Healey building; Mrs. McNabb, Terminal station; Mrs. J. C. Acton, postoffice; Mrs. B. L. Johnson, Grant building; Mrs. W. E. Tally, Southern Bell Telephone; Miss Rosalee Hughes, city hall and Georgia Railway and Power company; Mrs. T. L.

Wife of Postmaster AT CUMMING DEAD

Cumming, Ga., November 1.—(Special.)—Mrs. Susie Elanor Puett, wife of Postmaster J. Ed. Puett, died at their residence on Dahlonega street Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock. Mrs. Puett had been in poor health for more than two years. For many years previous to her illness she had been very prominent in church and civic activities, and had many friends throughout the state. She is survived by her husband; one sister, Mrs. W. B. Hall, of Wadley, Ga., and one nephew and one niece, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hall, of Atlanta. Funeral services will be held at the Methodist church Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Charles T. Brown and Rev. H. O. Green officiating. Interment at the Cumming cemetery.

Wife of Postmaster AT CUMMING DEAD

Cumming, Ga., November 1.—(Special.)—Mrs. Susie Elanor Puett, wife of Postmaster J. Ed. Puett, died at their residence on Dahlonega street Wednesday evening at 6 o'clock. Mrs. Puett had been in poor health for more than two years. For many years previous to her illness she had been very prominent in church and civic activities, and had many friends throughout the state. She is survived by her husband; one sister, Mrs. W. B. Hall, of Wadley, Ga., and one nephew and one niece, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Hall, of Atlanta. Funeral services will be held at the Methodist church Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Charles T. Brown and Rev. H. O. Green officiating. Interment at the Cumming cemetery.

nied in an affidavit charges made in a similar document by Henry J. Norton, that he had used $12,835 advanced to him for the purpose of carrying on a "special campaign" during the last session of the general assembly of Georgia.

Mr. Forrest set forth that the money had been turned over by him to M. R. Dunning to be used to pay salaries and expenses of workers in a membership campaign and stated that "no part of the money had been paid to any member of the legislature."

Carnell, Metropolitan theater; Mrs. C. S. Moeckel, Georgia Music Clothing company; Mrs. B. R. Dickerson, Davidson-Paxon-Stokes company and the All-America Shoe store; Mrs. George Forrester, Brookwood; Mesdames Beverly DuBoise and Robert Woodruff, Pershing Point; Mrs. H. Clay Moore, East Lake, and Mrs. L. K. Pepper, Nunnally's.

Campaign headquarters will be located in the lobby of the Lowry Bank and Trust Company of Georgia, and all committees and workers are urged by Dr. Louis Proterman, chairman of the Atlanta disabled veterans organization, to turn over any sums collected to either Mrs. Arthur Hazard or Mrs. George L. Brower, who are acting jointly as treasurers of the campaign. A considerable amount of last year's proceeds were lost, according to Dr. Proterman, through parties representing themselves as agents authorized to take up money collected from workers on the streets, and it is desired to prohibit a recurrence of that this year.

Petition Asking For Receivership
For Klan Denied

The petition of David M. Bittenhouse, of Philadelphia, and others, asking appointment of a receiver for the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan was denied in superior court here Thursday by Judge John H. Humphries. The court also denied a petition for a temporary injunction to restrain distribution of Klan funds until the next convocation of the order.

In his oral outline of the order to be drawn up by attorneys and to be submitted and signed later by the court, Judge Humphries said he denied the petition for the receivership on the ground that the evidence failed to justify the appointment of a receiver. Referring to the injunction asked to restrain the distribution of Klan funds, he said it was denied on the ground that "there was no immediate, positive, alleged act to be enjoined."

In further commenting on the case, Judge Humphries said: "It seemed to be an inside fight by about three hundred members against a million and a half other members."

Attorneys for the plaintiffs announced in court that they would carry the case to the Georgia supreme court for a review of the proceedings by that body.

Features of the hearing included introduction by the defense of affidavits denying the Klan funds had been spent to carry on a "special campaign" of any sort, in refutation of charges contained in affidavits read into the records yesterday.

N. B. Forrest, grand dragon, denied in an affidavit charges made in a similar document by Henry J. Norton, that he had used $12,835 advanced to him for the purpose of carrying on a "special campaign" during the last session of the general assembly of Georgia.

subject "Transportation." He laid stress on problems connected with the movement of three million tons of freight every season.

The lecture was arranged by Professor H. C. Frame, of the school of business administration, and is the first of several to be given by Atlanta business men.

Czechoslovakia has 832 moving picture establishments, with a total seating capacity of 232,000, but only a few give performances daily.

TRAFFIC OFFICIAL SPEAKS TO STUDENTS

J. W. White, traffic manager of the International Agricultural corporation and president of the Atlanta Traffic club, spoke to Emory university students Thursday morning on the

W.L. Douglas
$7.00 and $8.00
SHOES

Many at $5 & $6 Boys' at $4 & $4.50

W. L. DOUGLAS' name and portrait is the best known shoe trade-mark in the world. It stands for a high standard of quality and dependable value. For economy and satisfactory service, wear shoes that bear this trade-mark.

The price stamped on the sole of every pair at our factory is the real value of the shoes.

No better shoes can be made at the price. The stamped price is your protection.

Good style and good taste are inherent parts of W. L. Douglas shoes. Scores of new Lasts and Patterns for Young Men and well-dressed Men of all ages.

At W. L. Douglas Retail Stores in all large cities and in good shoe stores everywhere. Send for catalogue, if they are not sold where you live.

W. L. DOUGLAS SHOE CO.
210 Spark Street, Brockton, Mass.

Kirk

A handsome Fall style on a popular French last in a medium shade of light Russia calf. An especially good value, $7.00

Massasoit

One of our best new Fall styles. Attractive pattern, harness stitch effect. Made in a pleasing shade of light Russia calf. A special value at $8.00

Snappy Styles for Young Men.

W. L. Douglas Atlanta Store
11 PEACHTREE ST.
OPEN SATURDAY EVENINGS

Going With Rich's in Their New Store Is Responsible for This Important Removal Sale!

Reductions on boys' apparel that is widely known for its high standard of quality and style should bring a crowd into our store this morning. Every article in stock is included—every suit, every overcoat—every blouse and shirt, every pair shoes and every hat—e-v-e-r-y-t-h-i-n-g.

Only imagine — BRAND NEW CLOTHING needed for immediate wear and for Christmas giving, at the same reduced prices you'd expect in January!

As special attractions for today we offer the following articles at almost give-away prices. We suggest that you come early because some of these things are going to fairly melt away.

Fay Stockings

—All sizes, in black, tans and white. Special Friday and Saturday. 45c

Child's Rompers

—Straight leg and Dutch styles for boys and girls. Values to $2. 69c

Knicker Suits

—All with two pairs pants. Every suit in stock reduced. $8.95 up

Students' Suits

With two pairs long trousers. Reductions start $21.95 up

Velvet Hats

—And Plush Hats, all wanted colors, $2.50 to $5 values. $1.95

Boys' Blouses

—Regular 95c kinds, made of fast colored percales, reduced to. 69c

Neckband Shirts

—Sturdy fast-colored materials, well made and finished, reduced. 25%

Madras Blouses

—Regular $1.15 kinds of fine woven madras—all fast colors. Choice. 89c

Boys' Reefer Coats, $3.95

—One lot good all-wool reefer coats of serges and mixtures, heavy enough for the coldest days. Mothers who have small sons of 2 to 8 years should not miss this opportunity. Fine for outdoor and kindergarten wear.

The Boys' Shop
SIX WHITEHALL STREET

BIG KNITTING MILL SECURED BY ROME

Constitution Bureau.
T. J. Bryson, Mayor, Rome, Ga., November 1.—(Special.) Satisfactory labor conditions in Rome have secured for this city a brand new $200,000 knitting mill that will begin operations by the first of the year. The new plant will employ 400 people, and the pay roll will run close to $200,000 annually.

The new factory will be one of a dozen operated by the Chester Knitting Mills, of Chester, Ill.; J. H. Hickman, president and general manager of the company, is in Rome at present, letting contracts for the renovation of the old Printup warehouse, which has been bought by Mr. Hickman. As soon as this work is completed, machinery will be installed and the factory will begin operation as soon thereafter as workers can be employed.

There will be 500 knitting machines in the local plant, Hickman states. A number of these will be brought from Collinsville, Ill., where the company has been operating a plant. Some months ago, employees of this plant walked out because the management refused to recognize their union. When they returned to work, the plant was closed and will be transferred here. This, however, is less than one-half of the equipment that will be installed in the local plant, which, when it reaches capacity production, will turn out 2,000 dozen pairs of high-grade children's and women's hose daily.

The plant comes to Rome as the result of efforts put forth by the local chamber of commerce. O. P. Williamson and E. P. Harris, representing the chamber, went to St. Louis last week, at which time details of the opening of the local plant were worked out.

Winter Arrives.
Rome, Ga., November 1.—(Special.) Rome saw its first ice of the winter this morning.

Beginning yesterday shortly after noon the mercury began to tumble and continued its downward course until early this morning it registered 30, six degrees lower than its previous low mark. On three succeeding nights last week the mercury touched 36.

Ninth False Alarm.
Rome, Ga., November 1.—(Special.) For the ninth time in six days, the fire department answered a false alarm call last night. The calls were sandwiched in between two others which sent the department to real blazes. Chief Taylor, of the fire department, and Chief of Police Harris are making every effort to ascertain who it is that has turned in at least one false alarm every night for the past week.

To Report on Fair.
Rome, Ga., November 1.—(Special.) The Floyd county fair bureau will hold its regular monthly meeting at the chamber of commerce rooms Saturday, at which time W. E. Bowers, secretary of the fair bureau and of the Floyd County Fair Association, will make a report on the financial outcome of the Floyd county fair.

Mr. Bowers states that the fair made money this year, but declines, in advance of the meeting to indicate whether it was as successful as last year, when approximately $2,500 was cleared.

Merriam Is Leader.
Rome, Ga., November 1.—(Special.) Frank M. Merriam will lead the devotional services at the evangelistic meeting of the Rome churches this week. The meetings will be held at the First Methodist church.

Seek Memorial Fund.
Rome, Ga., November 1.—(Special.) The local post of the American Legion has announced plans for a campaign to be staged here for the purpose of raising $1,500 to pay for part of the Charles Graves Memorial.

Navy Marksmen Make New Record With Big Guns

Aboard the U. S. S. Maryland off San Pedro, Cal., November 1.—A new chapter in the history of naval gunnery was written on floating targets by projectiles from the super-dreadnaught Maryland's 16-inch rifles, fired yesterday for the first time in actual battle practice.

Gunnery of the Maryland celebrated the initial firing of the big rifles by hurling a 2,000 pound projectile straight through the bull's eye of the distant target, their second shot splitting the raft squarely in the middle. Targets were changed twice during the gunnery drill, yet both sets looked as though they had been riddled by giant bullets.

During the two runs on the target all four turrets sent their charges to the mark with startling regularity. What officers said was most remarkable, however, was the fact that not one of the gun pointers ever fired a shot before. The Maryland's personnel consists largely of recruits and more than 80 per cent of her gun crews are inexperienced men.

The firing of the Maryland's guns was a spectacular sight. The explosive necessity to hurl 9,000 pounds of steel shells within a few seconds rocked and rolled and shook the 33,500-ton super-dreadnaught as if it were a canoe. Port and headlights and other glasses were smashed and heavy steel deck gear rattled about like so much tin.

The short range battle practice was only an elementary gunnery exercise, it was explained by Commander E. M. Perkins, gunnery officer of the battle fleet, the distance from muzzle to target being about six miles. Next spring when the battle fleet returns from winter maneuvers in the Caribbean the Maryland will fire annual long range battle practice, he said, in which all of the 16-inch rifles will be fired in salvo at a range exceeding 30,000 yards. She then will be a unit of the only sixteen inch gun battleship division afloat, the other ships being the West Virginia and the Colorado.

This trial, it was explained, will form the front line of America's sea defense. The Maryland and her sister-ships are 624 feet in length.

SUTTON ADDRESSES MILITARY STUDENTS

Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of Atlanta schools, delivered an address to the student body of the Georgia Military Academy Thursday on "Free Thinking for Boys."

Mr. Sutton stressed the importance of an early decision of what a man in the future should do. He said that men who dare to think are growing scarcer because of the mechanical way in which city life forces men to live. We need men who will launch out where other persons have not been. That is the way to preserve American superiority and the only way to advance civilization.

which the legion plans to unveil on Armistice day. Graves, a former Rome boy, was selected by the federal government as the "known hero" of the American armies in France, and was buried in the Arlington cemetery had not relatives asked that the body be returned here.

The legion recently projected a plan to erect a memorial to him at the foot of Broad street and it is to pay for the initial installation of this monument that the "drive" is planned.

Meanwhile, the World War Memorial Association, another local organization that plans to erect on the city hall lawn a monument to all Floyd county's dead World War veterans, is reported to lack only $300 of money enough to pay for their completed monument, which will embrace the famous "Big Bertha" which has been in litigation here for some weeks.

POLICE HOLD AUSTIN ON SHOOTING CHARGE

Steve Austin, who gave his address as 116 Fraser street, Thursday night was held at the police station in default of a $3,000 bond on charges of shooting at another, assault and other charges. It is alleged he attempted to shoot A. N. Simon, of 244 Courtland street.

75 PASSENGERS HURT IN WRECK ON B. & O.

Orlando, W. Va., November 1.—More than seventy-five passengers were injured, four seriously, when B. & O. train No. 62, a local running from Clarksburg to Richmond, was derailed near here today. Two coaches, crowded with passengers, jumped the tracks and rolled about forty feet into a field, where they came to a stop, upside down. The injured were brought to a hotel here.

Doctors and nurses from nearby towns were summoned to Orlando and an emergency hospital was set up in the hotel. A number of women suffered broken bones and other injuries, while a small boy was hurt seriously. Practically every passenger in the two coaches suffered hurts. The attending physicians said that a majority of the injured sustained cuts and bruises and were not in a serious condition.

Among those injured seriously were M. J. Harrington, of Weston, Baltimore and Ohio supervisor on the Elkins-Charleston division, and Patrick J. Condry, of Clarksburg, conductor on the wrecked train.

"REV. HARRY WARD"
SECURED JUST $3,000
WITH A BAD CHECK

Memphis, Tenn., November 1.—Memphis police today were endeavoring to locate "Rev. Harry Ward," who made his appearance here several weeks ago, is reported to have represented himself as a Minnesota churchman en route to Dallas, Texas, and is alleged to have deposited a check for $3,000 on a St. Paul bank with a Memphis bank, but which the St. Paul bank is said to have advised by telegram could not be honored.

During his stay here Mr. Ward took an active part in the work of a prominent local church and was expected to conduct a noonday service during the absence of the pastor this week.

First reports to the police as to the disappearance of the stranger were made by the pastor of the church, who feared that he had met foul play.

SUIT FOR ALIENATION FILED AGAINST SISTER

New York, November 1.—Princess Von Der Lippe-Lipski, who before her marriage five months ago to a former page in the court of Czar Nicholas of Russia was Mrs. Lee Wendell Phillips, has filed summons in a suit against her sister, Mrs. Gertrude Schroeder, charging her with being "the other woman" in the alienation of her husband's affections. It was understood the amount asked would be $100,000.

Princess Elaine bases her suit on what she says she heard and saw when she visited her sister's uptown apartment recently. She couldn't find Prince Nicholas Vladimir Lippe-Lipski, her husband, but she saw his clothes scattered about the place and heard his voice before she entered the apartment.

LITTLE HOPE IS FELT FOR VICTIM OF TRAIN

The condition of R. G. Canady, 20-year-old student of the Atlanta Southern dental college, whose legs and right arm were mangled when a switch engine struck him about 2 o'clock Thursday morning and who was taken to Atlanta hospital was unchanged Thursday. Little hope for his recovery is entertained.

Canady was returning from a Halloween celebration. He was rushed to an ambulance by the switch engine which caused his injury.

The victim is the son of G. W. Canady, of Berlin, Ga., and resides at 47 Forsyth avenue.

DR. HAMBRICK ACCEPTS BAPTIST CHURCH CALL

Dr. W. L. Hambrick, evangelist and former pastor of the Baptist church at Carrollton, has accepted the call from the Central Baptist church of Atlanta, and will preach the first sermon to his new charge Sunday. He succeeds Rev. Caleb A. Ridley, resigned.

"Rally day" will be observed at the Central church Sunday, and it is expected that a large congregation will welcome the new pastor. Prior to his ministry in Carrollton, Dr. Hambrick was pastor of the Second Baptist church, Macon.

Small Town Editor Gives New York the Once Over

ED HOWE WOULD LOOK AT "SILENT" BAKER
BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.
New York, November 1.—Well, sir, if you could just fetch your chair and set and listen, you could hear the danglest lot of whoopers this week about big fish that got ketches. Inasmuch as most of the successful men in New York only came here after they made good in towns like Atchison, he thinks the New Yorker is a pretty good article, taking him this way and that.

He wouldn't even know how to work on a New York paper, he admitted. "If I didn't have a nickel in the world and had to get a job here I doubt if I would know how to go about getting a story; I don't believe I could learn to run a New York paper. Think of me sitting down and trying to tell what the people of the greatest city in the world need in the way of a newspaper. But if I worked here I'd just try to be a good reporter. Almost all good writing is just good reporting and a reporter has to know people. People are smart. They give you lots of good ideas. Out in Atchison I used to watch the trainmen and think up a lot of smart things to say."

New York Cooking Not Attractive.
New York, November 1.—If you have a look at the new tall buildings that went up since I was here last and I'm having some trouble in the crowds in the subway, but home people are always calling me up about items for the paper or about not getting their money, because I want to see George F. Baker, the banker, because I understand he never talks for publication. I don't want to go to New York here to get away from always talking to people. I just want to see the man who got famous for not talking.

Old Ed Howe doesn't set much store by the food in New York. That's one thing he has against the town. He says he has seen a quantity of provisions while he is here and if it comes to such a pass that he has just got to have some home-folks food he will call on his daughter and let her fry some ham and eggs for him.

He makes no promise but it isn't likely that he will go to the follies, either. He didn't come to do the town as most of his town-folks would. He just wants to sit around among six million people who don't know who he is.

Cincinnati Police Release Minter; Predict Recovery
Cincinnati, Ohio, November 1.—(Special.)—City police here today said they had been responsible in a case of mistaken identity when they released Lee Minter, 27, of Monticello, Ga., and charged William Banks, 22, negro, of 502 Carlisle avenue, with assault to rob.

They had previously held Minter for questioning while Banks was being treated at general hospital for a bullet wound in the abdomen. Police thought Banks had been wounded accidentally during a pre-Halloween fracas.

The Monticello man, however, said Banks was wounded during an attempt to hold him up.

Minter told police he resisted three negroes who robbed him of $300 and his keys at Fifth and Smith streets here early today. He told Harry Banks, who shot and seriously wounded Minter, that he was a friend of Banks' and that he was in danger of being shot and in turn shot Banks with his own weapon.

Minter was shot and seriously wounded by two other men. Banks denies the charge and says that Minter was struck by a bullet.

Physicians hope to save Minter's life.

ICE CREAM MAKERS TO HOLD CONVENTION

Little Rock, Ark., November 1.—(Special.)—Representatives of the south will be guests of Little Rock December 4 and 5, when the annual convention of the Ice Cream Manufacturers will be held. In connection with the convention will be the exposition of the Ice Cream Manufacturers' affiliated body.

Between 400 and 500 manufacturers are expected by local committees to attend the convention, which is regarded as the southern dairy industry's outstanding event.

M. J. Jones, Athens, Ga., is president. Other officers are W. J. Barrett, Tampa, Fla., vice president; J. W. Clifton, Decatur, Ala., secretary-treasurer. Members of the executive committee are N. D. Brookshire, Meridian, Miss.; J. D. Kinnett, Macon, Ga.; W. R. Drake, Nashville, Tenn.; George L. H. White, Raleigh, N. C.; E. A. Stillings, Daytona, Fla.; Charles Hoobey, Pine Bluff, Ark.; Edward Hahn, Charleston, S. C.; Benjamin C. Brown, New Orleans, La.; Fred Scanlin, Atlanta; John Klockner, Lexington, Ky.

Macon Woman Burned.
Macon, Ga., November 1.—Firemen who broke into the home of B. F. Lockhart, South Macon, tonight, found Mrs. Lockhart enveloped in flames. She was so seriously burned that she was taken to a hospital. Lockhart was arrested on charges of intoxication and disorderly conduct.

SUCCESS AT MEETS PRESBYTERY MEET

West Point, Ga., November 1.—(Special.)—Final meetings of the one hundred and fourteenth stated session of the Atlanta presbytery were held here today at West Point Presbyterian church, bringing to a climax what has been called the most successful and deeply spiritual meeting in the history of this organization. Reports from heads of various departments of the church presbytery were the strongest and most encouraging conditions throughout ranks of church membership, it was stated. Addresses presenting accomplishments already attained and expressing hopes for the future have featured every meeting.

Barbecue Served.
At noon today ladies of the local church prepared and served to the delegates and many specially invited guests a sumptuous barbecue dinner. A. D. Ferguson acted as toastmaster and witty speeches were mingled with more serious ones. The presbytery quartet sang "Keep the Home Fires Burning." Resolutions expressing the thanks of the delegates to presbytery for the entertainment here were read and unanimously adopted. Mrs. Griggs Zachary sang before the communion service.

The closing address of the session was delivered before a packed house at 7:30 tonight by Dr. J. S. Lyons, of Atlanta, on the subject of European conditions of today as they impress themselves upon him during recent travels abroad.

Encouraging Reports.
Wednesday's session was featured by many encouraging reports and addresses. For the Sunday school work, Rev. J. G. Patton, Jr., of Atlanta, presented a large increase in the number of vacation Bible schools. An outstanding feature of the Sunday school work is the organization of group conferences throughout presbytery for the purpose of studying better methods for the conduct of departmental work.

The stewardship committee's report by Rev. W. Luck, of Atlanta, recommended a benevolent budget of $135,000, to be apportioned among the various churches on an equitable basis. Dr. McCall, president of Agnes Scott college, Colonel Robert C. Walker, prominent Atlanta attorney, and Mrs. A. J. Williamson, of Atlanta, gave interesting addresses on the Presbyterian progressive program, which is under the chairmanship of Rev. W. Luck, secretary of stewardship of the presbytery.

The home missions report as given by Rev. J. Edwin Hemphill, superintendent of home missions, shows the largest number of workers ever engaged in the Atlanta presbytery.

Governor Speaks
As Cornerstone Laid for School
Brunswick, Ga., November 1.—(Special.)—Governor Clifford W. Walker was the principal speaker at the laying of the cornerstone of the St. Simon vocational school for boys on St. Simon's Island this afternoon. The exercises being attended by a number of other prominent Georgians.

Governor Walker arrived in the city from Savannah on a belated train and left immediately for the island, the exercises being delayed about an hour.

All of the visitors upon their arrival on the island were conveyed to the hotel by motor cars. The school is located on the banks of the Hampton river, and here the exercises were held.

The cornerstone was laid for the school, which will be of Spanish architecture. The other buildings will be of a similar type of the Berry school at Rome.

Besides Governor Walker, other prominent Georgians attending the exercises included W. Perry Hood, fourth attorney for the school; Josiah T. Rose, internal revenue collector; Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of Atlanta schools; Editor Cobb, of the Southern Ruralist; Benjamin Padgett, head of the Rogers' stores; John T. Metcalf, all of Atlanta; Judge W. C. Covington and William Vereen, of Moultrie.

The visitors were guests on the island of Mrs. Anna Dodge, whose gifts were possible the foundation of the institution.

A. M. E. CONFERENCE HEARS CHANCELLOR

Athens, Ga., November 1.—(Special.)—The North Georgia conference, A. M. E. church, in session here, is rushing its work. Chancellor David Barrow, of the University of Georgia, spoke to the body on "Things Fundamental." He touched upon migration as it related to negroes who have lived on his farm for many years.

Bishop W. H. Heard, of Philadelphia, Pa., addressed the conference on the progress which is being made by the A. M. E. church in the north, and the changes which are anticipated by a session of the church by changing the bishops of Georgia, Texas, South Carolina and Florida.

"It was known, if the church must be one and the same, the bishop should be moved every four years," he said. He referred to the migration by saying that the large number of negroes coming north could not do much because they had been trained only on the farms and that if they would have poor health in the south, they would most certainly have it in the north.

Characters of the pastors were passed except Rev. J. F. Moses, which was stopped by Rev. G. W. Cook, but after a ruling by the bishop, his character passed. Five pastors died during the year. They were Revs. A. Freener, S. F. James, Wm. Upshaw, John W. Talliaferro, W. L. Pitts. Memorial exercises will be held Saturday morning.

The missionary mass meeting was held today. Mrs. R. H. Singleton, J. A. Hadley and J. T. Hall were principal speakers. The pastors read many of their reports concerning their membership, addition of members, paying debts, founding missions and erecting churches. Many leaders of the negro race appeared before the conference and spoke briefly. Among them were Presiding Elder H. D. Canady, J. I. Stringer, S. F. Andrews, Rev. J. L. Butler, R. J. Jefferson, W. C. Kelly, H. H. Hall, J. H. Higgins, J. F. Moses, J. W. Lancaster, H. E. Tomlin, W. J. Williams, M. A. Fountain, W. O. Slade, W. B. Clark, Dr. N. J. McComb, J. S. Perry, John C. Cash, W. G. Barton, L. C. Griffin, L. D. Hamilton, J. T. Adams, H. E. Evans, A. E. Thornton, J. H. Edge, J. H. Kimbro, D. T. Babcock, R. E. Roman, T. H. Hudson, S. F. Edwards, D. G. Shropshire, H. W. Smith and D. W. Eady.

The W. F. & F. M. society reported, asking the delegates of the general conference to support their position to seek the return of the present bishop over Georgia, as he has built up the missionary department in the state, as has not been done since the administration of the late Bishop Henry M. Turner. The conference adopted the report by rising vote of the body.

Present Champion Winner Over Mrs. T. T. Williams; Mrs. Beck Loses by 2 Up

Mrs. Lowndes' Putting Is Big Improvement Over Previous Work on Greens.
Close Struggle Is Forecast.

BY MRS. CLARENCE BRADLEY.
Mrs. Dozier Lowndes, present woman golf champion of Atlanta, and a former holder of the southern title, meets Mrs. L. J. Robinson, once woman's champion of Michigan, in the finals of the city tournament at East Lake this morning. Mrs. Robinson won over Mrs. L. H. Beck by 2 up and Mrs. Lowndes defeated Mrs. T. T. Williams 5 and 4 in the semi-finals yesterday.

A stiff breeze met the golfers on the first tee, but the spectators were presented with a thrilling duel in the match between Mrs. Beck and Mrs. Robinson. Stymies played an important part in this match, Mrs. Beck losing the second hole, when Mrs. Robinson laid a dead stymie and a stymie on the fifth cost Mrs. Beck another.

The putting of each player was not to her usual form on the first hole. Mrs. Beck lost Number 4 when she took three putts on the green. In fact nearly every hole was decided on the green, as both players were generally in the same number of strokes. It was a putting duel on nearly every green until the eighteenth hole was reached.

The match was marked by the sensational playing of Mrs. Beck on the third and twelfth holes. On the third Mrs. Beck's second went into the trap and was on the green in five. Mrs. Robinson took four strokes on the trap dead and holed out with a par four, and on the twelfth her drive was trapped, but again she came out beautifully and was on the green in five, holing out a forty-foot putt for a four. Mrs. Robinson turned in a card for a 94, Mrs. Beck a 97.

Mrs. Lowndes' Putting.
The match between Mrs. Lowndes and Mrs. Williams was featured with 40 and 90-foot putts by Mrs. Lowndes who seems to have completely recovered from her putting slump of Monday.

In the final of the first flight, Mrs. T. T. Williams and Mrs. Henry Clay Lowndes' drive and brassie put her hole high in two. She pitched on the green and holed out with a five. Mrs. Williams taking six.

Mrs. Lowndes missed her tee shot from the No. 2 and landed in the trap. Mrs. Williams' drive was just over the green. Mrs. Lowndes' second from the trap went into another trap. She holed out brilliantly and Mrs. Williams' tee shot was trapped. Mrs. Lowndes missed the green and her approach was 20 feet past the pin and cost her a costlier hole than Mrs. Williams' when she holed out a long putt.

On No. 4 Mrs. Lowndes let the bare drive when her first shot was out of bounds, but Mrs. Williams failed to take advantage of it. Mrs. Lowndes made a fine recovery and won with a five going four up. The ninth was halved. Mrs. Williams won the eighth with a par four. Mrs. Lowndes getting down with a five. The ninth was halved. Mrs. Lowndes' card in was 46, Mrs. Williams 49 and Mrs. Lowndes' tee shot at the turn was out of bounds. Her second from the tee was sliced and it cost her five to get home, but she ran down a 40-foot putt for a half. On the eleventh Mrs. Williams' tee shot was trapped. Mrs. Lowndes pulled her drive and both on in three, halving with a pair of fives. Mrs. Lowndes won the twelfth with a five going four up. On the thirteenth the trap caught Mrs. Williams' third. She came out on her fourth and Mrs. Lowndes was in four also, but won with five with a 90-foot putt. The number fourteen was halved, each getting down with a par five.

Cleveland Attendance.
Cleveland, Ohio, November 1.—The attendance at Cleveland American league home games was better this past season than in 1922, according to E. S. Barnard, president of the Indians. The total paid attendance in 1922, Mr. Barnard said today, was 558,000 in round numbers, more than 30,000 above the 1922 attendance.

Among unusual occupations listed in the London directory are "cock-tail-shaker," "manufacturers of keeping instructors" and "preservers of ferns and flowers."

"There's something about them you'll like"

A FULL page ad could promise you no more.

A Quarter Again TWENTY CIGARETTES

Herbert Tareyton London Cigarettes

There's something about them you'll like

A FULL page ad could promise you no more.

A Quarter Again TWENTY CIGARETTES

Herbert Tareyton London Cigarettes

There's something about them you'll like

A FULL page ad could promise you no more.

A Quarter Again TWENTY CIGARETTES

Herbert Tareyton London Cigarettes

There's something about them you'll like

A FULL page ad could promise you no more.

A Quarter Again TWENTY CIGARETTES

Herbert Tareyton London Cigarettes

Copyright 1923 The House of Kuppenheimer

Style is for appearance warmth is for comfort and quality is for service. You get all of this and plenty more fine features in Kuppenheimer suits and overcoats

EISENMAN'S

56-58 Peachtree "Thru to Broad"

BOXWOOD

(LOW)

Better Collars with tie space at top

CHIPWOOD

(MEDIUM)

20c

EARL & WILSON

COLLARS - SHIRTS

THE SMALL LOAN BUSINESS

$10 to $300

ON HOUSEHOLD GOODS, PIANOS, ETC.

Has been given its place in the sun, it being recognized as a real economic need.

WHEN IN NEED OF FUNDS BORROW

From a big friendly institution where the spirit is democratic and it is a pleasure to do business.

$10 for 30 days costs	$0.35	WHY REMAIN IN NEED
$48 " " "	$1.68	OF FUNDS WHEN YOU
$96 " " "	$3.36	CAN BORROW AT SUCH
$200 " " "	$7.00	LOW COST?
$300 " " "	$10.50

Loans are made on the monthly repayment plan so that there is no hardship to repay.

C. B. BURCH, W. P. WOLL AND V. D. MOSS Doing Business as

CITIZENS LOAN COMPANY

EDWARD M. STEIMLE, Mgr.

Suite 301 Peters Bldg. Telephone Walnut 5295

CHANGES MADE IN COLLECTION OF CITY GARBAGE

Downtown garbage will be collected between 5:30 and 8 o'clock at night instead of in the morning and night collection will continue permanently, beginning today, it was announced Thursday by John Jentzen, chief of the sanitary department. The change is pursuant to the Duvall ordinance adopted by city council last month. It is intended to relieve traffic congestion in the business district during morning business hours. All sanitary department trucks and wagons were equipped with lights Thursday to put them in readiness for night service beginning tonight.

The ordinance prescribes the following streets for night collection: Beginning at W. & A. railroad tracks and Spring street, Spring to Cain, Cain to Ivy, Ivy to Houston, Houston to Courtland, Courtland to Auburn, to Piedmont, to Georgia, Railroad tracks, to Central avenue and Produce Row to East Hunter street, thence to Washington street to Trinity avenue to Central avenue to Mitchell, to the Terminal station at the point of the beginning of Spring street.

Recent dispatches from the Berlin bureau of the Associated Press have shown that Chancellor Stresemann is inclining strongly toward the right which strengthens the story of an understanding with Wilhelm.

SOCIALISTS COMPEL GIVING UP DEMANDS.
Berlin, November 1.—With cabinet downfall looming, Bavarian fascists threatening civil war on the Thuringian frontier, and the mark halving in value before the eyes of a money-hungry Berlin, the federal government has partially capitulated to socialist pressure in order to save the cabinet.

Emergency orders virtually nullified law were rescinded Thursday in Saxony by President Ebert. The federal forces of the reichwehr are to be withdrawn from the "red" state. Socialists had demanded that martial law be withdrawn throughout the nation, declaring that otherwise their representatives would quit the cabinet. But as the greatest socialist pressure was directed against the government, the cabinet refused to accede to the demand for emergency measures there is marked government concession toward the socialist group.

STRESEMANN DICKERS WITH HOHNZOLLERN
Continued from First Page.

this was the only means of solidifying Germany. If the effort is made immediately.

THE CONSTITUTION, ATLANTA, GA., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 2, 1923.

Money Is Found To Meet October School Payroll

Enough money has been found to pay all October salaries in the city department but no hope that the city council can provide $300,000 to meet the 1923 public school deficit was held out by city officials Thursday after a check of city resources on the eve of the special session of the school board today to consider ways and means of financing the schools through the year.

Prospects of increasing the school department's income by $750,000 next year appeared equally small, according to officials. The close-stitch with the city's financial condition. The increase in revenue from higher tax assessments will provide probably $250,000 additional revenue for the schools under the present charter provision that gives them 20 per cent of the city's total income.

School Officials Remained Silent
School officials remained silent Thursday night as to what specific suggestions they will make Friday afternoon looking toward an increase in revenue. Board members and Superintendent Sutton were in accord as to the need for more money.

"It is not the school department's province to raise money, Mr. Sutton said.

The special meeting of the board to consider the financial situation was called Saturday by W. W. Gans, president of the board, for 3 o'clock this afternoon. Mayor Walter A. Sims, Alderman I. N. Ragdale, chairman of the council finance committee, and Councilman Edward H. Inman, chairman of the council schools committee, have been invited to attend.

"I would like the best in the world to see the city help the schools further," Alderman Ragdale said Thursday. "The school board has said that the city has not got the money."

Councilman Inman declined to express an opinion as to the outcome of the meeting.

"I will know more about it when I hear what the school board has to say," he said.

Sims Awaits Report.
Mayor Sims was awaiting a complete report from B. Graham West, controller of the school revenue and expenditures which he expects to get this morning in time to study before the meeting.

"I am of the opinion that the school department could do about the same as the city has done," he said. "When we found that the first of the year that our income would meet our estimated expenditures, we cut down expenditures and we are going to come out even and we haven't had to close down any city department yet."

Letters to the young officer's parents tell of an eight-hour vigil through the stormy night, in a whaleboat, endeavoring to pass a line to one of the ships that was in danger of going to pieces; how they finally reached a huge rock at daylight, from which they succeeded in passing a line over the wrecked vessel by means of which all the men on board were taken off.

Lieutenant Jones attended Lanier High school in Macon, then Gordon Institute, at Barnesville, from which place he went to Annapolis. He finished his studies at the academy three years ago. His home now is at San Diego, Cal.

SENATE TO HEAR WALTON DENIAL
Continued from First Page.

he was not in sympathy with Klan ideals.

Governor Walton reiterated that he never had applied for membership in the Ku Klux Klan and denied the statement of Imperial Wizard Evans at Atlanta, that he is a "Klansman at large."

The governor said the life membership offer, which was to be gratis, was "an utter surprise" to him.

He quoted two alleged letters, one purporting to be that of Emperor Simmons and the other his reply to the membership offer. The answer was dated October 17.

Emperor Simmons' letter was written, Governor Walton said, after members of the Klan were complained against and arrests made. The offer was characterized as "a polite attempt at bribery."

MRS. STOKES BARE HISTORY OF LIFE
Continued from First Page.

posing counsel when they clashed during the trial, threatened during Mrs. Stokes' testimony to declare a mistrial if her lawyer, Mr. Untermyer, did not cease disobeying the court's rulings on objections.

Pictured in Pajamas.
Mr. Untermyer showed his client a photograph showing her in pajamas seated on a man's shoulders. She testified that it was a picture of a girlish lark taken before her marriage when she was on a house party. She said she had in her album a photograph of another girl in a similar pose taken at the same time.

"It is one of the pictures from one of my albums which Mr. Stokes stole," declared Mrs. Stokes.

Opposing counsel objected to reference to a "stole" and it was sustained.

"When did you see this picture and the album last?" asked Mr. Untermyer.

"In 1913, Mr. Stokes took them from me and I tried to knock them out of his hands that very day. I asked him many times for them (two albums) but he refused to give them to me. They were never produced at the first trial, although I asked for them."

Met Wallace.
Mrs. Stokes said her grandmother, several aunts and cousins reside in and near Sycamore.

"Did you ever run away from school there?"

"No, I went to my grandmother's house until my brother sent me money to return to Denver."

In 1903 or 1904 Mrs. Stokes said she went to the National Park Seminary in Washington, D. C., where she studied music and literature, and at the end of the year her sister joined her and they went to Europe on an educational tour. They remained abroad about six months. Soon after her return she made her debut in Denver.

The family traveled west, she said, visiting in California in 1900 and stopping in the Palace hotel, San Francisco.

"I think we were at the Palace hotel two or three weeks when Humboldt Gates or his sister, Mrs. Pittman, the wife of ex-Senator Pittman, of Nevada, introduced me to Mr. Wallace," she said.

"How frequently did you see Mr. Wallace?"

"Three or four times. It might have been more or less."

"Where did you generally meet him?"

"Usually on the beach where we were taking my young sisters and brother down to waik."

"Was there always a crowd on the beach?"

"Yes, there was always a crowd of nurses, mothers and young people."

"Did you get to know Mr. Wallace quite well?"

"I don't know what you mean by that; we were always cool friends."

Mrs. Stokes was then handed the photograph of herself and Wallace on the beach at San Francisco. Asked if she recognized the picture she smiled.

"I think I was throwing sand at him, and he grabbed my hand and slipped me. Mother snapped the picture."

She identified another photograph of herself and Wallace taken at the same beach and identified two other persons in the group as her sister, Beatrice, and Humboldt Gates.

Never in Buncheon.
"Did you ever meet Wallace at Buncheon?" she was asked.

"No, I never heard of Buncheon until this trial," she replied.

Mrs. Stokes testified she never met any of Wallace's family; that she never was in Buncheon and never had a tallyho ride there. Asked if she ever met Clarence McConick at Buncheon, she said she never saw him until this trial.

Mrs. Stokes said she had Wallace to call on her at her home in Denver, and then was questioned concerning a ring he was said to have given her.

She said Wallace loaned her the ring in 1908 because she had admired it. She added she had returned it in New York a few months after he had given it to her. She testified she never had seen him between 1909 and 1921, when he testified for her in the first trial of her divorce case.

Mrs. Stokes said she came to New York in 1908 to study music and French. Wallace, she said, called her up in January, 1909, and asked her to dinner, but she declined the invitation.

Mrs. Stokes said she later had gone to Denver and Cuba. She testified she settled in New York for a second time. Then she told of meeting Stokes and of events leading up to her marriage.

She said at Stokes' request they had kept their marriage quiet because he said it might injure him in a financial deal.

"Were you at that time in love with Mr. Stokes?" Mr. Untermyer asked.

"I thought I was," replied the witness.

Mr. Steuer objected, the court sustained his point and question and answers were stricken out.

It was then that the lawyers clashed and the court threatened to declare a mistrial.

MORRIS Supreme Ham and Bacon

Crisp, tender, savory—try this delicious bacon

What is more appetizing than mild, sweet-flavored bacon, done to a turn? And it's an added treat if it's Supreme bacon.

The Supreme cure preserves all the delicate natural flavor of the meat; with an added zest imparted by the special Supreme smoking process.

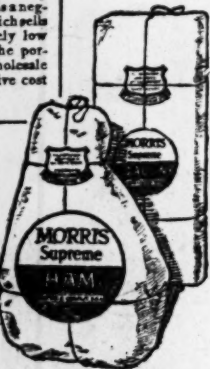

Try it; by itself and for flavoring other foods.

The name Supreme on ham and bacon means the finest quality; and Government Inspected makes for purity. They both help you buy wisely.

For economy, buy a whole Supreme ham. Supreme bacon by the whole piece—or sliced in cartons.

Sold by all dealers who want their customers to have the best

History of Meat Packing
A hog is not all ham by any means. For every choice portion which sells at a comparatively high price, there is a large quantity of meat which sells at a comparatively low price. Some of the portions actually wholesale at less than the live cost per pound.

Keep on telling them.
And you'll keep on selling them

No one yet has discovered a substitute for regular newspaper advertising. If they had you would know about it.

Don't Tell 'em Yesterday
Tell 'em Today

TELL them regularly in

The Atlanta Constitution

Main 5000

Bow Is Rehaired In Record Time By Mays Badgett

What is believed to be a world's record was established in Atlanta yesterday when Mays Badgett, well-known violin maker, before a number of professional musicians, succeeded in rehiring a violin bow in two minutes flat. Then, not satisfied with his performance, Badgett had blindfolds placed over his eyes and again repeated this delicate and intricate operation in less than five minutes.

The exhibition of Badgett's handcraft, which took place in his little shop at Five Points, was occasioned by a stunt issued by Leon & Healy, Chicago music house, that a world's record of five minutes and thirty-six seconds for rehiring a bow had been established in Dresden, Germany.

This phase of the fiddle maker's work has long been a means for friendly rivalry between violin experts. Friends scoffed when Badgett said he could better the record, so Thursday was set for the trial. Professional violinists held watches while Badgett's deft fingers flew. He completed every step of the operation, even removing the bow from its case, taking out the old hair, soaking, combing and inserting the new hair in tip and nut and making a perfect job of it in both of his trials. When blindfolded he completed the rehiring in 4 minutes, 30 seconds.

Admiring witnesses at the conclusion of the exhibition presented Badgett with signed statements certifying the time he had made.

BURGARS LOOT SEVERAL STORES IN ADAIRSVILLE
Adairsville, Ga., November 1.—(Special.)—Thieves last night entered and robbed four places here, a similar raid having occurred a year ago. Cook Drug Co., R. L. Frank & Sons, Anderson & Biddy, and H. Ambright's garage at Cook Drug company were looted. The thieves secured about $800 in cash and about $200 in jewelry, which was in a safe. Entrance was gained by a back door at R. L. Franklin & Sons, and the robbers secured $14 in cash which was in a safe. Anderson & Biddy lost several suits of clothes. The burglars secured tools at H. Ambright's garage, prying open the rear doors of the places entered.

To Cure a Cold in One Day
Take Laxative BROMO QUININE Tablets. The box bears the signature of E. W. Grove. 20c.—(adv.)

Don't let it run—that cough

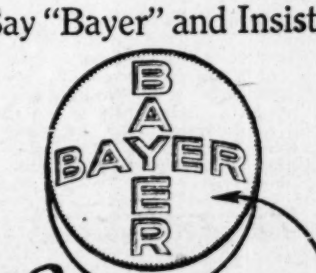

It may grow into a chronic ailment. Stop it now with Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar Honey. Just the medicines that your doctor prescribes for loosening heavy phlegm, easing inflamed throat and chest tissue, and stopping coughing—combined with the time-tested remedy, pine-tar honey. Everybody likes the taste. Keep Dr. Bell's on hand for the whole family.

All druggists. Be sure to get the genuine.

DR. BELL'S Pine-Tar Honey

ASPIRIN

Say "Bayer" and Insist!

Genuine

Genuine "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" have been proved safe by millions and prescribed by physicians over twenty-three years. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoacetic acid ester of Salicylic acid.

Hall's Wonder Pile Ointment
AT ALL DRUG STORES—50c

If you happen to be one of the many who suffer from piles, you will read this good news with joy. Hall's Wonder Pile Ointment is a safe and sure remedy for piles, in any form. This wonderful remedy is daily bringing comfort to thousands of sufferers—many of whom had tried all sorts of treatments without avail. Hall's Wonder Pile Ointment can be had at any drug store, price 50c the tube, or write to:

CHAFFIN DRUG CO.
Monroe, Georgia

Home Art Supply Co.

"Largest Credit Clothing and Housefurnishing Store in the South"

Sale of Silk Dresses

The sale price does not begin to represent their value. One lot of fine silk dresses, values to $29.75. Special

$17.75

Another group of wonderful models whose regular selling price is up to $37.50. Now

$22.75

Navy, Brown, Black and others. All sizes. Free alterations. No exchanges. No C. O. D.

$5 Down—$1 Week
On this special lot of dresses only.

New Coats

A splendid new shipment at

$29.50 to $59.50

A group of exquisite Brytonias at.....$39.50
Other splendid coats, up from.....$19.50

New Suits

Finely Tailored—Smartly Trimmed—Beautifully colored.

$24.75 Up

In this selection are shown the finest of the season's most popular materials.

Blankets and Comfortables

That most miserable feeling—to sleep cold. Use your credit here and supply your home with plenty of soft, warm blankets and comforts. We have a large stock for you to select from.

$5.50 Up

Housefurnishings

Thanksgiving is not far away. Begin now to get your home in order for "Homecoming" Day. Table Linen, Silverware, Draperies, Rugs—everything to make home attractive. Generous terms.

Just Received Boys' Suits and Overcoats

An exceptionally fine lot of Boys' Suits are just in. Among them are long wearing Corduroys, Serges, Tweeds, etc., in a wide range of colors and combinations. Wonderful values these two pants suits are at

$12.50 Up

The overcoats are just as fine. Sturdy, warm and full of style. They can't be beat at this price.

$5.50 Up

Terms on Boys' Suits are as low as

$1 Down—$1 Week

Coats and Suits for Men

Suits that will add immeasurably to your appearance and self-confidence. Suits that will wear well and look well as long as they last. Wide choice in patterns, styles and materials. Generous credit. Priced from

$25.00 UP

$29.50 UP

Home Art Supply Co.

"Clothing—Housefurnishings"

Free Alterations—Open Saturdays till 9 P. M.

172-174 Whitehall Street

News of Society and Woman's Work

Mr. and Mrs. Quillian Give Dinner Party for Visitor

Mr. and Mrs. W. Earl Quillian entertained at dinner Thursday evening in compliment to Mrs. Milo Arbuckle, of Little Rock, Ark., who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cundell.

The elegantly appointed table had as the central decoration a silver vase of pink roses and silver vases holding lighted tapers. Dainty handpainted cards marked the places of the guests, who were Mrs. Arbuckle, Mr. and Mrs. Cundell, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Conway, of Marietta, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Julian Boehm, Miss Marion Boehm, Miss Ethel Beyer, Dr. Quillian Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fraser, Mr. and Mrs. William Holmes, Mrs. L. M. Cassilly, Miss Laurie Quillian and Mr. and Mrs. Quillian.

Mrs. Quillian was gowned in blue georgette over cloth of silver.

After dinner the guests played Mah Jong.

In the afternoon Mrs. Arbuckle was the central figure at a tea given in her honor by Mrs. Owen Cheney at her home on Avery drive.

Assisting the hostess in entertaining were Mrs. W. E. Beckham, who presided at the tea table; Miss Florence Ohear, Miss Florence LeCoutre, Miss Marguerite Hodnett, Miss Carolyn Beckham, Miss Theodosia Beckham, and Miss Josephine Hollis, daughter of Mrs. Cheney.

Mrs. Cheney was gowned in an afternoon costume of tomato colored crepe, heavily beaded.

Mrs. Arbuckle's becoming gown was of blue velvet, combined with silver lace.

Mrs. Cundell was gowned in black satin.

Bridge-Luncheon Will Compliment Charming Guests

Mrs. William W. Roberts and her sister, Mrs. Edwin M. Pearce, will entertain Friday at the home of Mrs. Roberts on Peachtree road in compliment to Mrs. Robert Bowen, of Dallas, Texas, the guest of Mrs. Forrest Adair, Sr.; Mrs. Robert Hall, of Washington, D. C., the guest of Mrs. Warren White, and Mrs. Charles Roberts, who has recently come to Atlanta to reside.

Invited to meet the honor guests are Mrs. W. R. C. Smith, Mrs. Robert Camp, Mrs. L. L. Shivers, Mrs. Frank D. Pierson, Mrs. C. L. Willson, Mrs. E. D. Kennedy, Mrs. Martin Dunbar, Mrs. Claude E. Buchanan, Mrs. Samuel L. Dinkins, Mrs. Arthur M. Reid, Mrs. Bessie Pope Tolbert, Mrs. J. M. Niskey, Mrs. John Woodside, Jr., Mrs. Guy Mitchell, Mrs. Warren D. White, Mrs. Forrest Adair, Sr., Mrs. S. R. Gause, Mrs. Charles D. Atkinson, Mrs. William Royer, Mrs. John J. Woodside, Sr., Mrs. E. M. Pearce, Mrs. Laura J. Pope, Miss Marvella Smith, Mrs. E. D. Crawford and Miss Laura Pearce.

THE CONSTITUTION'S DAILY WOMAN'S MAGAZINE

Features Which Will Interest
Every Woman

Lovely Mother and Baby

Mrs. James Lewis Hicks, of Talladega, Ala., and little son, James Lewis, Jr., who are the guests of Mrs. Hicks' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Douglas. Mrs. Hicks was, before her marriage, Miss Natalie Stokes and was a popular member of Atlanta society.

Pretty Church Ceremony Unites Miss Harrell and Mr. Spittler

Cordial interest is centered in the marriage of Miss Molly Wight Harrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald D. Hudson and Raymond Alonzo Spittler, which was solemnized Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock, at the North Avenue Presbyterian church.

A large company of relatives and friends attended the ceremony which was solemnized by Dr. Richard Orme Flinn.

Lovely Setting.

A lovely setting was provided by the artistic decorations in the church. Handsome palms and green foliage, interspersed with quantities of smilax, adorned the walls. The chancel was banked with palms before which stood baskets of pink chrysanthemums and handsome cathedral candelabra in which white tapers burned and gleamed.

A program of exquisite wedding music was rendered by Joe Razan while the guests were assembling. Lohengrin's Wedding March was played during the entrance of the bride party, while Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played as the recessional. Favorite melodies of the bride were played during the ceremony.

First to enter were the ushers who were W. A. Spittler, C. E. Carls, O. G. Sanford and G. H. Rosenbusch.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Rebecca Harrell, as maid of honor. Her exquisite gown was of gray crepe de chine, made on long straight lines. The gracefully draped skirt was caught at the left side with handsome pearl ornament. With this she wore a hat of jade green velvet, trimmed with feathers, and her flowers were a corsage of Columbia roses and valley lilies.

Charming Bride.

The bride, a charming young woman, was given in marriage by her uncle, Ed L. Wight, and was joined at the altar by the groom and his brother.

S. V. Spittler, who acted as best man. She was lovely in her wedding gown of navy blue crepe back satin with trimmings of Roman striped silk. She wore a small dark blue hat ornamented with feathers and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses showered with lilies of the valley.

The bride's mother, Mrs. R. D. Hudson, was gowned in hearse crepe combined with Persian silk and a hat to match. Her corsage bouquet was of pink roses.

Jr. and Mrs. Spittler left for a wedding trip to points of interest in Florida, after which they will reside in Atlanta.

Interesting Families.

Mrs. Spittler is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald D. Hudson and a sister of Miss Rebecca Harrell. The late Colonel Edward Lee Wight, a distinguished and prominent citizen in the annals of the state, was her maternal grandfather.

She was graduated from Washington seminary in 1923 and although she has never made a formal debut, she enjoyed a wide popularity among the younger set of society.

Mr. Spittler came to Atlanta several years ago from Ohio and has made his home here since his discharge from the army. He received his commission at Camp Gordon and served with distinction during the world war.

Last year, Mr. Spittler was graduated from the Georgia School of Technology where he was a popular member of the Delta Sigma Phi fraternity. He holds a responsible position with the House Building Supply company.

Women To Serve Chicken Dinner.

The women of the Peachtree Road Presbyterian church will serve a chicken dinner for 60 cents Friday night, November 2, from 6 to 8 o'clock. The public is invited.

SOCIAL ITEMS

Mrs. T. S. Court, of Wiley, Georgia, is convalescing at Dr. Noble's sanitarium.

Mr. and Mrs. Wynston S. Allen announce the birth of a daughter, Dorothy, Sunday, October 28th.

Mrs. Carl Dodd is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Elbert Barnett at Grove Park Inn at Asheville, N. C., after visiting Miss Edwina Lockett, in Winston-Salem, N. C.

William Manry Heston, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Heston, who is attending school at Davidson college, N. C., is seriously ill at a sanitarium in Charlotte, N. C., where he underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. J. T. Culpepper, of Panama City, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Howard McCutcheon, at her home on Crew street.

Mr. and Mrs. Evelyn Harris leave today for Durham, N. C., to attend the marriage of Miss Margaret Louise Carr and Clark Howell, Jr., which will take place Saturday evening in St. Philips church in Durham.

Mrs. Graham Hall, of Nashville, Tenn., who has been the guest of Mrs. J. P. B. Allen at her home in the McGhee apartments, returned home Saturday.

Mrs. A. P. Brantley will leave today for her home in Blackshear after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Willet at her home on Piedmont avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Wight who have held their home at 141 West Lake road, have moved into an apartment at 1108 Peachtree street for the winter.

Mrs. W. H. Gillette, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Bemis, on Peachtree street, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nathaniel Seadwell have received a cable from Mrs. William Devereaux and Mrs. Richard Devereaux and the Rev. T. A. Mason announcing their arrival in Liverpool where they reside. They spent several weeks as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Seadwell during the summer.

John N. Steadwell, Jr., has returned to Louisville, Ky., after spending two weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John N. Steadwell, Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. Winchester Hooper Bennett returned Thursday from their wedding trip and will be the guests of their father, George L. Pratt, at his home in Druid Hills. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett will leave Sunday for Hammond, La., where they will reside.

Mrs. Robert Bowen, of Dallas, Texas, is visiting Mrs. Forrest Adair, Sr., at the Georgian Terrace, and is being entertained at a series of informal social affairs. She will be the guest of Mrs. William V. Roberts at her home on Piedmont avenue after this week.

Miss Gertrude Clapp, of Birmingham, is the guest of Miss Margaret Elizabeth Barnes on Oak street. Miss Clapp is a member of the Delta Zeta sorority of the University of Alabama, and will attend the Alabama-Tech football game on Saturday.

Dr. and Mrs. M. G. Campbell have returned to their home on Ponce de Leon avenue after a recent trip which included Washington, Atlantic City, New York, Niagara Falls and Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Barton, whose wedding was a recent social event, have taken an apartment in the Adelaide on Lee street.

Mr. K. E. Edwards and children

M. Rich & Bros. Company

Misses' School Shoes

Downstairs
Shoe
Dept.

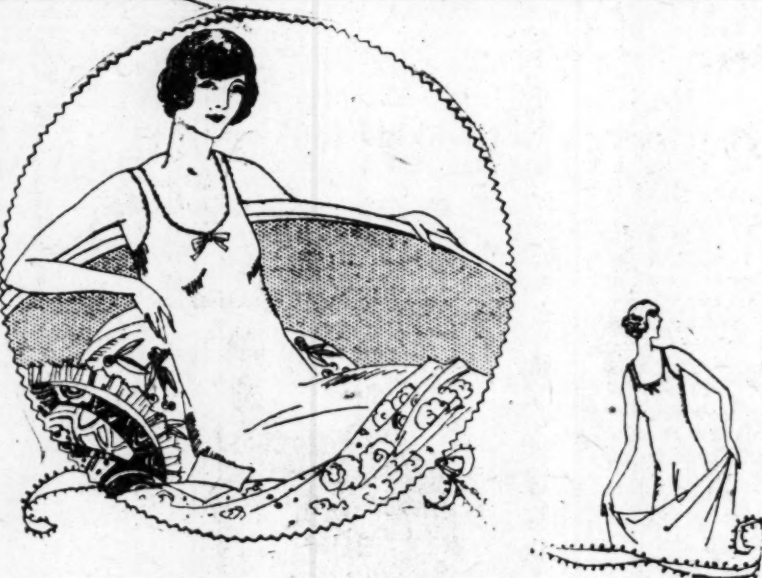

—Brown Calf
—Patent Leather (Dull top)

Sizes
8 1/2 to 11 $2.95
SIZES
11 1/2 to 2 $3.45

Order by Mail

Rich's

M. RICH & BROS. CO.

Rich's—Atlanta Headquarters for

Munsingwear

—Do you know the reason why so many people prefer Munsingwear?—why it always fits so well and keeps its shape so long? It is because each garment is cut by hand and carefully made with wide lap and hip fullness to insure comfort. Before leaving the factory, every article of Munsingwear is washed and shrunk. Remember that Munsingwear is made not only for every member of the family, but in materials to satisfy all: cotton, mercerized cotton, wool and cotton, art silk and wool and all silk.

- Women's cotton vests, $1.25
- Women's wool and art silk vests, $2.50
- Women's sleeveless cotton union suits, $1
- Women's sleeveless cotton suits, extra sizes, $1.25
- Women's medium weight cotton union suits, $2
- Women's medium cotton union suits, extra sizes, $2.25
- Women's part wool union suits, all sizes, $3
- Women's art silk and wool union suits, $4.50
- Children's cotton union suits, 1 to 6 years, $1.25
- Children's cotton union suits, 7 to 12 years, $1.50
- Children's cotton union suits, 13 to 18 years, $1.75
- Children's part wool union suits, 1 to 6 years, $2
- Children's part wool union suits, 7 to 12 years, $2.50
- Children's fleece vests and pants, 1 to 6 years, 75c
- Children's fleece vests and pants, 7 to 12 years, 85c

—Rich's, Main Floor

Christmas Cards

Our Exclusive Collection of Engraved Personal Christmas Cards
Is now ready for inspection.

Place orders now to secure a selection and prompt service. Our cards represent a most exquisite line.

Mail Orders Solicited

Prices reasonable for fine engraving

SOUTHERN BOOK CONCERN

71 Whitehall St.

Engraving of all Kinds

Gavan's

167 Superb Winter Coats

In the Smartest Vogue of Fabric, Fur and Fashion

$79.75

Platinum wolf, natural and viatka squirrel, beaver and fox smartly adorn the deep collars and cuffs. Lustrosa, Ormondale, Valona, Velmara and Luxuria form the ideal background for newer variations of corded panels, silhouette, side-tie, circular and wrappy coat effects.

Notice the exquisite fineness of the fur used. Some coats have smart bands of fur as trimmings. Notice how the gleam of the fabric blends into that of the furs!

Artistic tones of browns, soft greys, deep blues and black are the shades. The tailoring and linings are true Frohsin's quality—rest assured! These are coats we are proud to offer Atlanta women at $79.75.

Frohsin's

Correct Dress for Women

50 WHITEHALL

Mrs. White Compliments Mrs. Robert Hall With Tea

A beautiful social affair of Thursday was the tea given by Mrs. Warren D. White at her home in Inman Park, complimenting her sister, Mrs. Robert E. L. Hall, of Washington, D. C., who is her guest.

The spacious reception rooms were decorated with a profusion of large yellow and white chrysanthemums artistically arranged in vases and baskets placed on the mantels and bookcases.

The daintily appointed tea table was overlaid with a cover of lace and adorned in the center by a silver basket filled with long stemmed pink roses. Silver candlesticks, holding unshaded pink tapers, graced the four corners, while silver trays of pink and white mints were placed at intervals.

Mrs. White was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Charles S. Robinson, Mrs. George Rosenbusch, Mrs. T. J. Ripley, Mrs. John T. Toler, Mrs. Lois Pattillo Neer, Mrs. Chris Rauschenburg and Mrs. J. T. Wikle.

The hostess received her guests wearing a handsome gown of black panne velvet.

Mrs. Hall's attractive costume was black chiffon adorned with handsome rhinestone ornaments.

Innited to meet the guests of honor were Mrs. George W. Conter, Mrs. R. C. Turner, Mrs. Charles Whitner, Mrs. Hugh Smith, Mrs. Martin Dunbar, Mrs. J. T. Wikle, Mrs. Roy Mather, Mrs. M. W. Roberts, Mrs. W. L. Percy, Mrs. William Royer, Mrs. Charles Phillips, Mrs. Stafford Seidel, Mrs. T. T. Stevens, Mrs. Fred Stewart, Mrs. G. Candler, Jr., Mrs. John Hurt, Mrs. William Haines Mills, Mrs. Christian Clarke, Mrs.

Fred White, Mrs. George Bland, Mrs. W. H. McLarin, Mrs. J. H. McCullough, Mrs. John A. Perdue, Mrs. Henry White, Mrs. Walter Scott Coleman, Mrs. John Keefer, Mrs. George Cary.

Mrs. Frank Holland Calls Meeting.

Mrs. Frank D. Holland, Atlanta commissioner of the Girl Scout council, announces an important meeting of the council at the Georgian Terrace Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Vital projects of scout endeavor will be discussed and voted on at this meeting. Mrs. Holland especially requests that every member of the council be present.

Lecture Series Will Be Given.

Professor W. A. Sutton, superintendent of city schools, will lecture Friday evening, November 2, at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of the Inman Park Methodist church, on Edgewood avenue and Hurt street.

This subject will be of specific interest to boys and girls as well as grown-ups. This will be the first of a series of lectures sponsored by the Woman's Missionary society for the benefit of the building fund for the new Sunday school room now under construction. If you have not secured a season ticket for the lyceum course, admission will be accepted at the door, 35 cents for grown folks, 10 cents for children.

Mrs. McCutcheon Will Complement Mrs. Culpepper

Mrs. E. L. Culpepper, of Ancon, Canal Zone, who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Howard McCutcheon, will be the guest of honor at a number of social affairs during her visit.

Mrs. McCutcheon will be hostess this afternoon at the first of a series of informal teas she will give at the Atlanta Woman's club.

Tea will be served in the palm room and the guests invited to meet the attractive honor guest are: Mrs. H. A. Manning, Mrs. Laura O'Rourke, Mrs. J. G. Garwood, Mrs. A. M. Boyd, Mrs. Henry Oatlis, Mrs. George Baker, Mrs. Wilbur Culpepper, Mrs. Howard T. Lewis, Mrs. F. M. Loveless, Mrs. M. D. Curtis, Mrs. T. H. Williams, Mrs. B. M. Clarke, Mrs. R. H. Collins and Mrs. Cleckler.

New Lecture Series At School of Health.

The Free School of Health will meet Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in assembly room No. 2, Atlanta Chamber of Commerce.

At the lecture period the school will present Travis Milton Ramey, character analyst, who will give demonstrations of character reading at sight. On Sunday, November 11 the school will present Mary Lawton Metcalfe, advanced truth student, and forceful speaker. Robert Bryan Harrison, director of the school, will preside and extend a cordial invitation to the public to attend.

DAILY CALENDAR OF WOMEN'S MEETINGS

The regular business meeting of the Bolton P-T. A. will be held in the auditorium of the school today at 2:45 o'clock.

The Shakespeare class will meet at 10:30 o'clock this morning in the assembly hall of Carnegie library.

All members of the Girl Scout council are requested to meet at the Georgian Terrace this morning at 10 o'clock.

The Lue Vaughn Nixon class, Mrs. E. G. Thomas, teacher, will hold a business and social meeting at the First Methodist church this evening. Supper served at 6:30 o'clock.

Piedmont Rebekah lodge, No. 16, I. O. O. F., will conduct a cake sale today at Franklin & Cox Drug company, corner Whitehall and Alabama streets.

The Delta Sigma Phi Mothers' club will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the club house, 50 West North avenue.

The DeKalb County League of Women Voters will hold its regular monthly meeting in the grand jury room at the courthouse this afternoon at 3 o'clock. "Woman and the New Citizenship" will be discussed by some of the thoughtful women of the county.

The Inman Park Students' club will hold its regular meeting this morning.

The regular meeting of Gate City chapter, No. 233, O. E. S., will be held in the chapter rooms of the Forsyth building this evening at 8 o'clock.

Club Luncheon Honors Visitor.

Miss Mary Ann Lipscomb was hostess at a luncheon Thursday at the Piedmont Driving club in compliment to Miss Lera Finley, of Williamsburg, Ky., the guest of Miss Elizabeth Kontz.

Covering the luncheon table was a cloth of Italian cut work and in the center was a silver basket filled with Dresden shaded flowers. Silver candlesticks holding yellow unshaded tapers and silver compots filled with Dresden shaded bonbons were placed at intervals on the table. The guests places were marked by dainty place cards.

J. P. ALLEN & CO.
49-53 ——— Whitehall

The Greatest of All!

Allen's Semi-Annual Millinery Sale

Our Entire Stock of Beautiful Winter Hats

Many of These Hats
Have Just Arrived

1/3 off

A Wonderful Opportunity—Coming So Early in the Season

Every Lovely Hat in Our New French
Salon—

All $ 5.00 Hats	$ 3.34
All $ 7.50 Hats	$ 5.00
All $10.00 Hats	$ 6.67
All $12.50 Hats	$ 8.34
All $15.00 Hats	$10.00
All $18.00 Hats	$12.00
All $20.00 Hats	$13.34
All $22.50 Hats	$15.00
All $25.00 Hats	$16.67
All $27.50 Hats	$18.34
All $30.00 Hats	$20.00
All $35.00 Hats	$23.34
All $40.00 Hats	$26.67

1,500
Hats
of Fashion to Choose From

All Higher-Priced Hats Have Equal Reductions

Nothing Reserved
Children's Hats
Included

J. P. Allen & Co.

Original Tickets Remain—
Deduct One-Third

Past President Tendered Reception By Church Auxiliary

An enjoyable affair of Monday afternoon was the reception given by the Auxiliary of the West End Baptist church in honor of the past president of the auxiliary. The reception was held in the Fidelis class room in then ew Sunday school building, with Mrs. J. M. Maury, president of the auxiliary presiding.

Each president had been asked to tell the auxiliary what she considered the "Highlights" of her administration. Since many changes have taken place within the last 35 years, the life of the auxiliary, these "Highlights" proved most interesting.

Mrs. L. O. Howard, one of the charter members of the West End Baptist church, gave a brief history of the auxiliary, stating that, when the church was organized in 1888, the ladies of the church immediately organized the auxiliary and held their first meeting in September, 1888, with Mrs. H. M. Abbott as president.

From this small beginning, 35 years ago, the auxiliary has grown in strength and numbers, until today it is one of the strongest auxiliaries in the city.

The special guests of the afternoon were Mrs. S. Y. Jameson, wife of the first pastor of the West End Baptist church, and Mrs. Lucile Daniel Clark, a charter member of the church, and also the West End Baptist church's own missionary to Japan, who is home on furloughs for a year.

After the program, refreshments were served, and a social hour enjoyed.

Temple Sisterhood To Have Meeting.

The regular meeting of the Temple Sisterhood will be held Monday afternoon, November 5, at 3 o'clock, in the temple vestry.

DAILY CALENDAR OF SOCIAL EVENTS

Mrs. Jesse Jarnette will give a bridge-tea for Miss Mary Shinholser, a bride-elect.

Teas at the Atlanta Woman's club.

Mrs. Charles F. Robinson will entertain at tea in honor of Mrs. Robert E. Hall.

Mrs. Walter T. Colquitt will entertain informally at her home on Ponce de Leon avenue today in honor of Mrs. George P. Howard, a recent bride, who has recently returned from her wedding journey.

Miss Geraldine White will be hostess at a large Halloween party this evening at her home on Peachtree road.

The regular Friday night bridge party of the Atlanta Business and Professional Woman's club will take place at the club rooms, 91 1-2 North Pryor street, at 8 o'clock. All club members and their friends are urged to be present.

Mrs. Bertram Mader and Mrs. Aaron Haas will entertain at a luncheon today at home on Ponce de Leon avenue in compliment to Miss Louise Gershon, whose marriage on Wednesday evening, November 14, to Irvine Greenspan, of Nashville, Tenn., will be an event of wide interest.

The Battle Hill Parent-Teacher club will give a Halloween party at the school this evening.

The Williams Street P-T. A. will give a Halloween carnival this afternoon from 2:30 to 5 o'clock.

Mrs. O. E. Burton will entertain at a bridge-tea this afternoon at her home in East Lake.

Miss Sue Bucknell will entertain at a bridge supper this evening for her guest, Miss Gwendolyn Graves, of New York.

Miss Katherine Murphy will entertain at a luncheon today at her home on Peachtree street for Miss Gwendolyn Graves, of New York.

Mrs. William W. Roberts and Mrs. Edwin Pearce will give a bridge-luncheon today at the home of Mrs. Roberts on Piedmont road.

Mrs. W. E. Hawkins will entertain at dinner this evening for Mrs. Harry Woolbridge, of Pine Bluff, Ark., the guest of Mrs. Cecil Stroblar.

Ormeadow parent-teachers will give a Halloween supper at 6 o'clock this evening at the school building.

Wilmer Moore, Sr., will entertain at dinner this evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Piedmont Driving club in honor of Dr. Richard Orme Flinn, pastor of the North Avenue Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Inman will give a dinner party this evening for Mrs. Frederick Pratt, of Buffalo, N. Y., the guest of Mrs. John Marshall Slaton.

Mrs. Kendrick Scott will entertain informally at bridge this afternoon at her home on Collier road.

The Berean class of the Capitol Avenue Baptist Sunday school will entertain their wives and friends at a Halloween party in the Berean hall this evening.

Alberto Salvi Will Inaugurate Music Club's Series Intime

Atlanta music lovers will have an unusual musical experience Saturday afternoon when the Atlanta Music club will present Alberto Salvi, virtuoso of the harp, in recital as the first attraction of its series intime at the auditorium of the Atlanta Woman's club.

The harp is used only sparingly as a solo instrument, and until recently no entire program of harp music in the larger concert courses have been given.

But under the wizardry of Salvi, who has achieved previously unheard-of effects on the harp, this beautiful instrument has been advanced to a place where a concert devoted exclusively to harp music can be given not only with marked success but with most astonishing effect.

Owners of phonograph records have already been given the opportunity of hearing Mr. Salvi, for he has been accorded the signal honor of making a number of records with the exclusive list of Victor artists. His appearance in person at the auditorium of the Woman's club, however, will be the first time that he has been heard here.

A program has been announced for the recital which will give the artist ample opportunity to prove his powers as one of the great living musical masters. Some of the numbers were written originally for the harp, and some have been adapted from other mediums by Mr. Salvi, in which he achieves effects that are said to be orchestral in breadth and beauty of tone.

The program includes (1) "Fantasia di Bravura," opus 11, Schuedker; (2) "Am den Fruhlung," Grieg; (3) "Spanish Dance," Tedeschi; (4) "Fantasia Impromptu" Chopin; (5) "Norwegian Ballade" Poonitz; (6) "Intermission," (6) Impromptu, Schuedker; (7) "Danse de Sylphes" Posse; (8) "The Fountain," Debussy; (9) "Feerie: Prelude et Danse," Tournier; (10) "Italian Serenade," Salvi; (11) "The Music Box," Tedeschi; (12) "Tarentelle," Apotommas-Salvi.

Seats in the delightful little auditorium are unreserved, for it is considered that any seat in the house is admirably located for the proper enjoyment of the music. Therefore, there will be no advance sale of seats downtown. Admission to those who do not hold season tickets may be secured by the payment of $2 at the door.

Mrs. O. E. Burton Will Be Hostess.

An interesting event of this afternoon will be the bridge-tea at which Mrs. O. E. Burton will entertain at her home in East Lake, assembling a group of forty friends.

MUSE

PRACTICALLY ALL OF
THE EXQUISITE

Gary

HATS
HALF PRICE

—beautiful—and each one as rare as—a Gary Hat! Endless in vivid variety—velvets—felts—metal cloth and satins—metal-ribbon embroidered; rhinestone embroidered—the dashing high colors—every fashionable effect for street, sport, dance and occasions of note. Half price today and Saturday!

MUSE'S

"The Style Center of the South"

Peachtree :: Walton :: Broad

Women's Shoes Both High and Low Styles Greatly Reduced

The most timely sale of the year . . . and the most important . . . is this November Clearance of Carlton's in which every pair of women's high and low shoes are remarked at prices which represent a wonderful savings.

The styles are new, the leathers and colors are those most wanted for fall and winter and the range embraces practically every size and width. It is a great opportunity!

Women's Low Shoes At $12.50

Hanan Shoes, in a broad range of the season's newest styles and colors that were formerly priced up to $16.00 the pair.

At $9.75

A collection of high-grade women's shoes embracing the most fashionable leathers and models, priced until now at $12.50 and $13.50.

At $7.75

All that range of styles that have been so popular during the present season—shoes that sold right in our own stock up to $11.00 per pair.

At $6.75

Smart styles and distinctive novelties that formerly sold up to $10.00. A broad range of the most desirable models and colors.

At $5.75

Shoes that were formerly priced up to $8.50 per pair. This line embraces many of our most popular numbers and values. Variety of styles.

At $4.75

In this lot are the shoes sold regularly up to $7.50, including the famous Grover Strap Shoes that have a national reputation. Large assortment.

Children's Shoes Greatly Reduced

Women's High Shoes 1/2 Price

MAIL ORDERS will be filled to the very best of our ability. One should not expect, however, in a crush like this to obtain the usual service. We will carefully fill orders with the style nearest we have to the size given. Selections can not be sent on approval.

Carlton's
36 Whitehall Street

Mr. Hunter and Miss Heintz Speak at P.-T.A. President's Club

H. Ried Hunter, assistant superintendent of Atlanta high schools, and Miss Florence Heintz, of New York, national officer of Camp Fire Girls' association, were the principal speakers at the Parent-Teacher Association club luncheon given at the Anley hotel Thursday at 12 o'clock. Mrs. Howard C. McCutcheon, president of the club, presided at the luncheon.

Mr. Hunter gave the progress of the junior high schools of Atlanta, and touched on the introduction of the junior high school system and its place on the Atlanta program, preparation for the introduction of junior high schools, course of study prepared, selection of special teachers and textbooks, preparation of teachers and visits of principals and teachers to the junior high schools. He also discussed the subject of organization of the club, and introduced household arts, manual arts, junior business practice and typewriting as new subjects. He told of pre-vocational provisions, departmental teaching, athletic programs and physical training, and stressed supervision of study. Mr. Hunter urged the continued support of Parent-Teacher organizations in school work, and stated that he placed an invaluable estimate on the work of these women.

Miss Heintz is conducting classes at the new camp fire headquarters in the Jackson house of the Girls' High school on Capitol square. She told of the outdoor work and camping demonstration to be conducted Saturday at Piedmont Park at the spring

Women's Council Urges Entrance Into World Court

Decatur, Ill., November 1.—(By the Associated Press.)—A resolution urging entrance of the United States into the permanent court of international justice and the continued cooperation of the United States in world affairs was endorsed by the National Council of Women this morning in their convention here.

Enforcement of the eighteenth amendment was heartily endorsed and public officials enforcing the amendment were pledged the support of the council in a resolution which declared that "respect for and obedience to the laws of this republic are essential to its perpetuity."

The resolution urged greater insistence in the home and in the school on reverence for law.

Sumter County To Have Demonstration

Americus, Ga., November 1.—Next Saturday there will be a meeting of representatives of the Home Demonstration club of Sumter county in the offices of the chamber of commerce here. Miss Bonnie Parkman, home economics agent, will preside during the meeting, which has been arranged to perfect plans for equipping a county demonstration kitchen in the office of the economics agent. Clubs which will send representatives are those at Thelma, Pleasant Grove, Mrs. A. B. D. McNeil, president; Concord, Mrs. S. E. DeLoach, president; and Shiloh, Mrs. W. H. Emmet, president. This work is now well organized in Sumter county with every consolidated school having its demonstration club and under the direction of Miss Parkman splendid results are being attained.

Modern Topics Club Outlines Yearly Program of Interest

The Modern Topics club was organized October 17, 1914, and is composed of one of the most interesting groups of women in Atlanta. The colors are purple and gold, and the violet is the favorite flower.

The officers include Mrs. Ben S. Padgett, president; Mrs. Thomas D. Body, first vice president; Mrs. Hugh Howell, second vice president; Mrs. T. P. Abernethy, recording secretary; Mrs. Fred W. Hadley, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Hardy Padgett, treasurer; Mrs. L. B. Sanders, custodian, and Mrs. J. S. McLemore, press chairman.

Year book committee is composed of Mrs. L. T. Pattillo, Mrs. Fred W. Hadley, Mrs. J. S. McLemore and Mrs. W. P. Anderson.

The membership list includes Mrs. T. P. Abernethy, Mrs. W. P. Anderson, Mrs. T. D. Body, Mrs. J. E. Branch, Mrs. Hugh S. Carmichael, Mrs. Walter G. Cooper, Mrs. Homer Dawson, Mrs. R. N. Fickett, Jr., Mrs. Fred W. Hadley, Mrs. Hugh Howell, Mrs. Thompson H. Jones, Mrs. J. S. McLemore, Mrs. W. D. Marshall, Mrs. Ben S. Padgett, Mrs. Hardy Padgett, Mrs. L. T. Pattillo, Mrs. L. E. Sanders and Mrs. E. A. Stephens.

The full program for the year has been outlined, and the following meetings will be held, with many interesting papers read. On November 7, the subject will be "Nancy Hart," read by Mrs. Padgett, and the hostess will be Mrs. Hadley.

November 21, "Current Events," by Mrs. L. E. Sanders, Mrs. Cooper, December 5, "The People's First Governor—Archibald Bullock," Mrs. Branch, hostess, Mrs. Pen Padgett, December 19, "Georgia's Inventors," William Longstreet and Eli Whitney," Mrs. Jones, hostess, Mrs. Abernethy.

January 2, "Indian Leaders," Mcintosh and Traup, Mrs. Howell, hostess, Mrs. Jones.

January 16, "Civil War Period," Alexander Stephens, Mrs. McLemore, hostess, Mrs. Hardy Padgett.

February 6, "Howell Cobb and John B. Gordon," Mrs. Fickett, hostess, Mrs. Padgett.

February 20, "The War Governor, Joseph E. Brown," Mrs. Body, hostess, Mrs. Howell.

March 5, "Current Events," Mrs. Cooper, hostess, Mrs. Fickett.

March 19, "Toombs and Hill," Mrs. Hardy Padgett, hostess, Mrs. Marshall.

April 2, "Henry W. Grady," Mrs. Marshall, hostess, Mrs. Anderson.

April 16, "Sam Jones," Mrs. Sanders, hostess, Mrs. Body.

May 7, "Mrs. Felton," Mrs. Anderson, hostess, Mrs. Carmichael.

May 21, "Mary Harris ARMOR," Mrs. Carmichael, hostess, Mrs. McLemore.

June 4, "Chancellor Barrow," Mrs. Abernethy, hostess, Mrs. Sanders.

Musicians' Club Will Give Dance.

A delightful evening dancing is anticipated by the many members and friends of the Musicians' club when they assemble Saturday evening at the Roseland hall, 217 1-2 Peachtree street.

A special program of the latest dance hits will be rendered by the popular Footwarmers' orchestra of eight pieces. Former visitors invited.

Business Women Will Meet Sunday.

The Business Women's League, Second Baptist church will meet Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, in the main Sunday school room.

Circle B, Miss Mamie K. Baker, chairman, will have charge of the program. Miss Laura Lee Patrick, state secretary of the Woman's Missionary union, will make an address on "Personality, Consecrated."

Alliance Francaise Holds Initial Meeting On Thursday

The Alliance Francaise held its initial fall meeting Thursday afternoon in Edison hall.

The most important feature of the business part of the meeting was the appointing of the nominating committee which includes Miss Mattie Slaton, Mrs. E. M. Horline and Mrs. Marvin Underwood.

The next meeting of the alliance will take place Thursday afternoon, November 8, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Loridans on East Fifteenth street.

The Alliance Francaise is composed of a group of French speaking people residing in Atlanta, and numbers among its membership some of Atlanta's most prominent and constructive citizens. The purpose and ideals of the Alliance Francaise is to promote the French language which is becoming to be almost universally spoken. It is one of the most cultural organizations in the city, and a cordial invitation is extended to any one interested or speaking the French language to become a member.

Charles Loridans, president of the alliance has recently returned from a four months' European tour and brought with him a number of delightful French plays which will be produced by talented members of the alliance during the winter.

The nominating committee will report at the next meeting when election of officers will take place.

O. B. X. Members Are Entertained.

The members of the O. B. X. Sorority of Washington Seminary were delightfully entertained at a tea at which Miss Catherine Candler was hostess Thursday at her home on Briarcliff road.

Beautiful fall flowers from the gardens of the hostess were used in the decoration of the reception rooms. Plans were outlined for the dance on December 7, which the society will give.

Present on this occasion were Miss Pauline Gray, Miss Marion Couch, Miss Virginia Torrance, Misses Mary Rhorer, Mary Rennie, Ruth Dabney Smith, Jane Small, Virginia Torrance, Kate Thompson, Beattie White, Myra Boynton, Estelle Boynton, Mary Ballenger, Jeannette Bailey, Lillian Cain, Mary Crenshaw, Frankie Cannon, Muriel Downer, Florence Eckford, Pauline Gray, Mary Jerigan, Mary Moseley, Martha Maddox, Lillian McFarlin, Gladys Neal and Elizabeth Palmour.

LEATHER CASES FOR BRIDGE CARDS

A VARIETY OF COLORS IDEAL FOR GIFTS J. P. Stevens Engraving Co. 103 Peachtree Street Atlanta, Georgia.

Beauty Contented You are always content that your beauty has been developed to its highest possibilities after using Gouard's Oriental Cream. White Flesh-Rachel.

Sand 10c for Trial Size P. T. HOPKINS & SON New York

Gouard's Oriental Cream

Blunders

West End Members To Inspect Home.

The members of the West End Women's club are requested to inspect the Murphy home, 136 Gordon street, Friday, November 2, between the hours of 10 and 5 o'clock.

A special meeting of the club has been called for Thursday, November 7, at 2:30 o'clock, to discuss the advisability of purchasing this property for a clubhouse.

This is the only proposition submitted by the building committee which is under consideration, and must be accepted or rejected at the meeting next week. The building committee is a standing committee. Mrs. Fred Stewart chairman. Only propositions in writing have been considered by her committee, and this same rule will continue to apply in case it is necessary to consider other offers.

Acceptances to Tea Are Urged.

Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Pierce have invited through the press all former Brenau students in Atlanta to a seated tea to be given Monday afternoon, November 5, at the Atlanta Woman's club.

Acceptances must be received by Mrs. O. E. Elder, 1145 Peachtree street, by Friday.

What carelessness is shown here? The answer will be found among today's want ads.

Halloween Parties Are Given In Marietta

Marietta, Ga., November 1.—The thirty-first of October is always looked forward to by his host of friends as Colonel Starr's birthday, because for two-score years the Starrs have given a beautiful party to celebrate the event. On Wednesday, Colonel and Mrs. Starr entertained with a delightful bridge luncheon in celebrating his 87th birthday.

Their guests were Mrs. Martin Amour, Mrs. Hunter Morrisette, Mrs. J. M. Graham, Mrs. George Kay Sullivan, Mrs. H. E. Hagne, Mrs. E. R. Hunt, Mrs. W. A. DuPre, Mrs. L. N. Trammell, Mrs. R. L. Northcutt, Mrs. Pierce Campbell, Mrs. Fannie Trezevant, Mrs. Howell Trezevant, Mrs. C. M. Crosby, Mrs. George H. Kewler, Mrs. S. H. Shibley, Mrs. W. B. Tate, Mrs. John Boston, Mrs. A. Armstrong, Mrs. D. C. Cole, Misses Addie and Mollie Setze, Julia and Mary Howell and Sadie Sibley, Mrs. M. L. McNeil, Mrs. Herbert Brown, Mrs. Charlie DuPre and Mrs. L. D. Hoppe, of Atlanta. The house was filled with quantities of hand some chrysanthemums, the gifts of loving friends; while two delicious birthday cakes, bridge sets, books, letters and telegrams were among the many remembrances received by Colonel Starr during the day.

Miss Lillie and Richard Wellons gave a merry Halloween party on Wednesday evening. Halloween decorations were used throughout the rooms, with black cats, bats, hobgoblins and witches on every hand. Halloween tricks and pranks were played and appropriate games and contests were enjoyed. Their guests were Misses Rosamond Field, Emily Groves, Bunnie Joe Abbott, Alice Randolph, Jan Northcutt, Dudley Merton, Sykes and Emma Reeves Hewitt, Matilda Trezevant, Marie Massey Brumby, Yma Dorn Hancock, Jennie Tate, Frances Hardeman, Mary and Helen Lawrence, and William Lovejoy and Frank Dabney Spring Hill, Dick Mims, Ralph Hunt, Peyton Randolph, Bill Tate, Tom Perkinson, Tom and Dick Brumby, Sanford Field and Howell Trezevant, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Connor announce the arrival of a daughter who will bear the name of Nannie Katharine.

C. K. Lulis, of New York, was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. P. L. Knott this week.

Mrs. George Orr, of Acworth, visited Mrs. Horace Hamby this week. One of the gayest Halloween parties of the season was the one given by Mrs. Yma Dorn Hancock. The garage was converted into a regular Halloween fairyland, lighted by rows of grinning punkin and Jack-o'-lanterns and decorated with all the typical signs and symbols. Those present were Misses Jane Northcutt, Wynne Collins, Frances Hardeman, Emogene Gilbert, Marie Massey Brumby, Jennie Tate, Pollie Wellons, and Yma Dorn Hancock, and Tom Perkinson, William Hagood, Newt Malone, Sanders, Joe Tate, Palmer Reynolds, W. M. Murray, Jr., Tom Brumby and Richard Wellons.

Mrs. Dora Simmons, whose marriage will take place shortly, was given a very pleasant party in the form of a linen shower on Wednesday evening by the Sunday school class. Little Lewie Sessions was the postman who brought in the "mail sack" full of pretty gifts. Those forming the Sunday school class are Misses Anne Bolling Claiborne, Isabel Hunt-Virginia and Elizabeth Goodman, Sue Nichols, Carolyn Sylvester, Velma Snelling and Kate Robinson, and they were assisted in entertaining the 20 guests present by Mrs. Alston Goodman and Mrs. Robert Goodman.

Mrs. W. M. Murray entertained informally on Wednesday afternoon for Mrs. James Skelton, of Rome.

Mrs. Harry Miller, who has been the guest of Mrs. J. C. Milam, is now visiting in Atlanta before returning to her home in Tampa, Fla.

Mrs. James Skelton, of Rome, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Turner Colie.

West End Members To Inspect Home.

The members of the West End Women's club are requested to inspect the Murphy home, 136 Gordon street, Friday, November 2, between the hours of 10 and 5 o'clock.

A special meeting of the club has been called for Thursday, November 7, at 2:30 o'clock, to discuss the advisability of purchasing this property for a clubhouse.

This is the only proposition submitted by the building committee which is under consideration, and must be accepted or rejected at the meeting next week. The building committee is a standing committee. Mrs. Fred Stewart chairman. Only propositions in writing have been considered by her committee, and this same rule will continue to apply in case it is necessary to consider other offers.

Acceptances to Tea Are Urged.

Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Pierce have invited through the press all former Brenau students in Atlanta to a seated tea to be given Monday afternoon, November 5, at the Atlanta Woman's club.

Acceptances must be received by Mrs. O. E. Elder, 1145 Peachtree street, by Friday.

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Company

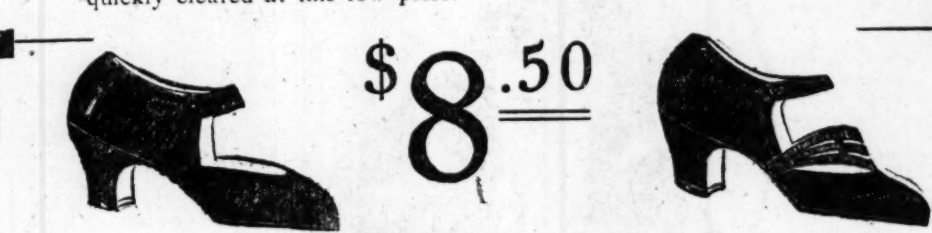

THE three styles illustrated here represent three of the newest and most popular styles received this Fall.

Over 300 pairs priced at $8.50 pair.

All sizes in widths A, B, C.

A special window display of these new styles, in vestibule window on right of entrance.

An early selection of these unusual values is advisable, as they will be quickly cleared at this low price.

—Black Suede, one-strap cut-out, a very popular, good fitting style, light sole, medium Cuban Louis heel. A value $8.50 exceptional, at.....

A. E. Little Shoes Nationally known as the most corrective shoe manufactured For Women —Patent Leather and Black Suede, Brown Suede and Brown Kid-skin. This new 3-strap, low-heel style in these two combinations. A smart, good fit—$8.50 tting, low-heel slipper.....

Sorosis Shoes A large and diversified stock of these famous shoes awaits your selection. For Women and Children

B & M FISH FLAKES

With the Fresh "Tang" of the Cold, Deep Sea

With B & M Fish Flakes, you may enjoy in your own home the delight of eating those famously delicious fish dishes of Old New England. These choicest bits of fish are boned, cooked, seasoned and packed in parchment lined, hermetically sealed containers, all within a few hours after the catch. It's the freshness and purity of these firm, juicy flakes of white meat that give dishes prepared with B & M Fish Flakes that incomparable "Down East" flavor. At your Grocer's.

Down East Recipes—FREE

The best of New England's recipes for wonderful fish dishes are in our booklet of Down East Recipes. We want you to have a copy telling how to prepare these delicious dishes, easily, quickly, and at small cost. Please write us for it.

BURNHAM & MORRILL COMPANY Portland, Maine

B & M CODFISH CAKES READY-TO-FRY

For the good old substantial New England Breakfast, just try B & M Codfish Cakes—ready-to-try. Shredded fish blended with mealy Aroostook potatoes. At your Grocer's.

Also Packers of

B & M Paris Sugar Corn

B & M Lima Beans

B & M Clams & Clam Bouillon

B & M Codfish Cakes

B & M Deep Sea Lobster

B & M Paris Succotash

B & M Clam Chowder

At your Grocer's

THE SOUTHERN ROUTE TO PARIS—THE MUSE FIFTH FLOOR

Today at Muse's—

Just in from Fifth Ave.—Every new turn of the mode—The straight line of Fashion in its entirety!

Coats—

—numberless and magnificent!

—the new-to-the-season-effects!

—gorgeously fur trimmed and finely tailored—the Parisian lines.

$59.50 $79.50

—the dashing silhouettes that Paris and Fifth Avenue will wear this winter! Of adorned Lustrosa, Ormandale, Fashiona, Roi de Laine. Trimmed—beaver, natural squirrel, viatka squirrel, black fox, taupe fox, platinum wolf.

—the new, soft, elegant fabrics—the slenderizing wrappy and audacious modes of the moment!—Velverette, Fashiona, Fanchon, Arabella—luxuriously trimmed in viatka squirrel, natural squirrel, deep beaver, platinum wolf, fox.

$119.50 $149.50

—a galaxy of luxury! and the most noteworthy values of the times—soft, velvety Marvelas, Geronas, Fashionas, Orionas—lavishly adorned with lustrous furs—collars and cuffs of black fox, viatka squirrel, natural squirrel, beaver, lynx, fox.

—fashion's finest is foregathered here!—these gorgeous coats—of supple Geronas, Orionas, Marvelas—elaborately furled collars and cuffs and often the hems—beaver, squirrel, fox, lynx are the furs.

NEW YORK WAS "RIGHT" WHEN THESE MARVELOUS COATS WERE SPECIALLY PURCHASED LAST SATURDAY—FROM $10 TO $50 WAS SAVED ON THE PURCHASE OF EACH ONE—AND TODAY THAT SAVING IS YOURS! COME EARLY FOR THE COAT OF COATS! AND THE BUY OF THE YEAR!

MUSE'S

"The Style Center of the South"

Peachtree :: Walton :: Broad

STARVED HEARTS

BY MILDRED BARBOUR

CHAPTER XXIX.

A Trump Card.

Madelon gave a little cry of joy when she recognized Barbara in the crowded hall.

"Oh, I'm so glad you're here! I was afraid Uncle Stephen would take you away before I could devise a way of seeing you again."

Barbara put aside her enveloping wrap with an unsteady hand. Her pale face was as white as the handkerchief she held to her eyes.

"I couldn't go without saying goodbye. We're leaving in the morning. Stephen is seeing to the reservations now, else I'd never have dared to come."

"Oh, Madelon, I'm such a coward!"

Madelon took her arm and drew her into the sitting room.

"We're all cowards with Uncle Stephen. He's a regular Borgin. Has he been hateful to you because of it?"

Barbara shook her head.

"Not more than usual."

She turned to Barbara, who had stood silently after his first greeting. "Madelon has told you what happened?"

He bowed assent.

"In time he may come to look at things differently," she said softly. "Sometimes he changes. Not often, it is true, but it is worth hoping for, at least, isn't it?"

"I should fancy it at it might be," he agreed. "Mr. Lane is reputed to be very wealthy, indeed."

"I wasn't thinking of the money," Barbara said. "I was thinking of the fact that Madelon must feel terribly alone to be cut off from her family like this. Of course, she has you."

She laid her hand on his arm appealingly. "Oh, please be good to her," she pleaded.

"It shall be my first consideration," he promised her.

Relieved, Barbara turned to Madelon and put her arms around her.

"Good-bye, dear child. I shall miss you grievously. I will pray for your happiness."

Madelon clung to her a moment and a little sob which she could not control closed her throat.

Very gently, Barbara loosened her arms and gave Madelon over into Chandler's keeping. Above the girl's drooping head, her eyes explored him.

Then, slipping into the folds of her wrap, she murmured a low "good-bye," and hurried away.

Madelon clung to the door, her breath coming in tiny gasps as she sought to force back the tears. He held her tenderly, his lips against her hair, but there was a pre-occupied look in his eyes.

Barbara, hurrying through the corridor to her own room, hoped desperately that Lane had not returned.

She would never be able to account for her behavior. He would guess where she had been.

With a little gasp of relief, she noted that the sitting room was still in darkness as she had left it. She stepped in, closed the door and snapped on the light.

Lane was sitting in a chair by the window. The eyes he turned to her were stony, expressionless.

Her hand flew to her pounding heart. For a long moment he eyed her.

"Is this the way you obey me?"

"—it—it was stifling in here. I went out for a breath of air," she stammered.

"You lie," he said deliberately. "I know where you have been. Did you think you could fool me so easily? Have the years of your association with me taught you to lie?"

"Heaven, I am almost glad that I have no child! Your stupidity would be an unwelcome heritage."

"I wonder if you think you put much over on me, Barbara?" she answered quietly.

"No?" he leaned toward her, his eyes suddenly became hard and bitter. "And how about that affair with young Farley?"

She went white to the lips, but her eyes met his unflinchingly.

"There was no affair with Duane Farley."

"You don't have to tell me that," he said suddenly. "You don't think I would be here—or you would be going back with me—if I believed that there had been, do you?"

She made no answer and he repeated:

"Do you?"

"I suppose not," she answered dull, and then: "How did you—what made you think that my acquaintance with Duane Farley could have been termed an 'affair'?"

"That is beside the question. Sufficient to say that I have heard a few things from chance gossip. Little escapes the old man, eh, Barbara? Furthermore, he was watching her closely. When I saw Farley in the lobby downstairs just now, I began to put two and two together."

Her gasp of amazement was genuine. "In the lobby downstairs? Impossible!"

"He nodded satisfactorily."

"Now," he shot at her suddenly, "where were you? Visiting Madelon—or keeping a rendezvous with Farley?"

(Copyright, 1923, for The Constitution.)

Good Taste in Interior Decoration

A Series of Thrice-Weekly Articles by Julia Hoyt (Mrs. Lydia Hoyt) on the Subjects of Interior Decoration, Feminine Dress, Entertaining, Amateur Theatricals and Other Topics.

NO. 6—RUGS, CARPETS AND PAINTED FLOORS. Written by Julia Hoyt (Mrs. Lydia Hoyt).

When it comes to the question of rugs, I must immediately confess that I can speak with authority only on the "hooked rug," or technically, the "Oriental rug." I can appreciate a beautiful Oriental rug when I see one and naturally have my preferences with regard to color, design and so forth, but I could never pass an opinion on their value. Needless to say, the colors in a really good old rug are softer and more beautiful than the modern, but these lovely antiques are beyond the means of the average person—that is, if they are of any size.

The colors in most of the modern Oriental or copy of the Oriental rug are rather apt to be crude and not very pleasing, and therefore, I think should be avoided. Isn't it curious what wonders eye seems to accomplish with the colors of a rug? No matter how many shades there may be in an old rug, they seem always to blend and be harmonious with any color one may wish to use. But all this is quite different when dealing with a modern rug of Oriental design, and you find yourself limited as to choice of colors that will go with it.

Rugs and Carpets.

However, as I said in my previous article, if a multi-colored rug is to be used, it is best to keep pretty closely to plain materials when providing materials for upholstery and curtains.

Hooked rugs are really very lovely, but unfortunately come in large enough to serve as the sole rug for a room of any size. Besides, the large ones are really expensive. They are not a formal rug, of course, and which they may be used in an English room as fire rugs, they are most charming in what we might term an "American environment."

Three or four hooked rugs on a printed or polished floor are not only very delightful, but perfectly adequate floor covering if well placed. Everything that savors of that period known as early American has a certain enormous value lately, so that not only have prices risen beyond all reason, but imitations are being turned out by the hundreds. Therefore, care must be taken in their selection. The earliest examples, and hence the most valuable, were usually of a square, oblong, or diamond-shaped pattern. Then came flowered designs, and the latest pictures of all the animals; some even have inviting legends like "Welcome to Our Home."

Rules for Floors.

Plain colored rugs or carpets are always a safe and satisfactory choice for the living room and bedrooms, and are especially advisable for use in a small room, or a room in which a crowded appearance has been given by a great deal of furniture. Painted floors (and by this I refer not to the usual wood-colors, but to the more bizarre shades) have great charm in the right environment—that is, the country house or the informal sort of town residence.

Whatever the circumstances, there is one rule for painted floors which should never be forgotten. That is, the floor must be in good condition. If the floor is in poor condition, the paint will not last long, and the steps leading upstairs were painted a brilliant salmon pink, I had on me. I couldn't appreciate anything in the rooms, for the floor, a nightmare, were constantly running up at me.

Linoleum can be used with great success not only in the pantry and bathroom. There are some wonderful linoleum being made now which give the effect of lovely tiles. Even if expensive for "colored," they are really very cheap when one compares them to the cost of actual tiles, and in effect they are most interesting. Do not mention their questionable durability.

(On Monday: "Walls That Belong to the Picture.")

(Copyright, 1923, in United States and Canada by North American Newspaper Alliance. All Rights Reserved.)

Bachelors in Vienna have been permitted to marry or give up their apartments, the supreme court upholding the law dealing with the acute housing shortage.

Approximately 33,000,000 feet of lumber was exported from British Columbia during August. There was plenty of business during September, and October is also looking well.

After a short trip to the hospital where she made a selection of goods to be shipped here for sale. "The work is a part of their building-up process," she explained, "and it means more than one can imagine, unless one has been there and talked with the men, for them to be occupied and their minds interested. There are no regular hours; they work only as long as they feel like it, which, if they are enthusiastic over some piece of work they are doing, may mean many hours a day."

She told of her own sold a wooden scarf for one of the boys who received a check for it at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and as it was the first article he had sold was to great satisfaction and pleasure, that he immediately started work on another.

These are four instructors engaged to teach the men, and their work is carefully supervised, so that the finished product is perfectly done. "The men are very happy," declared Mrs. Hall, "and interest in the work has grown to such an extent that it is planned soon to enlarge the plant to accommodate 600 workers. They have a particularly fine loom, and their woven goods are a light blue, as well as their basketry and toys."

Mrs. Hall expects a shipment of the goods at an early date, which will be on sale at the Women's club.

Mountain Women Helped.

But the ex-soldiers are not the only ones who have been made happy by Mrs. Hall's efforts. Throughout the mountains of Georgia are hundreds of women who can testify that but for her they would not have had even the meager comfort that has been theirs of recent months. For through the ex-change department she is disposing of their handwork; also bedspreads, pillow cases, baby yokes and caps and other articles, which the mountain women are sending to her, and the sums she is receiving for these are buying food and clothing and keeping stark want from many a mountain cabin.

Many of these women, whose energies to make some article that would bring in a few dollars resulted in such crudeness that, but for Mrs. Hall's interest, they would have gone unwarded. By such correspondence and careful explanation, she taught them what would sell best, the material to use and the stitches to take.

She is constantly receiving beautiful tufted bedspreads, hem-stitched pillow cases and other dainty articles that find a ready sale.

Their gratitude is the only compensation she receives for the time she freely gives. Sometimes there are as many as forty letters a week to be written, in addition to the hours she spends at the club when the women are gathered at the meetings. When I talked to her she had just disposed of a spread for a mountain mother who needed the money to buy a baby for a new baby, and when she told me how thankful she was to be able to send the women the check, I realized that in the joy of helping others, she is herself receiving a great blessing.

Beauty Chats

BY EDNA KENT FORBES

FOOT TREATMENTS.

A great deal more attention is paid to the face than to the feet, which may be quite proper since the face shows most. But there is nothing so disastrous to good looks as thoroughly uncomfortable feet. Here, then, are some suggestions for keeping the feet happy.

Make up the following inexpensive powder and keep it for those occasions when the feet are swollen from fatigue: Powdered alum one ounce, salt two ounces, borax two ounces. Dissolve a heaping tablespoonful of this in a hot foot bath and soak the feet 15 minutes. Put on stockings and heel-less slippers and lie down if you can.

Rubbing the soles of the feet with a slice of lemon will make them feel fresh after fatigue. This is an excellent "temporary cure" for tired feet to be used when there is no time for a hot bath or a long rest.

A temporary cure for a corn is effected by soaking the feet in hot soapy water for 15 minutes, drying them at once, shaving off the callous skin on top of the corn. This will come off easily if you use a sharp corn knife, for it is softened by soaking in the water. If the corn has been very sore touch the place with a few drops of collodion so that the shoes can't rub.

If you are so unfortunate as to possess a bunion a flax seed poultice or a slippery elm poultice will bring relief when it aches. If you have a bunion you should change the style of your shoes. Have treatments from a good chiropodist. Now and then the feet should be rubbed with oil, especially if they tend to perspire. Hot olive oil is good, so is cold cream. White cotton stockings should be used after the oil, for the feet are bound to throw off some of the oil, and a thick cotton stocking is the best way to absorb it.

M. A. E.:—You can have the moles removed by a dermatologist, but a few small ones, especially on the arms will never be disfiguring.

Harry B.:—At 20 years of age you can hardly have lines that will be permanent. You are likely a bit run down, possibly underweight, so stretch your facial muscles and cause these folds in the skin. Take extra nourishment: a quart of milk each day, and part of their building-up process," she explained, "and it means more than one can imagine, unless one has been there and talked with the men, for them to be occupied and their minds interested. There are no regular hours; they work only as long as they feel like it, which, if they are enthusiastic over some piece of work they are doing, may mean many hours a day."

She told of her own sold a wooden scarf for one of the boys who received a check for it at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and as it was the first article he had sold was to great satisfaction and pleasure, that he immediately started work on another.

These are four instructors engaged to teach the men, and their work is carefully supervised, so that the finished product is perfectly done. "The men are very happy," declared Mrs. Hall, "and interest in the work has grown to such an extent that it is planned soon to enlarge the plant to accommodate 600 workers. They have a particularly fine loom, and their woven goods are a light blue, as well as their basketry and toys."

Mrs. Hall expects a shipment of the goods at an early date, which will be on sale at the Women's club.

Mountain Women Helped.

But the ex-soldiers are not the only ones who have been made happy by Mrs. Hall's efforts. Throughout the mountains of Georgia are hundreds of women who can testify that but for her they would not have had even the meager comfort that has been theirs of recent months. For through the ex-change department she is disposing of their handwork; also bedspreads, pillow cases, baby yokes and caps and other articles, which the mountain women are sending to her, and the sums she is receiving for these are buying food and clothing and keeping stark want from many a mountain cabin.

Many of these women, whose energies to make some article that would bring in a few dollars resulted in such crudeness that, but for Mrs. Hall's interest, they would have gone unwarded. By such correspondence and careful explanation, she taught them what would sell best, the material to use and the stitches to take.

She is constantly receiving beautiful tufted bedspreads, hem-stitched pillow cases and other dainty articles that find a ready sale.

Their gratitude is the only compensation she receives for the time she freely gives. Sometimes there are as many as forty letters a week to be written, in addition to the hours she spends at the club when the women are gathered at the meetings. When I talked to her she had just disposed of a spread for a mountain mother who needed the money to buy a baby for a new baby, and when she told me how thankful she was to be able to send the women the check, I realized that in the joy of helping others, she is herself receiving a great blessing.

The government furnishes the material for the first article, whatever it is—basket, rug or toy, but this must be disposed of in order to buy further work.

Mrs. Hall has recently returned from a visit to the hospital where she made a selection of goods to be shipped here for sale. "The work is a part of their building-up process," she explained, "and it means more than one can imagine, unless one has been there and talked with the men, for them to be occupied and their minds interested. There are no regular hours; they work only as long as they feel like it, which, if they are enthusiastic over some piece of work they are doing, may mean many hours a day."

She told of her own sold a wooden scarf for one of the boys who received a check for it at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and as it was the first article he had sold was to great satisfaction and pleasure, that he immediately started work on another.

These are four instructors engaged to teach the men, and their work is carefully supervised, so that the finished product is perfectly done. "The men are very happy," declared Mrs. Hall, "and interest in the work has grown to such an extent that it is planned soon to enlarge the plant to accommodate 600 workers. They have a particularly fine loom, and their woven goods are a light blue, as well as their basketry and toys."

Mrs. Hall expects a shipment of the goods at an early date, which will be on sale at the Women's club.

Mountain Women Helped.

But the ex-soldiers are not the only ones who have been made happy by Mrs. Hall's efforts. Throughout the mountains of Georgia are hundreds of women who can testify that but for her they would not have had even the meager comfort that has been theirs of recent months. For through the ex-change department she is disposing of their handwork; also bedspreads, pillow cases, baby yokes and caps and other articles, which the mountain women are sending to her, and the sums she is receiving for these are buying food and clothing and keeping stark want from many a mountain cabin.

Many of these women, whose energies to make some article that would bring in a few dollars resulted in such crudeness that, but for Mrs. Hall's interest, they would have gone unwarded. By such correspondence and careful explanation, she taught them what would sell best, the material to use and the stitches to take.

She is constantly receiving beautiful tufted bedspreads, hem-stitched pillow cases and other dainty articles that find a ready sale.

Their gratitude is the only compensation she receives for the time she freely gives. Sometimes there are as many as forty letters a week to be written, in addition to the hours she spends at the club when the women are gathered at the meetings. When I talked to her she had just disposed of a spread for a mountain mother who needed the money to buy a baby for a new baby, and when she told me how thankful she was to be able to send the women the check, I realized that in the joy of helping others, she is herself receiving a great blessing.

The government furnishes the material for the first article, whatever it is—basket, rug or toy, but this must be disposed of in order to buy further work.

Mrs. Hall has recently returned from a visit to the hospital where she made a selection of goods to be shipped here for sale. "The work is a part of their building-up process," she explained, "and it means more than one can imagine, unless one has been there and talked with the men, for them to be occupied and their minds interested. There are no regular hours; they work only as long as they feel like it, which, if they are enthusiastic over some piece of work they are doing, may mean many hours a day."

She told of her own sold a wooden scarf for one of the boys who received a check for it at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and as it was the first article he had sold was to great satisfaction and pleasure, that he immediately started work on another.

These are four instructors engaged to teach the men, and their work is carefully supervised, so that the finished product is perfectly done. "The men are very happy," declared Mrs. Hall, "and interest in the work has grown to such an extent that it is planned soon to enlarge the plant to accommodate 600 workers. They have a particularly fine loom, and their woven goods are a light blue, as well as their basketry and toys."

Mrs. Hall expects a shipment of the goods at an early date, which will be on sale at the Women's club.

Mountain Women Helped.

But the ex-soldiers are not the only ones who have been made happy by Mrs. Hall's efforts. Throughout the mountains of Georgia are hundreds of women who can testify that but for her they would not have had even the meager comfort that has been theirs of recent months. For through the ex-change department she is disposing of their handwork; also bedspreads, pillow cases, baby yokes and caps and other articles, which the mountain women are sending to her, and the sums she is receiving for these are buying food and clothing and keeping stark want from many a mountain cabin.

Many of these women, whose energies to make some article that would bring in a few dollars resulted in such crudeness that, but for Mrs. Hall's interest, they would have gone unwarded. By such correspondence and careful explanation, she taught them what would sell best, the material to use and the stitches to take.

She is constantly receiving beautiful tufted bedspreads, hem-stitched pillow cases and other dainty articles that find a ready sale.

Their gratitude is the only compensation she receives for the time she freely gives. Sometimes there are as many as forty letters a week to be written, in addition to the hours she spends at the club when the women are gathered at the meetings. When I talked to her she had just disposed of a spread for a mountain mother who needed the money to buy a baby for a new baby, and when she told me how thankful she was to be able to send the women the check, I realized that in the joy of helping others, she is herself receiving a great blessing.

The government furnishes the material for the first article, whatever it is—basket, rug or toy, but this must be disposed of in order to buy further work.

Mrs. Hall has recently returned from a visit to the hospital where she made a selection of goods to be shipped here for sale. "The work is a part of their building-up process," she explained, "and it means more than one can imagine, unless one has been there and talked with the men, for them to be occupied and their minds interested. There are no regular hours; they work only as long as they feel like it, which, if they are enthusiastic over some piece of work they are doing, may mean many hours a day."

She told of her own sold a wooden scarf for one of the boys who received a check for it at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and as it was the first article he had sold was to great satisfaction and pleasure, that he immediately started work on another.

Ex-Service Men Are Aided By Efforts of Atlanta Woman

Photo by Wesley Hirschberg Studio.

Mrs. Rupert E. Hall, lovely young matron, who is doing a splendid humanitarian work for the ex-soldiers at the government hospital in Augusta, Ga., and for the women of the rural sections of the state.

BY FRANCES BEMIS

In long, cheerful rooms, where sunshine streams through brightly curtained windows, women sit in groups before work tables and with painstaking exactness fashion comic toys; figures of Andy Gump and Min, elephants, ducks, monkeys and dogs. In other rooms in the same building men sit before looms and weave woolen scarfs, rugs and similar articles, while other groups are busy shaping baskets, designing lamp, leather goods and small pieces of furniture.

These are men of Uncle Sam, who having done their valiant bit across the seas, have been sent to the Linwood hospital, at Augusta, Ga., to await with fortitude and patience the moment when all suffering will have disappeared and when the light of reason will have returned to minds grown distorted from the forcing of shells and the shock of warfare.

Psychiatric patients, they are called, but just another term for tired minds and bodies whose return to normalcy and happiness the government is seeking to accomplish by careful medical attention, enjoyable occupation and recreation.

Atlanta Woman Assists.

And in Atlanta is a young woman, little heralded, who through the channel of the Atlanta Women's Club, quietly and without ostentation, with no reward except the joy that comes from loving service, is helping in a large measure to make sound the columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, the stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

The feet sometimes need oil.

With each meal take a tablespoonful of olive oil in the same amount of grape juice.

Captain A.:—Advice to "Harry B." also applies to your case.

Tomorrow—A New Treatment.

All inquiries addressed to Miss Forbes in care of the "Beauty Chats" department, will be answered in the columns in their turn. This requires considerable time, however, owing to the great number received. So if a personal or quicker reply is desired, the stamped and self-addressed envelope must be enclosed with the question.—The Editor.

The Constitution's Patterns

4529

A COMFORTABLE SUIT FOR HIM: "LITTLE MAN."

4529. Flannel, jersey cloth, twill or serge could be used for this model. It is also good for work fabrics. The blouse may be finished with the sleeve long, or in elbow length as illustrated.

The pattern is cut in 3 sizes: 2, 4 and 6 years. A 4-year size requires 23-1/2 yards of 36-inch material. For collar and cuffs on long sleeves of contrasting material, 5-3 yards is required, 27 inches wide.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

Send 12 cents in silver or stamps for our up-to-date fall and winter 1923-24 Book of Fashions.

In ordering patterns write name and address plainly on a sheet of paper. Order by number and enclose price in silver or stamps. Do not mail letter to The Constitution building.

Fashion Department The Constitution, 1188-89 Fulton Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Miss Burton Weds Mr. Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Y. Burton, of Royston, Ga., announce the marriage of their daughter, Malvina, to John Heyward Wright, of Hartwell, Ga., on Tuesday, October 30, 1923.

After a short trip to the hospital where she made a selection of goods to be shipped here for sale. "The work is a part of their building-up process," she explained, "and it means more than one can imagine, unless one has been there and talked with the men, for them to be occupied and their minds interested. There are no regular hours; they work only as long as they feel like it, which, if they are enthusiastic over some piece of work they are doing, may mean many hours a day."

She told of her own sold a wooden scarf for one of the boys who received a check for it at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and as it was the first article he had sold was to great satisfaction and pleasure, that he immediately started work on another.

These are four instructors engaged to teach the men, and their work is carefully supervised, so that the finished product is perfectly done. "The men are very happy," declared Mrs. Hall, "and interest in the work has grown to such an extent that it is planned soon to enlarge the plant to accommodate 600 workers. They have a particularly fine loom, and their woven goods are a light blue, as well as their basketry and toys."

Mrs. Hall expects a shipment of the goods at an early date, which will be on sale at the Women's club.

Mountain Women Helped.

But the ex-soldiers are not the only ones who have been made happy by Mrs. Hall's efforts. Throughout the mountains of Georgia are hundreds of women who can testify that but for her they would not have had even the meager comfort that has been theirs of recent months. For through the ex-change department she is disposing of their handwork; also bedspreads, pillow cases, baby yokes and caps and other articles, which the mountain women are sending to her, and the sums she is receiving for these are buying food and clothing and keeping stark want from many a mountain cabin.

The HOUSEHOLD

Edited by Anna Rittenhouse

WHEN TO ARRIVE.

If you have been invited to a friend's house for dinner or luncheon, you should ordinarily not think of arriving more than five or ten minutes before the time set for the dinner. However, if you are coming from out of town, and find it convenient to arrive earlier, then you should let your hostess know of your plans beforehand.

It is regarded as a grave social error to be late to a dinner, luncheon or card party. If you find that you have been delayed even ten or fifteen minutes, you should immediately telephone or otherwise inform your hostess. If you find that you must be as much as a half-hour late—through conditions, of course, which you cannot remedy—then suggest to your hostess that you had better not come at all. However, if she assures you that you will be welcome at a late hour, then you should be sure to go.

Never arrive at an "at home" or reception even a moment before the time set. It is better not to arrive until at least a quarter of an hour after the time specified. That is, if the cards read "four to six," you are wise not to

October's New Securities Hit Total of $246,446,000

New York, November 1.—New se-

BY R. L. BARNUM.
New York, November 1.—New securities issued during October by railroads, industrials corporations and public utility companies totalled $246,446,000, compared with $205,516,000 for September. $737,422,000 for Au-rust and $170,582,000 for October of last year. This is a gain of $75,800,000 over a year ago and all but $800,000 of the gain is shown by the railroads. During October the carriers issued $17,190,000 new bonds, an increase over last year of only $288,000, with short-term notes at $49,395,000, an increase of $47,539,000, and stock at $27,204,000, an increase of $27,204,000. The ability of the railroads to sell stock for the first time in years is most encouraging. For the ten months new security issues aggregate $2,960,316,000, an increase of the correspond-

Detroit reports a gain for the week ending May 10, with a total of 227 in the number of people on the payrolls of its industrial companies, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics. The total now stands at 2,505, against 175,351 at this time last year.

Henri Deterding, general manager of the Royal Dutch Petroleum company, with headquarters in London, arrived here today on the liner Maatscheider immediately for Mexico to inspect the oil properties in that country. According to private cable advice, Deterding is expected to hold conferences with President Batfoid and other officials before returning home to complete non-competitive arrangements in international oil markets.

Puerto Rico's oil products industry is now at the highest point in three years, although still below that of the industrial products, the department of review. The index number of the purchasing power of farm products is now placed at 75 against 73 in August, and 64 in September of 1922. The index number of the cost of goods sold today that the October shipment of his company were the largest for the year, the figures being 103,370,000 against $5,500,000 for September. He says the number of employees is now 17,000 and that the plant is running at 90 per cent of capacity.

Seas Roebuck reports for October sales of $22,576,000 against $19,933,000 for the same period of last year. That is a gain of 13.2. For the ten months sales were $174,327,000 against $141,212,000. This is a gain of 23.5.

Simms Petroleum reports net profits for the nine months ending with Sep-

Weekly Statement

Bank of England

London, November 1.—The weekly statement of the Bank of England shows the following changes:

Total reserve decreased 491,000 pounds.
Circulation increased 1,682,000 pounds.
Bullion increased 573 pounds.
Other securities decreased 145,000 pounds.
Other deposits increased 2,310,000 pounds.
Public deposits decreased 2,515,000 pounds.
Notes reserve decreased 1,581,000 pounds.
Government securities increased 1,170,000 pounds.

The proportion of the bank's reserve to liability this week is 18.97 per cent; last week it was 20.33 per cent. Rate of discount 4 per cent.

DAILY STOCK FEATURE

Over Fenner & Smead's Private Largest Wall

WYLLIS OVERLAND: Covering a road block 5,000 shares of Overland Pfd. near closing close, 11/17/32, 77 1/2, price high for the year. The supply was ample around the figure and the closing quote was 71 1/2.

CHESAPEAKE & WFO: Chesapeake Pfd. closed 11/17/32, 72 1/2, price high for the year. The supply was ample around the figure and the closing quote was 71 1/2.

THE ACTION OF THE STOCK FOR THE past two weeks has indicated that favorable developments close, 11/17/32, 72 1/2, price high for the year. The supply was ample around the figure and the closing quote was 71 1/2.

TEXAS COMPANY: Texas company forced a new low of 56 1/2 today on the close, 11/17/32, 72 1/2, price high for the year. The supply was ample around the figure and the closing quote was 71 1/2.

PROVISIONS.

CHAS. November 1—Lard, 12 1/2; ribs, 9 1/2 to 10 1/2.

ATLANTA PROVISION MARKET.
(Covered by White Provision Company.)
Cottonseed meal, 10 c 2 pounds, 25 c.
Cornfield hams, 12 to 14 pounds, 55 c.

Cornfield sausage, 10 to 15 pounds, 30¢.
 Cornfield picnic hams, 6 to 8 pounds, 15¢.
 Cornfield breakfast bacon, wide or narrow, 25¢.
 Grocer's bacon, wide or narrow, 22¢.
 Cornfield pork sausage, fresh link or bulk, 15¢.
 Cornfield wieners, 19-pound cartons, 13¢.
 Cornfield smoked link sausage, 25-pound boxes, 12¢.
 Bologna sausage, 25-pound boxes, 14½¢.
 Grandmother's lard, tierce basis, 16½¢.
 Country style lard, tierce basis, 15½¢.
 D. R. extra ribs, 12½¢.
 D. R. bellies, light average, 14¢.
 D. R. bellies, heavy average, 15½¢.

China and British India have not changed from oil to electricity or gas, and evince no desire to abandon age-old customs.

& BEANE
NEW ORLEANS

Direct Pri-

WIRE EXCHANGE
COTTON EXCHANGES
OTHER LEADING EXCHANGES Wires to BRANCH OFFICE
Floor Healey Building
1602-2210-3747-5703

AGE

Business Property
Repayable Monthly

Y

Jno. K. OTTLEY, Treasurer

S BANK

N. Malone, Special Agent ding

BUSINESS CLUB PLANS

DINNER-DANCE TONIGHT

Members of the American Business Club and their friends will attend a Halloween dinner-dance at the Peace Cafe at 7:30 o'clock tonight. Popular Atlanta artists will be featured on special musical numbers.

Included among those who will appear in special music and other entertaining numbers are: Miss Susan Reese Kennedy, pianist and vocalist; Miss Hennie Reese, in whistling numbers; Ernest Rogers, radio star; Mrs. Earl Nunnally, pianist; Miss Sarah Bosworth, in classical dances; and Miss Lillian Rokestro, violin soloist.

THEATRE

LAST 2 NIGHTS
THE MUSICAL HIT
OF A DECADE
THE MESSRS. SHUBERT'S
BLOSSOM
TIME
SUPERB COMPANY,
CHORUS AND AUG-MENTED ORCHES-TRA.
Nights.....50c to $2.50

LAST 2 NIGHTS
THE MUSICAL HIT
OF A DECADE
THE MESSRS. SHUBERT'S
BLOSSOM
TIME
SUPERB COMPANY,
CHORUS AND AUG-MENTED ORCHES-TRA.
Nights.....50c to $2.50

Mat. Sat. 50c to $2.00

Mon., Tues., Wed., NOV. 5-6-7
MATINEE WED.

The International Favorite

Jack Norworth

In a Sparkling Comedy
With Songs

"HONEYMOON HOUSE"

A SHOW YOU WILL ENJOY

FROM CURTAIN TO CURTAIN
PRICES: Nights, 80c to $2.00.
 Matinee Wednesday, 50c to $1.50.
SEATS NOW ON SALE

Thurs. Fri. Sat. NOV. 8-9-10
MATINEE SAT.
THE MYSTERY MASTERPIECE OF MODERN TIMES!

THE BAT

By Mary Roberts Rinehart and Avery Huxford
YOU SAY IT LAST YEAR—
YOU WILL WANT TO SEE IT AGAIN.

PRICES: Nights, 80c to $2.00. Saturday Matinee, 50c to $1.50.

SEATS MONDAY—MAIL ORDERS NOW

LYRIC
Atlanta's Leading PLAYHOUSE

TONIGHT AND TOMORROW
MATINEE AND NIGHT

FORSYTH PLAYERS

IN
New York's Greatest Dramatic Hit
"The Man Who Came Back"

by Jules Eckert Goodman
The Best Play In Town
MATINEES TODAY-SATURDAY
Matinees at 2:30—Nights at 8:30
POPULAR PRICES
Reserve Your Seats Now
Phones IVy 0670 and 0671
NEXT WEEK
David Belasco's Greatest Success
'THE GOLD DIGGERS'
By Avery Hopwood
The Most Gorgeous Production Ever Seen in Atlanta.

GRAND
CONTINUOUS 10 TO 11 P. M.
AFTERNOONS.....15c-25c
NIGHTS.....15c-30c-35c

ALL THIS WEEK

THE GEORGIAN FROLICS OF 1923

50 Beautiful Girls and 50 Talented Boys.

ALL LOCAL TALENT.

—ALSO—

THE POPULAR MUSICAL COMEDY AND VAUDEVILLE STAR

STELLA

MAYHEW
THE CHEERIEST COMEDIENNE
AND OTHER ACTS LEW'S BETTER VAUDEVILLE

PHOTOPLAY
ELAINE HAMMERSTEIN
—IN—
BROADWAY GOLD

B F KEITH'S
Supreme Vaudeville

FORSYTH

2 SHOWS DAILY—8-30, 7-30, 9-10
MATS, 25c-30c. NIGHTS, 30c-40c-45c

BOB HALL
"The Extraneous Chap."
"Dance Crazy."

Mildred Rogers Co.
"Dance Crazy."

Indoor Sports
"A Satire On Modern Courtship."

Harvey and Henry Grayce
"Brasses and Brassies."

Bert Shepherd
"The Australian Whip King."

LEGALITY OF RUM PACT DOUBTED BY OFFICIALS

Washington, November 1.—Although both the white house and the state department appear entirely satisfied with the practicability of the arrangement worked out in London to combat rum running, there are indications that legal objections may be brought forward in other branches of the government and may play a prominent part in senate action when the proposed treaty comes up for ratification.

Department of justice officials have not yet passed formally upon the legality of that portion of the plan which would extend to British ships the right to bring liquor into American waters, and there are some lawyers in that department who are inclined to doubt whether such a privilege could legally be given except by a constitutional amendment.

It was suggested by department of justice officials today, however, that the barrier against ship liquor stores in the constitution itself, rather than on laws passed by congress, and that the constitution could not be amended by treaty. It was said that no opinion had been asked of the department prior to submission of Mr. Hughes' proposal to London.

Throughout the ship liquor litigation before the supreme court, the justice department, acting for the federal government, took the position that it was the constitution which prohibited the bringing in of liquor on foreign

VAST TRADE DONE IN WHITE SLAVES, THE POLICE CLAIM

Brussels, November 1.—A discovery of a vast white slave enterprise through which more than 500 girls are reported to have been shipped to the United States has led to the increased vigilance of the American immigration authorities, whose representatives in Antwerp, the Belgian police say, have definite proof of the affair. The principal in the plot, named Brown, was president of a girls' protection society in Berlin who sent the girls via Antwerp, Hamburg and Rotterdam to the United States, where they fell into the hands of his confederates.

When the traffic was discovered as the result of numerous complaints, Brown fled from Germany. The Belgian authorities regard as curious the fact that they have received no request for Brown's arrest from the German authorities. They suggest that this is perhaps due to the fact that during the war Brown was reported to have been one of the most active members of the German espionage system and the Germans are afraid that he would be arrested in Belgium and would make startling revelations regarding the war-time activities of German spies.

Four-bearing animals received legal protection in Maine in 1896, in Ohio in 1897, Nebraska in 1872 and Montana in 1885.

Four Are Arrested For Shoving Queer On Dancer's Story

Chicago, November 1.—The four men held here in connection with circulating $50,000 in counterfeit $20 bills were arrested through information supplied by a Kansas City cabaret dancer with whom one of the quartet quarreled after he had confided in her, according to secret service operatives. From that man, Edward C. Brown, the federal officers say they have obtained a confession, accounting for the spurious notes which were represented to be of the federal reserve issue bearing serial numbers A-207, A-208 and B-198. Engravers of the plates from which the counterfeit currency was printed, and the printers of it are being sought.

The bobbed haired, blonde cabaret entertainer went to the head of the secret service department in Kansas City with her story after she quarreled with Brown, it is said, and later came to Chicago, and was "with the officers when they seized Brown." The others under arrest are Ralph Olsen, said to be a former park policeman; Bob Witt, alias B. E. Edwards, advertising solicitor and Lewis Ketter, said to be a former hair goods dealer, all of Chicago.

Search for the makers of the counterfeit notes began last June, according to treasury department operatives.

At the time of the Dempsey-Tyrer fight, the spurious notes became common in New York, then again in Chicago and shortly afterward the trail of the distributors moved west to Colorado.

In October 4, Brown's confession stated, according to the detectives the quartet came back to Chicago and started on a second trip to the west.

SHE GAVE POISON TO STEP-CHILDREN TO GET FORTUNE

Fresno, Cal., November 1.—A desire to come into complete possession of a fortune willed to her step-children is believed to have prompted Mrs. Louise Potigian to poison them, according to authorities who announced last night that Mrs. Potigian had confessed to administering a lethal drug which caused the death of her step-daughter, Miss Margaret Potigian, 18, who died Tuesday after a prolonged illness.

The other children recovered, after Mrs. Potigian relented and called a doctor to give them an antidote, according to police. She is being held on a charge of murder.

The children were left the estate of their father when he died last summer, his widow being left only a life interest in the legacy.

In her confession, Mrs. Potigian is said by authorities to have declared that the decision to kill the children was reached after forty days of prayer. The poison was fed to them in food over a period of two months and she took some of it herself, according to her reported confession.

The antidote given by the doctor failed to save the life of Margaret, whose lingering illness baffled physicians, and resulted in an investigation after the girl's death.

CHAMBERS IS HURT WHEN TRUCKS CRASH

E. L. Chambers, of 271 Luckie street, an employee of the Salvation army, was seriously cut and bruised Thursday afternoon when the truck on which he was riding collided with another truck belonging to the Meador Construction company.

The accident, which was said to have been unavoidable, occurred at the intersection of Chambers' street and DeKalb avenue and Chandler crossing.

The Meador truck was driven by A. C. Moore, of 10 West Harris street. Moore and James H. Edwards, of 271 Luckie street, who was driving the Salvation army truck, escaped unhurt. The trucks were badly damaged.

SHAKESPEARE CLASS WILL MEET TODAY

A meeting of the Shakespeare class has been called for 10:30 o'clock this morning in the assembly hall of the Carnegie library, officials of the organization announced Thursday.

The class, which is composed of members of the grand lodge of Virginia, each in turn spread mortar with a silver trowel, and the grand masters of every jurisdiction in the United States or their emissaries, were present.

Mr. Callahan presided over the ceremony, and the grand master of Virginia, in recognition of his service for the advancement of Masonry in the United States and because the erection of the memorial was his suggestion. He was attended by the full grand lodge, two past grand masters bearing the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

Use Masonic Ritual. The great stone, bearing the emblematic square and compass of Free Masonry and containing a Bible, an American flag, a copy of the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

The great stone, bearing the emblematic square and compass of Free Masonry and containing a Bible, an American flag, a copy of the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

Mr. Callahan presided over the ceremony, and the grand master of Virginia, in recognition of his service for the advancement of Masonry in the United States and because the erection of the memorial was his suggestion. He was attended by the full grand lodge, two past grand masters bearing the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

The great stone, bearing the emblematic square and compass of Free Masonry and containing a Bible, an American flag, a copy of the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

Mr. Callahan presided over the ceremony, and the grand master of Virginia, in recognition of his service for the advancement of Masonry in the United States and because the erection of the memorial was his suggestion. He was attended by the full grand lodge, two past grand masters bearing the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

The great stone, bearing the emblematic square and compass of Free Masonry and containing a Bible, an American flag, a copy of the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

Mr. Callahan presided over the ceremony, and the grand master of Virginia, in recognition of his service for the advancement of Masonry in the United States and because the erection of the memorial was his suggestion. He was attended by the full grand lodge, two past grand masters bearing the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

The great stone, bearing the emblematic square and compass of Free Masonry and containing a Bible, an American flag, a copy of the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

Mr. Callahan presided over the ceremony, and the grand master of Virginia, in recognition of his service for the advancement of Masonry in the United States and because the erection of the memorial was his suggestion. He was attended by the full grand lodge, two past grand masters bearing the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

The great stone, bearing the emblematic square and compass of Free Masonry and containing a Bible, an American flag, a copy of the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

Mr. Callahan presided over the ceremony, and the grand master of Virginia, in recognition of his service for the advancement of Masonry in the United States and because the erection of the memorial was his suggestion. He was attended by the full grand lodge, two past grand masters bearing the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

The great stone, bearing the emblematic square and compass of Free Masonry and containing a Bible, an American flag, a copy of the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

Mr. Callahan presided over the ceremony, and the grand master of Virginia, in recognition of his service for the advancement of Masonry in the United States and because the erection of the memorial was his suggestion. He was attended by the full grand lodge, two past grand masters bearing the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

The great stone, bearing the emblematic square and compass of Free Masonry and containing a Bible, an American flag, a copy of the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

Mr. Callahan presided over the ceremony, and the grand master of Virginia, in recognition of his service for the advancement of Masonry in the United States and because the erection of the memorial was his suggestion. He was attended by the full grand lodge, two past grand masters bearing the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

The great stone, bearing the emblematic square and compass of Free Masonry and containing a Bible, an American flag, a copy of the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

Mr. Callahan presided over the ceremony, and the grand master of Virginia, in recognition of his service for the advancement of Masonry in the United States and because the erection of the memorial was his suggestion. He was attended by the full grand lodge, two past grand masters bearing the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

The great stone, bearing the emblematic square and compass of Free Masonry and containing a Bible, an American flag, a copy of the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

Mr. Callahan presided over the ceremony, and the grand master of Virginia, in recognition of his service for the advancement of Masonry in the United States and because the erection of the memorial was his suggestion. He was attended by the full grand lodge, two past grand masters bearing the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

The great stone, bearing the emblematic square and compass of Free Masonry and containing a Bible, an American flag, a copy of the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

Mr. Callahan presided over the ceremony, and the grand master of Virginia, in recognition of his service for the advancement of Masonry in the United States and because the erection of the memorial was his suggestion. He was attended by the full grand lodge, two past grand masters bearing the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

The great stone, bearing the emblematic square and compass of Free Masonry and containing a Bible, an American flag, a copy of the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

Mr. Callahan presided over the ceremony, and the grand master of Virginia, in recognition of his service for the advancement of Masonry in the United States and because the erection of the memorial was his suggestion. He was attended by the full grand lodge, two past grand masters bearing the Holy Bible and three others carrying the lesser lights of Masonry.

GAS WORKER HURT BY TROLLEY CAR; WORKING ON MAIN

W. C. Brown, of 78 Dodd avenue, an employee of the Georgia Railway and Power company gas department, is at Grady hospital in a critical condition after being struck by a trolley car on an oncoming street car on Marietta street while working on a gas main Tuesday afternoon.

Witnesses said that Brown was working on an excavation between the tracks and that he was struck while working on the main of the car said that he did not see the victim in time to avoid the accident.

Brown suffered several broken ribs and possibly internal injuries.

PRESIDENT PLIES TROWEL ON STONE

Alexandria, Va., November 1.—With solemn ritual, in the presence of the nation's highest officials and the largest gathering of Masons in history, the cornerstone of the lofty national memorial to George Washington, was laid today.

The completed structure will be one of the largest monuments ever erected in honor of an individual. Standing on the crest of Shooter's hill, the massive granite pile will rise a columned dignity 200 feet above the stone set in place today, to command a perpetual view of the vast stretch of the Potomac river, the capital of the republic he helped make possible, and the quaint old town of Alexandria where he presided over the nation's first congress.

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

APPLICATION TO CUT RAIL WAGES HEARD

Clarksville, Ga., November 1.—Judge Jones held a hearing Wednesday upon the application of the receiver of the Tallulah Falls Railway company to reduce the wages and salaries of all the employees of the Tallulah Falls railroad. The hearing consumed the entire day, and after all evidence was in, the judge took the matter under advisement and announced that he would render his decision later. The contention of the receiver is that the income of the road is not sufficient to enable him to pay the employees war-time wages and prices, and asks that the wages and salaries of the employees be cut so as to be commensurate with the income of the railroad.

MINORITY IS RULING, SAYS MRS. MAUD PARK

Urbana, Ill., November 1.—As a result of indifference on the part of voters, the United States is being ruled by a minority of its eligible electors, Mrs. Maud Wood Park, president of the National League of Women Voters, declared here today in an address to the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

President Coolidge, though not a member of the fraternity, silently spread the first mortar with the trowel of his guest, the president of the Citizens school being conducted by the University of Illinois.

"Fewer than one-half—40 percent—of the eligible voters cast a ballot in the presidential election in 1920," Mrs. Park said. "In primary and local elections the percentage is often much lower."

"If we are really to be a democracy it is high time we are about it. Public-spirited citizens should help to increase the number of voters. The goal in 1924 should be for 75 percent of the voter that could have been cast in 1920."

ISLAND ANNEXATION IS NOT CONTEMPLATED

Washington, November 1.—Senator Walsh, democrat of Montana, reported in Manila dispatches as having predicted a bill would be introduced in the next congress, making the Philippines a permanent part of the United States, said today he had knowledge that such a plan was in prospect and that personally he favored Philippine independence.

MORTUARY

MRS. MILDRED C. PATTON. Mrs. Mildred C. Patton, 72, of 1810 Park street, died Thursday afternoon at the residence. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. J. E. Oliver, Mrs. W. N. Cates, and Mrs. W. C. and T. R. Patton, and a sister, Mrs. H. Akins. Hunter-Blanchard-Gartrell in charge.

STANLEY CHARLES MENSINGER. Stanley Charles Mensinger, Jr., three and one-half-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Mensinger, died Thursday afternoon at a private hospital. Other than his parents he is survived by a sister, June Mensinger, a paternal grandparent, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Mensinger, his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Carver, three aunts, Mrs. W. G. Kassner, Mrs. H. F. Burton, Mrs. Oliver Berchert and two uncles, Raymond Mensinger and Robert Carver, Barclay & Brandon in charge.

MRS. LILLIE N. LOWRY. Mrs. Lillie N. Lowry, 50, of 177 Luckie street, died Thursday at the residence. She had been prominently connected in church affairs for many years. She is survived by a son, Wheeler Lowry; a daughter, Awtry Howell; three sisters, Mrs. H. A. Powell, and Mrs. W. T. Falls, both of Centerville, and Mrs. A. Gregg, of Dalton. Hunter-Blanchard-Gartrell in charge.

You Know a "nic is Good when it makes you eat like a hungry boy and brings back the color to your cheeks. You can feel the Strengthening, Invigorating Effect of GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC. 60c—(adv.)

Regular weekly meeting of Atlanta Camp 430, W. O. F., will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Redmen's Wigwam, 80 Central avenue. Sovereigns cordially invited to attend. SAM A. KYTOR, W. M. ERNEST A. FURBER, Sec.

Regular meeting of Atlanta Camp 430, W. O. F., will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Redmen's Wigwam, 80 Central avenue. Sovereigns cordially invited to attend. SAM A. KYTOR, W. M. ERNEST A. FURBER, Sec.

Regular meeting of Atlanta Camp 430, W. O. F., will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Red